

SAT 2000 — Day 01 · Praise & Admiration (■■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
laud	v.	/ləʊd/	to praise highly	■■■■■	Critics lauded her debut novel as a small masterpiece.
extol	v.	/ˈkɛstoʊl/	to praise enthusiastically	■■■■■	The coach extolled the virtues of daily practice.
exalt	v.	/ˈzælt/	to praise or raise in status	■■■■■, ■■■■	The poem exalts ordinary labor as something sacred.
glorify	v.	/ˈglɔrɪfaɪ/	to praise as glorious	■■■■■, ■■■■	The film glorifies its outlaw hero a little too eagerly.
acclaim	v.	/əˈkleɪm/	to praise publicly	■■■■■	Audiences acclaimed the production from its opening night.
commend	v.	/kəˈmɛnd/	to praise formally	■■■■■	The principal commended the students for their honesty.
tout	v.	/taʊt/	to praise or promote loudly	■■■■■	Advertisers tout the drink as a miracle cure.
vaunt	v.	/vaʊnt/	to boast about proudly	■■■■■	He vaunted his connections to anyone who would listen.
blandish	v.	/ˈblændɪʃ/	to coax with flattery	■■■■ ■■	She blandished the guard until he waved her through.
venerate	v.	/ˈvɛnərət/	to regard with deep respect	■■■■■	Many cultures venerate their ancestors with annual rites.
revere	v.	/rɪˈvɛr/	to honor with profound respect	■■■■■	Students revered the old professor almost as a saint.
idolize	v.	/ˈaɪdɪlaɪz/	to admire to excess	■■■■■	As a boy he idolized the local baseball star.
lionize	v.	/ˈlaɪɒnaɪz/	to treat as a celebrity	■■■■■	The press lionized the young inventor overnight.
fete	v.	/feɪt/	to honor with festivity	■■■ ■■■■	The city feted the returning athletes with a parade.
eulogize	v.	/ˈjuːlədʒaɪz/	to praise, especially the dead	■■■ ■■■	She eulogized her mentor at the crowded memorial.
apotheosize	v.	/ˈpəθiəsaɪz/	to glorify as a god	■■■■■	Later generations apotheosized the founder beyond recognition.
beatify	v.	/biˈætɪfaɪ/	to declare blessed (church)	■■■ ■■■■	The pope moved to beatify the martyred nun.
canonize	v.	/ˈkænɒnaɪz/	to declare a saint	■■■■ ■■■■	It took centuries for the church to canonize her.
esteem	n.	/ˈstiːm/	high regard	■■, ■■ ■■	She is held in great esteem by her colleagues.
homage	n.	/ˈhɒmɪdʒ/	respect shown publicly	■■■	The mural pays homage to the neighborhood's workers.
reverence	n.	/rɪˈvɛrəns/	deep respect	■■■	He spoke of his teacher with obvious reverence.
veneration	n.	/ˈvɛnərəˈeɪʃən/	deep respect or worship	■■■	The relic is treated with near-religious veneration.
adulation	n.	/ədʒuˈleɪʃən/	excessive praise	■■■, ■■	The star grew uneasy under so much adulation.
laudation	n.	/ləʊdeɪʃən/	the act of high praise	■■■	The ceremony was an evening of unbroken laudation.
accolade	n.	/əˈkɒləd/	an award or high praise	■■■, ■■	The prize is the highest accolade in her field.
plaudit	n.	/ˈplɒdɪt/	enthusiastic approval	■■■	Her speech earned plaudits from across the aisle.
encomium	n.	/ˈɛnkoʊmiəm/	a formal tribute of praise	■■■	The obituary read like a heartfelt encomium.
panegyric	n.	/ˈpænɪdʒərɪk/	an elaborate speech of praise	■■■, ■■■■	His introduction was less a review than a panegyric.
paeon	n.	/ˈpiːən/	a song of praise or triumph	■■■	The final chapter is a paeon to small-town life.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
apotheosis	n.	/ˈpɒθiˌoʊsɪs/	the perfect or highest example	아포테오시스, 아포테오시스	The dish is the apotheosis of comfort food.
laudatory	adj.	/ləʊdətəri/	expressing praise	찬양적	The review was so laudatory it sounded paid for.
eulogistic	adj.	/juˈlɒdɪstɪk/	full of high praise	찬양적	He gave a eulogistic toast that ran far too long.
venerable	adj.	/ˈvɛnərəbəl/	worthy of deep respect	존경할 만한	They dined at a venerable old club downtown.
estimable	adj.	/ˈestɪməbəl/	deserving respect	존경할 만한	She is an estimable scholar and a kind teacher.
meritorious	adj.	/məˈrɪtəriəs/	deserving reward or praise	공로가 있는	He received a medal for meritorious service.
exemplary	adj.	/ɪmˈplɪəri/	serving as a praiseworthy model	표범적	Her conduct throughout the crisis was exemplary.
paragon	n.	/ˈpærəɡɒn/	a model of excellence	표범, 표범	He was held up as a paragon of restraint.
laureate	n.	/ləʊreɪt/	one honored for achievement	노벨상 수상자, 노벨상 수상자	The Nobel laureate addressed a packed auditorium.
doyen	n.	/ˈdɔɪn/	the senior, respected member	표범, 표범	She is the doyen of architecture critics.
panegyrist	n.	/ˈpæniˌdʒrɪst/	one who delivers praise	찬양가	Every emperor kept a panegyrist or two at court.
sycophant	n.	/ˈsɪkəfənt/	a self-serving flatterer	표범	The boss surrounded himself with sycophants.
toady	n.	/ˈtoʊdi/	a servile flatterer	표범	He played the toady, agreeing with every word.
obsequious	adj.	/əˈbɪsɪkwɪəs/	excessively obedient or fawning	표범적	The waiter's obsequious manner made guests uneasy.
fawning	adj.	/ˈfɔʊnɪŋ/	seeking favor by flattery	표범적	She dismissed the fawning crowd of admirers.
fulsome	adj.	/ˈfʊlsəm/	praise so excessive it offends	표범, 표범	His fulsome compliments rang hollow.
unctuous	adj.	/ˈʊktuəs/	smoothly insincere	표범적, 표범적	The salesman's unctuous tone set off alarms.
deferential	adj.	/dɪˈfɛrənʃəl/	showing respectful submission	표범	Junior staff were deferential to the chair.
kowtow	v.	/ˈkaʊtaʊ/	to act servilely; to grovel	표범	He refused to kowtow to the board's every whim.
genuflect	v.	/dʒəˈnjuːflɪkt/	to bend the knee in respect	표범, 표범	Pilgrims genuflect as they enter the shrine.
hagiography	n.	/ˈhæɡiˌɒɡrəfi/	an idealizing biography	표범, 표범, 표범	The memoir reads as pure hagiography of its subject.

SAT 2000 — Day 02 · Criticism & Contempt (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
castigate	v.	/kæst■■e■t/	to criticize severely	■■■■, ■■■■	The editorial castigated the mayor for the delay.
censure	v.	/s■n■■r/	to blame or condemn formally	■■■■	The senate voted to censure one of its members.
reproach	v.	/r■■pro■t■/	to express disapproval to	■■■■	She reproached him for forgetting the meeting.
rebuke	v.	/r■■bju■k/	to scold sharply	■■■	The judge rebuked the lawyer for the outburst.
upbraid	v.	/p■bre■d/	to reprove severely	■■■ ■■■■	He upbraided the crew for the careless mistake.
admonish	v.	/d■m■■n■■/	to warn or scold gently	■■■■	The teacher admonished them to stop whispering.
reprove	v.	/r■■pru■v/	to express disapproval of	■■■■	Her glance was enough to reprove the children.
chide	v.	/t■a■d/	to scold mildly	■■■	He gently chided her for working so late.
berate	v.	/b■■re■t/	to scold angrily at length	■■■ ■■■	The coach berated the team after the loss.
objurgate	v.	/■■■bd■■r■e■t/	to rebuke harshly	■■■■	The drill sergeant objurgated the late recruits.
vituperate	v.	/v■■tu■p■re■t/	to abuse verbally	■■■ ■■■	He vituperated against his critics for an hour.
excoriate	v.	/k■sk■■rie■t/	to criticize scathingly	■■■■■	Reviewers excoriated the film as lazy and cynical.
lambaste	v.	/læm■be■st/	to criticize harshly	■■■■	The columnist lambasted the new policy.
fulminate	v.	/f■lm■ne■t/	to protest loudly and angrily	■■■ ■■■■	He fulminated against the rising fees.
harangue	v.	/h■■ræ■/	to lecture aggressively	■■■ ■■■■	She harangued the crowd about wasted resources.
diatribe	n.	/da■■tra■b/	a bitter verbal attack	■■■, ■■	His email turned into a five-page diatribe.
invective	n.	/n■v■kt■v/	abusive language	■■	The debate dissolved into shouted invective.
obloquy	n.	/■■■bl■kwi/	strong public condemnation	■■, ■■	The scandal brought years of obloquy.
opprobrium	n.	/pro■bri■m/	harsh public disgrace	■■, ■■	The verdict heaped opprobrium on the firm.
calumny	n.	/kæl■mni/	a false, damaging statement	■■, ■■	He sued the paper for spreading calumny.
vilify	v.	/v■l■fa■/	to speak of as worthless	■■■■	The press vilified her without proof.
malign	v.	/m■■la■n/	to speak harmful untruths about	■■■	Rivals malignd him behind closed doors.
denigrate	v.	/d■n■■re■t/	to attack the reputation of	■■■■	He never denigrates the work of others.
disparage	v.	/d■■spær■d■/	to belittle or undervalue	■■■■■	She tends to disparage her own achievements.
deprecate	v.	/d■pr■ke■t/	to express disapproval of	■■■, ■■■■	Critics deprecate the sequel as needless.
decry	v.	/d■■kra■/	to condemn openly	■■■■ ■■■■	Activists decried the plan as reckless.
defame	v.	/d■■fe■m/	to harm the reputation of	■■■ ■■■■	The rumor was designed to defame her.
traduce	v.	/tr■■du■s/	to slander or misrepresent	■■■■	He felt the article traduced his motives.
impugn	v.	/m■pju■n/	to attack as false or wrong	■■■ ■■■■	No one dared impugn her integrity.
revile	v.	/r■■va■l/	to criticize abusively	■■■	The deserter was reviled in the press.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
vilipend	v.	/ˈvɪlɪpənd/	to treat with contempt	빌립엔드	He tends to vilipend ideas he doesn't understand.
deride	v.	/dɪˈraɪd/	to mock or ridicule	데라이드	They derided the proposal as naive.
scorn	v.	/skɔːrn/	to reject with contempt	스코른	She scorned the easy way out.
disdain	v.	/dɪsˈdeɪn/	to regard as beneath one	디스데인	He disdained small talk of any kind.
contemn	v.	/kɒnˈtɛm/	to view with contempt	컨템ن	The essay contemns every form of flattery.
scoff	v.	/skɒf/	to speak with mocking scorn	스코프	Skeptics scoffed at the early predictions.
sneer	v.	/sniːr/	to smile or speak contemptuously	스니어	He sneered at their amateur effort.
jeer	v.	/dʒiːr/	to taunt mockingly	지어	The crowd jeered as the player missed.
flout	v.	/flaʊt/	to openly disregard with scorn	플라우트, 플라우트	Drivers routinely flout the speed limit here.
belittle	v.	/bɪˈlɪtəl/	to make seem unimportant	벨리틀	Don't belittle the effort it took to finish.
demean	v.	/dɪˈmiːn/	to lower in dignity	데미언	Such jokes only demean the people they target.
derisive	adj.	/dɪˈraɪsɪv/	expressing ridicule	데라이브	A derisive laugh greeted his excuse.
scathing	adj.	/ˈskeɪðɪŋ/	severely critical	스케이팅	She wrote a scathing review of the play.
caustic	adj.	/ˈkɔːstɪk/	bitingly sarcastic	코스타익	His caustic wit left no one safe.
mordant	adj.	/ˈmɔːrdənt/	sharply sarcastic	모르다نت, 모르다نت	The satire is mordant but never cruel.
supercilious	adj.	/ˈsuːpərˈsɪliəs/	haughtily disdainful	슈퍼실리우스	Her supercilious tone alienated the whole room.
contemptuous	adj.	/kɒnˈtɛmptʃuəs/	showing scorn	컨템투어스	He gave a contemptuous shrug and walked off.
pillory	v.	/ˈpɪləri/	to expose to public ridicule	필러리	The tabloids pilloried the careless official.
lampoon	v.	/ləmˈpuːn/	to mock with satire	람푼	The cartoon lampooned both candidates equally.
denounce	v.	/dɪˈnaʊns/	to condemn publicly	덴나운스	Leaders denounced the attack within hours.

SAT 2000 — Day 03 · Doubt & Skepticism (■■■.■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
dubious	adj.	/ˈduːbiəs/	doubtful; of questionable value	■■■■■	She gave the salesman a dubious look and pocketed her money.
incredulous	adj.	/ˈnɪkrɪdʒləs/	unwilling to believe	■■ ■■	He stared at the bill, incredulous that it could cost so much.
leery	adj.	/ˈliːri/	cautious and distrustful	■■■■	Investors grew leery after the firm's third missed deadline.
chary	adj.	/ˈtʃəri/	cautiously reluctant	■■■■■	She was chary of lending money to relatives.
quizzical	adj.	/ˈkwɪzɪkəl/	mildly puzzled or questioning	■■■■■■	He answered with a quizzical tilt of his head.
jaundiced	adj.	/ˈdʒaʊndɪst/	cynical from bias or resentment	■■■ ■	Years of betrayal had given her a jaundiced view of politics.
skeptical	adj.	/ˈskɛptɪkəl/	inclined to question claims	■■■■	Scientists remained skeptical until the result was replicated.
incredulity	n.	/ˈɪnkrɪduːləti/	unwillingness to believe	■■, ■■	The verdict was met with gasps of incredulity.
misgiving	n.	/ˈmɪsgɪvɪŋ/	a feeling of doubt or unease	■■, ■■■	He signed the contract despite serious misgivings.
qualm	n.	/kwɒlm/	a pang of doubt or conscience	■■■■	She felt no qualm about turning down the offer.
compunction	n.	/kəmˈpʌŋkʃən/	a scruple or uneasy doubt	■■■ ■■	He lied without the slightest compunction.
reservation	n.	/ˈrɪzərveɪʃən/	a lingering doubt or limit on acceptance	■■, ■■■	She accepted the plan, but with reservations.
scruple	n.	/ˈskruːpəl/	a doubt that checks one's action	■■■ ■■■	His scruples kept him from accepting the bribe.
wariness	n.	/ˈwɛrɪnəs/	cautious distrust	■■■	Her wariness around strangers had kept her safe.
distrust	n.	/dɪsˈtrʌst/	lack of trust	■■	A deep distrust of authority ran through the town.
mistrust	n.	/mɪsˈtrʌst/	suspicion; want of confidence	■■	Mutual mistrust doomed the negotiations from the start.
diffidence	n.	/ˈdɪfɪdəns/	self-doubt; lack of confidence	■■ ■■	His diffidence in meetings hid a sharp mind.
trepidation	n.	/ˈtrɛpɪdeɪʃən/	anxious uncertainty	■■■, ■■	She opened the results with obvious trepidation.
apprehension	n.	/əˈprɛhɛnʃən/	uneasy anticipation of trouble	■■, ■■	He awaited the diagnosis with growing apprehension.
incredible	adj.	/ˈnɪkrɪdɪbəl/	too implausible to be believed	■■ ■■■	His alibi was so incredible that no juror bought it.
implausible	adj.	/ˈmɪpləʊzəbəl/	hard to believe; unlikely	■■ ■■	The novel's ending struck readers as wholly implausible.
conjectural	adj.	/kənˈdʒektʃərəl/	based on guesswork; unproven	■■■ ■■■	The earliest dates remain entirely conjectural.
spurious	adj.	/ˈspjʊriəs/	false despite a genuine look	■■■, ■■■	The painting was exposed as a spurious imitation.
apocryphal	adj.	/əˈpɒkrɪfəl/	of doubtful authenticity	■■■ ■■■■	The famous quote is almost certainly apocryphal. questionable	adj.	/ˈkwɛstʃənəbəl/	of doubtful honesty or value	■■■■■	The deal relied on some questionable accounting.
equivocal	adj.	/ˈkwɪvəkəl/	ambiguous; open to doubt	■■■, ■■■	The test returned an equivocal result, neither clearing nor condemning him.
tenuous	adj.	/ˈtiːnjuəs/	weak; lacking firm basis	■■■ ■■■	The link between the two events is tenuous at best.
untenable	adj.	/ˈnʌtənəbəl/	indefensible; not credible	■■■ ■ ■■	New evidence made his theory untenable.
moot	adj.	/muːt/	open to argument; debatable	■■■ ■■■ ■■	Whether the rule even applies here is a moot point.
contestable	adj.	/kənˈtɛstəbəl/	open to dispute	■■■ ■■■ ■ ■■	Her conclusions are interesting but highly contestable.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
suspect	adj.	/sʰspʰkt/	regarded with suspicion	■■■■■	The whole arrangement seemed suspect to the auditor.
dubiety	n.	/du■■ba■■ti/	the state of being doubtful	■■■, ■■■■	A note of dubiety crept into his otherwise firm reply.
incertitude	n.	/nʰs■■rt■■tu■d/	uncertainty; doubt	■■■■■	The forecast was offered with frank incertitude.
skepticism	n.	/sk■■pt■■s■■z■■m/	a doubting attitude	■■■■■	She greeted the miracle cure with healthy skepticism.
cynicism	n.	/s■■n■■s■■z■■m/	distrust of others' motives	■■■■■	His cynicism made him assume every favor had a price.
pyrrhonism	n.	/p■■r■■n■■z■■m/	radical philosophical doubt	■■■■ ■■■■	His thoroughgoing pyrrhonism questioned whether anything could be known at all.
agnostic	adj.	/æ■■n■■st■■k/	noncommittal; doubtful of certainty	■■■■■■■	On the merger's value he remained firmly agnostic.
noncommittal	adj.	/n■■nk■■m■■t■■l/	withholding firm commitment	■■■■ ■■■■ ■■■■ ■■	The minister gave a deliberately noncommittal answer.
circumspect	adj.	/s■■rk■■mspʰkt/	warily cautious	■■■■	She was circumspect about sharing details with the press.
guarded	adj.	/■■■■rd■■d/	cautious and reserved	■■■■■■	He offered only a guarded endorsement of the plan.
wary	adj.	/w■■ri/	watchful and distrustful	■■■■■	Travelers grew wary of the too-friendly stranger.
askance	adv.	/■■skæns/	with suspicion or disapproval	■■■■■, ■■■■	The committee looked askance at his sudden wealth.
demur	v.	/d■■m■■r/	to object or hesitate	■■■■ ■■■■	When asked to sign at once, she politely demurred.
vacillate	v.	/væ■■le■■t/	to waver indecisively	■■■■■	He vacillated for weeks before declining the post.
waver	v.	/we■■v■■r/	to be irresolute; hesitate	■■■■■, ■■■■	Her confidence never wavered, even under cross-examination.
equivocate	v.	/■■kw■■v■■ke■■t/	to speak ambiguously to avoid commitment	■■■■■■	Pressed for a yes or no, the witness equivocated.
doubt	v.	/da■■t/	to be uncertain about	■■■■■	Few doubted that the storm would worsen by nightfall.
discredit	v.	/d■■s■■kr■■d■■t/	to cast doubt on; harm the credibility of	■■■■ ■■■■■■	The leaked memo discredited the official's denials.
gainsay	v.	/■■e■■n■■se■■/	to deny or contradict	■■■■■, ■■■■	No one could gainsay the strength of her evidence.
second-guess	v.	/s■■k■■nd■■■s/	to doubt or criticize after the fact	■■■■ ■■■■	He kept second-guessing the decision long after it was made.

SAT 2000 — Day 04 · Certainty & Conviction (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
dogmatic	adj.	/dɒɡməˈtɪk/	asserting opinions as undeniable fact	■■■■	He was too dogmatic to entertain any opposing view.
categorical	adj.	/ˈkætəɡərɪkəl/	unqualified; absolute	■■■■	The spokesman issued a categorical denial of the rumor.
indubitable	adj.	/ɪnˈduːbətəbəl/	impossible to doubt	■■■ ■■ ■■	Her talent for figures was indubitable.
apodictic	adj.	/əˈpɒdɪktɪk/	clearly and necessarily true	■■■ ■■■	He delivered the theorem in an apodictic tone that allowed no dispute.
asseverate	v.	/əˈseɪvəreɪt/	to declare earnestly and firmly	■■■■	She asseverated her innocence to the very end.
incontrovertible	adj.	/ɪnˈkɒŋtrəvɜːrtəbəl/	not open to dispute	■■■ ■ ■■	The DNA offered incontrovertible proof of his presence.
irrefutable	adj.	/ɪrɪˈfjuːtəbəl/	impossible to disprove	■■■ ■ ■■	The audit produced irrefutable evidence of fraud.
indisputable	adj.	/ɪnˈdɪspjuːtəbəl/	beyond question	■■■ ■■■ ■■	Her command of the language is indisputable.
unassailable	adj.	/ʊnəˈseɪləbəl/	impossible to attack or refute	■■■ ■ ■■	He built an unassailable case from the documents.
ironclad	adj.	/aɪˈrɪnklæd/	so firm it cannot be challenged	■■■, ■■■	They signed an ironclad guarantee against defects.
incontestable	adj.	/ɪnˈkɒntestəbəl/	not able to be disputed	■■ ■ ■■	Their claim to the land was, by then, incontestable.
axiomatic	adj.	/æksɪˈmætɪk/	self-evidently true	■■■	It is axiomatic that trust must be earned.
infallible	adj.	/ɪnˈfæləbəl/	incapable of being wrong	■■ ■■■ ■■	He treated his own judgment as infallible.
unwavering	adj.	/ʊnˈweɪvərɪŋ/	steady and unshaken	■■■ ■■	Her unwavering faith carried the team through the slump.
unflinching	adj.	/ʊnˈflɪntɪŋ/	not shrinking; firmly steady	■■■■ ■■	He gave an unflinching account of his own mistakes.
resolute	adj.	/rɪˈzɒlʊt/	firmly determined	■■■, ■■	He remained resolute despite mounting opposition.
steadfast	adj.	/stɛdˈfæst/	firmly loyal and unchanging	■■■	She was steadfast in her support of the cause.
staunch	adj.	/stɔːntʃ/	firm and dependable in loyalty	■■■, ■■■	He was a staunch defender of the old traditions.
ineluctable	adj.	/ɪnˈelʊktəbəl/	impossible to avoid or escape	■■ ■ ■■	The ineluctable conclusion was that he had known all along.
definitive	adj.	/dɪfɪˈnɪtɪv/	conclusive; settling the matter	■■■■	The study offered a definitive answer to the question.
conclusive	adj.	/kɒnˈkluːsɪv/	decisive; putting an end to doubt	■■■■	The fingerprints were conclusive evidence of guilt.
undeniable	adj.	/ʊndɪˈnaɪəbəl/	impossible to deny	■■■ ■ ■■	Her influence on the field is undeniable.
resolved	adj.	/rɪˈzɒlvd/	firmly decided	■■■ ■	He was resolved to finish the climb before dark.
peremptory	adj.	/pəˈrɛmptəri/	admitting no refusal or debate	■■■, ■■■ ■■■■	She dismissed the question with a peremptory wave.
emphatic	adj.	/ɪmˈfætɪk/	forceful and definite	■■■, ■■■■	His answer was an emphatic no.
assured	adj.	/əˈʃʊəd/	confident and certain	■■■■	She spoke in the assured tone of an expert.
doctrinaire	adj.	/dɒkˈtrɪnəri/	rigidly bound to theory	■■■■■■	His doctrinaire approach ignored every practical objection.
tendentious	adj.	/tɛndɪˈnɛns/	pushing a biased viewpoint	■■■	The essay was too tendentious to pass as reporting.
demonstrable	adj.	/dɛmˈɒnstreɪbəl/	able to be clearly proven	■■ ■■■	The benefit was demonstrable within a single quarter.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
unmistakable	adj.	/ˌʌnmɪsteɪkəbəl/	too clear to be confused	■■■■ ■■■■ ■■	There was an unmistakable note of triumph in her voice.
indefatigable	adj.	/ˌɪndɪfəˈtætɪbəl/	tireless in conviction or effort	■■ ■■■■	He was an indefatigable champion of reform.
conviction	n.	/kɒnvɪkʃən/	a firmly held belief	■■, ■■	She argued with the force of deep conviction.
certitude	n.	/ˈsɜːrtɪtuːd/	complete certainty	■■	He spoke of the future with surprising certitude.
assurance	n.	/əˈʃʊərəns/	confidence; a firm guarantee	■■, ■■	She gave her assurance that the work would be done.
aplomb	n.	/ˈplɒm/	self-assured poise	■■■, ■■■	He handled the hostile questions with complete aplomb.
sureness	n.	/ˈʃʊərəns/	freedom from doubt; confidence	■■	She handled the questions with quiet sureness.
resolve	n.	/rɪˈzɒlv/	firm determination	■■, ■■	Nothing could shake his resolve to see it through.
fortitude	n.	/ˈfɔːrtɪtuːd/	steady courage under hardship	■■ ■■	She bore the long illness with quiet fortitude.
credence	n.	/ˈkriːdəns/	belief in or acceptance as true	■■■, ■■	The new data lent credence to her theory.
dogmatism	n.	/ˈdɒɡmətɪzəm/	arrogant assertion of opinion	■■■■	The lecture's dogmatism left no room for questions.
credo	n.	/ˈkriːdo/	a statement of guiding beliefs	■■	Honesty above all was the founder's lifelong credo.
tenet	n.	/ˈtɛnɪt/	a core principle or belief	■■, ■■	Fair play is a central tenet of the sport.
dogma	n.	/ˈdɒɡmə/	doctrine held as authoritative	■■, ■■	She refused to accept the party's dogma without question.
aver	v.	/əˈveɪr/	to state confidently as true	■■■■	He averred that he had never seen the document.
avow	v.	/əˈvaʊ/	to declare openly and firmly	■■■■	She avowed her loyalty before the entire assembly.
affirm	v.	/əˈfɜːrm/	to assert as true	■■■■	The court affirmed the lower ruling in full.
attest	v.	/əˈtɛst/	to declare or confirm to be true	■■■■, ■■■■	Three witnesses attested to his good character.
maintain	v.	/meɪnteɪn/	to assert firmly despite challenge	■■■■	She maintained her position even under heavy questioning.
contend	v.	/kɒntɛnd/	to assert earnestly in argument	■■■■	The lawyer contended that the search was illegal.
insist	v.	/ɪnsɪst/	to demand or assert firmly	■■■■	He insisted on paying the entire bill himself.

SAT 2000 — Day 05 · Deception & Trickery (■■■·■■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
duplicity	n.	/duːplɪsɪti/	double-dealing; deceitful conduct	■■■■, ■■	His charm masked years of cold duplicity.
guile	n.	/ˈaɪl/	sly cunning in deceiving	■■■■	She won the contract through guile rather than merit.
chicanery	n.	/ˈtʃɪkeɪnəri/	trickery, especially legal or political	■■■■, ■■	The deal collapsed amid accusations of chicanery.
subterfuge	n.	/sʌbtɜːrfjuːdʒ/	a deceptive trick to evade	■■■■, ■■	He gained entry by an elaborate subterfuge.
mendacious	adj.	/mɛnˈdeɪʃəs/	habitually lying	■■■■■■	The mendacious witness contradicted himself twice.
cozen	v.	/ˈkɔːzn/	to deceive or cheat by coaxing	■■ ■■■	He cozened the old man out of his savings.
dissemble	v.	/dɪˈsɛmbl/	to hide true feelings or motives	■■■■ ■■	She dissembled her anger behind a thin smile.
dissimulate	v.	/dɪˈsɪmjəleɪt/	to conceal under a false appearance	■■■■, ■■■■	He dissimulated his fear as he faced the panel.
prevaricate	v.	/prɪˈvɛərɪkeɪt/	to speak evasively to mislead	■■■■■■	Asked who broke the vase, the boy prevaricated.
obfuscate	v.	/ˈɒfʊskeɪt/	to muddle in order to confuse	■■■■■■ ■■	The report obfuscated the losses with jargon.
beguile	v.	/bɪˈɡaɪl/	to charm in order to deceive	■■■■■	The con artist beguiled investors with grand promises.
inveigle	v.	/ɪnˈveɪɡl/	to lure by flattery or trickery	■■■■■	He inveigled his way into the private club.
hoodwink	v.	/ˈhʊdʊŋk/	to deceive or trick	■■■■	They hoodwinked the tourists with a rigged game.
bilk	v.	/bɪlk/	to cheat out of money	■■■■■	The scheme bilked retirees of their pensions.
swindle	v.	/ˈswɪndl/	to cheat by fraud	■■ ■■	He swindled clients with fake property deeds.
defraud	v.	/dɪˈfrɔːd/	to cheat through deception	■■■■■	She was convicted of defrauding the charity.
dupe	v.	/duːp/	to fool or trick	■■■■	Investors were duped by doctored returns.
gull	v.	/ɡʊl/	to deceive a credulous person	■■ ■■■	The forger gulled even seasoned collectors.
feign	v.	/feɪn/	to pretend; fake	■■■■■	He feigned illness to skip the meeting.
dupery	n.	/ˈduːpəri/	the act of duping; trickery	■■, ■■	The whole offer turned out to be pure dupery.
artifice	n.	/ˈɑːrtɪfɪs/	clever trickery; cunning device	■■, ■■	Her sincerity was, in the end, mere artifice.
wile	n.	/waɪl/	a cunning trick or stratagem	■■	He resisted all the salesman's wiles.
ruse	n.	/ruːz/	a trick intended to deceive	■■	The fire alarm was just a ruse to clear the building.
stratagem	n.	/ˈstrætɪdʒəm/	a scheme to outwit an opponent	■■	Their stratagem drew the rival into a trap.
gambit	n.	/ˈɡæmbɪt/	a calculated maneuver to gain advantage	■■, ■■	The lawsuit was a gambit to delay the sale.
machination	n.	/ˈmækɪneɪʃən/	a crafty, scheming plot	■■, ■■	He fell victim to office machinations.
skulduggery	n.	/skʊldʒəri/	underhanded, dishonest behavior	■■■■ ■■■	The election was marred by financial skulduggery.
legerdmain	n.	/ˈlɛdʒɜːrdeɪn/	sleight of hand; clever deception	■■■■, ■■■	His accounting was little more than legerdmain.
sophistry	n.	/ˈsɒfɪstri/	deceptively clever but false reasoning	■■	The defense rested on transparent sophistry.
casuistry	n.	/ˈkæsuɪstri/	specious reasoning to rationalize	■■ ■■	He justified the breach with slippery casuistry.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
mendacity	n.	/mɛnɪdəsɪti/	untruthfulness; lying	멘탈, 미신	Her testimony was riddled with mendacity.
perfidy	n.	/pɛrfɪdi/	treachery; betrayal of trust	배신	His perfidy cost the team the championship.
dissimulation	n.	/dɪsɪmjəleɪʃən/	concealment of one's true intent	위장, 은폐	Years of dissimulation finally caught up with him.
dissemblance	n.	/dɪsɪmbləns/	the act of disguising true feelings	위장, 은폐	Her calm was sheer dissemblance, hiding panic.
humbug	n.	/hʌmbʊg/	deceptive nonsense; a fraud	거짓, 사기	He dismissed the cure as utter humbug.
flimflam	n.	/flɪmflæm/	deceptive nonsense; a swindle	거짓	The brochure was pure flimflam, all gloss and no substance.
canard	n.	/kənɑːrd/	a false, often deliberate rumor	거짓	The story was a canard planted by rivals.
feint	n.	/feɪnt/	a deceptive move to mislead	위장, 은폐	He scored after a quick feint to the left.
imposture	n.	/ɪmpəˈstʃər/	deception by false identity	위장	His imposture as a doctor went undetected for years.
charlatan	n.	/ˈtʃɑːrlətən/	a fraud who fakes expertise	위장, 은폐	The so-called healer was a complete charlatan.
mountebank	n.	/maʊntɪbæŋk/	a boastful swindler or quack	위장, 은폐	The crowd soon saw the speaker for the mountebank he was.
knavery	n.	/neɪvəri/	dishonest, roguish trickery	위장, 은폐	His knavery left a trail of cheated partners.
duplicitous	adj.	/duːplɪsɪtəs/	deceitfully two-faced	거짓	Colleagues learned to distrust his duplicitous promises.
deceitful	adj.	/dɪsɪtɪfəl/	given to deceiving	거짓	Her deceitful smile hid a hidden agenda.
fraudulent	adj.	/frɔːdʊlənt/	involving deliberate deception	거짓	The bank flagged several fraudulent transactions.
disingenuous	adj.	/dɪsɪnɪdʒənjuəs/	insincere while feigning honesty	거짓, 은폐	It was disingenuous to claim he had no warning.
guileful	adj.	/ɡaɪlfəl/	full of cunning deceit	거짓	Her guileful proposal hid a costly catch.
wily	adj.	/waɪli/	skilled at cunning trickery	거짓	The wily fox slipped past every trap.
crafty	adj.	/kræfti/	cleverly deceptive	거짓	A crafty negotiator, she always hid her real limit.
underhanded	adj.	/ʌndərˈhændɪd/	secret and deceitful	거짓, 은폐	They won by underhanded means, not skill.

SAT 2000 — Day 06 · Honesty & Candor (■■·■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
candor	n.	/kændr/	frankness; open honesty	■■■	She answered every question with disarming candor.
probity	n.	/probt/	strong moral integrity	■■, ■■	His probity made him the natural choice for treasurer.
rectitude	n.	/rkttu/	uprightness of character	■■, ■■	The judge was known for her unbending rectitude.
ingenuous	adj.	/ndnju/	innocent and frank	■■■, ■■■	His ingenuous reply charmed the skeptical panel.
guileless	adj.	/all/	free from cunning; sincere	■■ ■■, ■■■	Her guileless honesty disarmed even her critics.
forthright	adj.	/frrθrat/	direct and outspoken	■■■, ■■■■	He was forthright about the project's risks.
candid	adj.	/kænd/	honest and straightforward	■■■	In a candid moment she admitted her doubts.
frank	adj.	/fræk/	open and unreserved in speech	■■■	To be frank, the proposal needs more work.
veracious	adj.	/vre/	truthful; habitually honest	■■■	A veracious reporter, she checked every claim twice.
veracity	n.	/vræst/	habitual truthfulness	■■■	No one questioned the veracity of her account.
probative	adj.	/probtv/	serving to prove the truth	■■■■	The letters had real probative value at trial.
scrupulous	adj.	/skrupjls/	carefully honest and exact	■■■■, ■■■	He kept scrupulous records of every expense.
punctilious	adj.	/pktl/	strictly attentive to honesty and detail	■■■, ■■■	She was punctilious about crediting every source.
conscientious	adj.	/knsiəns/	guided by conscience; honest	■■■■	A conscientious clerk, he returned the extra change.
upright	adj.	/pra/	morally honest and just	■■■	He had a reputation as an upright public servant.
incorruptible	adj.	/nkrrptbl/	incapable of being bribed	■■■	The incorruptible inspector refused every envelope.
aboveboard	adj.	/bbvbbd/	open and honest; without deceit	■■■■■	Every step of the sale was kept aboveboard.
transparent	adj.	/trənsprnt/	open and honest; nothing hidden	■■■	The agency was transparent about how it spent funds.
unimpeachable	adj.	/nmpttbb/	beyond reproach or doubt	■■■ ■■■	Her integrity was unimpeachable.
unfeigned	adj.	/nfe/	genuine; not pretended	■■■■	He expressed unfeigned gratitude for the help.
artless	adj.	/rt/	free of guile; natural and sincere	■■■■, ■■■	Her artless manner won the trust of strangers.
guilelessness	n.	/allsn/	the quality of being without deceit	■■■	There was a refreshing guilelessness in his confession.
sincere	adj.	/snr/	free from pretense; genuine	■■ ■■	She offered a sincere apology to the staff.
earnest	adj.	/rnt/	sincerely serious and honest	■■■	He made an earnest promise to do better.
heartfelt	adj.	/hrtf/	deeply and sincerely felt	■■ ■■	Her heartfelt thanks brought the room to silence.
plainspoken	adj.	/plenspskn/	blunt and honest in speech	■■■ ■■■	Voters liked his plainspoken assessment of the budget.
outspoken	adj.	/atpskn/	candid and bold in speaking	■■■ ■■ ■■■	She was outspoken about the flaws in the plan.
unvarnished	adj.	/nvrrnt/	plain and unembellished; truthful	■■■■	He gave us the unvarnished truth about the losses.
unequivocal	adj.	/nkwvkl/	clear and direct; leaving no doubt	■■■	She gave an unequivocal account of what happened.
straightforward	adj.	/stretfrrd/	honest and without evasion	■■■	His straightforward answer settled the matter.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
downright	adj.	/daʊnraɪt/	frank and direct	■■■■	She was downright in stating her objections.
uprightness	n.	/praʊtnɪs/	moral honesty and fairness	■■■■	His uprightness earned him lifelong respect.
integrity	n.	/ɪnˌtɪrəti/	firm adherence to moral honesty	■■■, ■■■■	She ran the office with unquestioned integrity.
honesty	n.	/ˈɒnənsti/	truthfulness and sincerity	■■■	His blunt honesty sometimes startled new colleagues.
frankness	n.	/fræŋknɪs/	openness in speech	■■■■	The frankness of her memo surprised the board.
sincerity	n.	/sɪnəsɪrəti/	genuineness; absence of pretense	■■■■	No one doubted the sincerity of his regret.
forthrightness	n.	/fɔːrθraʊtnɪs/	directness and candor	■■■■	Her forthrightness made negotiations refreshingly quick.
earnestness	n.	/ˈɛrnɪstnɪs/	sincere and serious intent	■■■■	He pleaded his case with touching earnestness.
fidelity	n.	/fɪdɪləti/	faithful loyalty and truthfulness	■■■, ■■■■	The translation kept perfect fidelity to the original.
rectitudinous	adj.	/rɛktɪtuˈdɪnəs/	marked by moral uprightness	■■■■	His rectitudinous bearing set a standard for the staff.
high-minded	adj.	/haɪmaɪndɪd/	having honorable principles	■■■■	Her high-minded refusal of the gift impressed everyone.
principled	adj.	/prɪnsɪpəl/	acting on firm moral principles	■■ ■■	He took a principled stand against the cover-up.
trustworthy	adj.	/trʌstwɔːrði/	deserving of trust; reliable	■■ ■■	She proved a trustworthy keeper of secrets.
creditable	adj.	/krɛdɪtəbəl/	deserving belief or trust	■■■■ ■■	He gave a creditable and consistent account.
ethical	adj.	/ˈeθɪkəl/	morally right and honest	■■■■■	She made the ethical choice despite the cost.
honorable	adj.	/ˈɒnərəbəl/	marked by integrity	■■■■■	He behaved in an honorable way throughout the dispute.
candidly	adv.	/kændɪli/	in an honest, frank manner	■■■■■	Candidly, the figures worry me.
frankly	adv.	/fræŋkli/	in an open, direct manner	■■■■	Frankly, I expected a better result.
openness	n.	/ˈoʊpənɪs/	willingness to be honest and visible	■■■■, ■■■■	The openness of the inquiry reassured the public.
genuineness	n.	/dʒɪnjuˈnɪnɪs/	the quality of being authentic	■■■■	The genuineness of his concern was plain to all.

SAT 2000 — Day 07 · Wordiness & Verbosity (■■■■·■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
prolix	adj.	/ˈprɒlɪks/	tediously lengthy in speech or writing	■■■■	His prolix memos buried every useful point under paragraphs of needless detail.
garrulous	adj.	/ˈgærʃlʊs/	excessively talkative about trivial things	■■■■■	The garrulous passenger narrated his entire life story before the train left the station.
loquacious	adj.	/ləˈkwɛʃʊs/	very talkative; given to chatter	■■■■	Normally reserved, she became loquacious after two cups of strong coffee.
grandiloquent	adj.	/ˈgrændɪləkwɒnt/	pompous and inflated in language	■■■■■	The senator's grandiloquent address promised everything and committed to nothing.
bombastic	adj.	/bɒmˈbæstɪk/	high-sounding but with little meaning	■■■■	His bombastic toast went on for ten minutes without saying anything concrete.
circumlocution	n.	/sɜːrkʌmlɒkjʊʃən/	evasive, roundabout use of words	■■■■ ■	Through sheer circumlocution he avoided ever stating whether he had spent the money.
verbose	adj.	/vɜːrˈboʊs/	using more words than necessary	■■ ■■	The verbose report could have been condensed to a single clear page.
loquacity	n.	/ləˈkwæsɪti/	the quality of talking too much	■■	Her loquacity made the brief interview stretch well past an hour.
garrulity	n.	/ˈgærʃʊlɪti/	tiresome, rambling talkativeness	■■	The old sailor's garrulity filled every silence with half-remembered yarns.
verbosity	n.	/vɜːrˈbɒsɪti/	excess of words; wordiness	■■■■	Editors are paid to strip the verbosity from over-padded manuscripts.
prolixity	n.	/prɒˈlɪksɪti/	tedious lengthiness of expression	■■	The prolixity of the legal brief exhausted even the patient judge.
periphrasis	n.	/pəˈrɪfræsɪs/	roundabout way of speaking	■■■■■	Instead of saying 'died,' he resorted to elaborate periphrasis about passing on.
pleonasm	n.	/ˈpliːnəzəm/	use of redundant words	■■■■■	"Free gift" is a pleonasm, since a gift is free by definition.
redundancy	n.	/rɪˈdʌndənsi/	needless repetition of meaning	■■■■ ■■	The phrase "true fact" carries an obvious redundancy.
tautology	n.	/tɔːtɒlədʒi/	saying the same thing twice over	■■■■■	"A free gift given gratis" is a tautology piled on a tautology.
magniloquent	adj.	/məˈnɪləkwɒnt/	using lofty, grandiose language	■■■■	His magniloquent prologue dwarfed the modest tale that followed.
inkhorn	adj.	/ˈɪŋkˌhɔːrn/	pedantically wordy and bookish	■■■■■	His inkhorn vocabulary larded every sentence with needless Latinisms.
sonorous	adj.	/səˈnɒrəs/	imposingly deep and grandiloquent	■■■ ■■■	He read the minor announcement in sonorous tones better suited to scripture.
turgid	adj.	/ˈtɜːrdʒɪd/	pompous and overblown in style	■■■■	The novel's turgid prose sank under the weight of its own adjectives.
tumid	adj.	/ˈtʊmɪd/	inflated, bombastic in language	■■■■■	Critics dismissed the manifesto's tumid rhetoric as empty bluster.
florid	adj.	/ˈflɒrɪd/	excessively ornate in expression	■■■■	His florid dedication overflowed with metaphors no reader could untangle.
rhetorical	adj.	/rɪˈtɒrɪkəl/	concerned with showy verbal effect	■■■■■	The essay favored rhetorical flourish over any actual argument.
declamatory	adj.	/dɪˈklæmətəri/	pompously oratorical in tone	■■■■■	He addressed the small committee in a declamatory style fit for a stadium.
effusive	adj.	/ɪˈfjuːsɪv/	gushing; pouring out excessive words	■■■■■	Her effusive thanks ran for paragraphs where a sentence would have served.
voluble	adj.	/ˈvɒljʊbəl/	speaking fluently and unceasingly	■■■■■	The voluble salesman never paused long enough for a customer to object.
discursive	adj.	/dɪˈskɜːrsɪv/	rambling from subject to subject	■■■■	His discursive lecture wandered so far that no one recalled the topic.
digressive	adj.	/daɪˈɡresɪv/	departing repeatedly from the point	■■■■ ■■	The memoir's digressive chapters strayed into anecdotes about distant cousins.
expatiate	v.	/ɪkˈspeɪʃieɪt/	to speak or write at great length	■■ ■■■■	Given any opening, he would expatiate for an hour on local history.
perorate	v.	/pəˈrɒreɪt/	to speak at length, often pompously	■■■■■	The chairman perorated long after the audience had stopped listening.
descant	v.	/dɪˈskænt/	to discourse at tedious length	■■■■ ■■■	She could descant on the merits of her garden until her guests dozed.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
maunder	v.	/mʌndər/	to talk ramblingly and aimlessly	말다툼	He maundered on about the weather while the meeting waited to begin.
prate	v.	/preɪt/	to chatter foolishly and at length	말다툼	They prated about nothing for an hour while real work piled up.
prattle	v.	/prætəl/	to talk on trivially and incessantly	말다툼	The children prattled happily, oblivious to the adults' weary silence.
blather	v.	/blæðər/	to talk nonsensically at length	말다툼	He blathered about conspiracies until even his allies edged away.
jabber	v.	/dʌbər/	to talk rapidly and unintelligibly	말다툼	The excited fans jabbered all at once, drowning out the announcement.
gabble	v.	/gæbəl/	to talk fast and incoherently	말다툼	Nervous, she gabbled through her speech and forgot half the points.
natter	v.	/nætər/	to chat idly and at length	말다툼	The neighbors would natter over the fence for the better part of an afternoon.
logorrhea	n.	/ləˈrɪə/	excessive, uncontrollable flow of words	말다툼	His logorrhea turned a quick question into a forty-minute monologue.
verbiage	n.	/vərˈbiːdʒ/	excess of words to little purpose	말다툼	Strip the verbiage and the proposal fits on a single index card.
locution	n.	/ləˈkjuːʃən/	a particular, often wordy phrasing	말다툼	His pompous locutions made even small talk sound like a sermon.
palaver	n.	/pəˈlævər/	prolonged, idle, fussy talk	말다툼	After much palaver, the committee adjourned without deciding anything.
verbalism	n.	/vərˈbælɪzəm/	empty emphasis on mere words	말다툼	The treaty dissolved into verbalism, full of phrases binding no one.
wordy	adj.	/wɜːrdi/	using too many words	말다툼	The instructions were so wordy that readers gave up before the key step.
long-winded	adj.	/lɒŋˈwɪndɪd/	tiresomely lengthy in speech	말다툼	His long-winded apology took longer than the offense it addressed.
rambling	adj.	/ræmblɪŋ/	disconnected and overlong in speech	말다툼	Her rambling answer circled the question without ever landing on it.
meandering	adj.	/miˈændərɪŋ/	wandering aimlessly in expression	말다툼	The meandering preface delayed the actual story by thirty pages.
diffuse	adj.	/dɪˈfjuːs/	spread out and lacking concision	말다툼	The argument was so diffuse that its main claim never came into focus.
multiloquence	n.	/mʌlˈtɪləkwɪns/	excessive talkativeness; much talking	말다툼	His sheer multiloquence turned a five-minute update into an ordeal.
profuse	adj.	/prəˈfjuːs/	poured out in great, excessive quantity	말다툼	Her profuse expressions of gratitude grew awkward in their sheer length.
grandiosity	n.	/grændiˈsɪti/	pompous, inflated grandeur of style	말다툼	The grandiosity of his phrasing dwarfed the trivial point he was making.

SAT 2000 — Day 08 · Brevity & Conciseness (■■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
terse	adj.	/tɜrs/	brief and to the point, sometimes curtly	■■■■	His terse reply of "Noted" ended the conversation at once.
laconic	adj.	/ləkənɪk/	using very few words	■■■ ■■	The laconic ranger answered every question with a single nod or word.
pithy	adj.	/pɪθi/	brief, forceful, and full of meaning	■■■■■	Her pithy summary captured the whole report in two sharp sentences.
succinct	adj.	/sʌkɪnsɪkt/	expressed clearly in few words	■■■■	The memo was admirably succinct, sparing readers any wasted line.
sententious	adj.	/sɛntɪntʃəs/	terse and full of pointed maxims	■■■■■	His sententious advice came in crisp aphorisms one could memorize.
curt	adj.	/kɜrt/	rudely brief in speech	■■■■■■	Her curt "Fine" made it clear the matter was anything but fine.
concise	adj.	/kənˈsaɪs/	giving much in few words	■■■■	A concise abstract lets readers grasp the paper in thirty seconds.
compendious	adj.	/kəmˈpɛndiəs/	concise yet comprehensive	■■■■	The compendious handbook packed an entire field into eighty pages.
epigrammatic	adj.	/ɛpɪˈɡræmætɪk/	terse, witty, and pointed	■■■■■	His epigrammatic wit reduced complex feuds to a single biting line.
aphoristic	adj.	/əˈfɔrɪstɪk/	expressed as short, pithy sayings	■■■■■	The philosopher wrote in an aphoristic style, each fragment a small truth.
unadorned	adj.	/ʌnəˈdɔrnd/	plain and stripped of embellishment	■■■■■	Her unadorned report stated the facts and nothing besides.
elliptical	adj.	/ɛlɪˈptɪkəl/	terse to the point of omission	■■■■■	His elliptical answers left out everything but the bare essentials.
unembellished	adj.	/ʌnɪˈmɛblɪʃt/	presented plainly without extra detail	■■■■■	The unembellished summary wasted no words on color or drama.
stark	adj.	/stɜrk/	bare, plain, and unsoftened	■■■■■	The memo's stark single line conveyed the verdict without cushioning.
compact	adj.	/kəmˈpækt/	densely brief and well-packed	■■■■	The compact summary conveyed in a paragraph what others took chapters to say.
economical	adj.	/ɪkəˈnɒmɪkəl/	sparing in use of words	■■■■■ ■■	His economical prose wasted not a single adjective.
summary	adj.	/sʌməri/	brief and dispensing with detail	■■■■	She gave a summary account of the trip, omitting all but the essentials.
telegraphic	adj.	/tɛlɪˈɡræfɪk/	clipped and minimally worded	■■■■■	His telegraphic notes dropped every article and verb to save space.
brusque	adj.	/brʌsk/	abrupt and short in manner	■■■■■	The brusque clerk dismissed the question with three flat words.
abrupt	adj.	/əˈbrʌpt/	curt to the point of rudeness	■■■■■■	His abrupt goodbye left the caller mid-sentence.
taciturn	adj.	/təˈsɪtɜrn/	habitually saying little	■■■■	The taciturn farmer let his long silences do most of the talking.
laconism	n.	/ləˈkɒnɪzəm/	a concise, pointed expression	■■■■ ■■	"Less is more" is a laconism that designers love to quote.
brevity	n.	/brɪˈvɪti/	shortness and concision of expression	■■■	For brevity, the chair limited each speaker to a single minute.
conciseness	n.	/kənˈsaɪns/	the quality of saying much briefly	■■■■	The award praised the essay's conciseness and clarity.
succinctness	n.	/sʌkɪnsɪktn/	terse economy of words	■■■■	Reviewers admired the rare succinctness of his closing argument.
terseness	n.	/tɜrsn/	crisp brevity, often curt	■■■■	The terseness of the telegram hinted at urgent news.
pithiness	n.	/pɪθɪn/	compact forcefulness of phrasing	■■■■	The pithiness of the slogan made it instantly memorable.
compression	n.	/kəmˈprɛʃn/	condensing into fewer words	■■■	Good poetry depends on compression, packing worlds into a line.
condensation	n.	/kəndənˈseɪʃn/	reduction of text to its essence	■■■	The abridged edition was a tight condensation of the original tome.
abridgment	n.	/əˈbrɪdʒmənt/	a shortened version of a work	■■■■	Students often read the abridgment rather than the unwieldy full text.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
epitome	n.	/ˈɛpɪtəmi/	a condensed summary of a whole	■■■	The opening page served as an epitome of the book's central thesis.
synopsis	n.	/sɪˈnɒpsɪs/	a brief outline of contents	■■■	The producer asked for a one-page synopsis of the sprawling script.
précis	n.	/ˈpreɪsi/	a concise summary of a text	■■■	Each student wrote a précis distilling the article into a paragraph.
distillation	n.	/dɪˈstɪləʃən/	the essential extract of something	■■■	The maxim was a distillation of a lifetime of hard-won advice.
quintessence	n.	/kwɪˈnɛsəns/	the purest, most concentrated form	■■■	The proverb captured the quintessence of the lesson in seven words.
maxim	n.	/ˈmæksɪm/	a short, pithy expression of a truth	■■■	"Haste makes waste" is a maxim drilled into every apprentice.
adage	n.	/ˈædɪdʒ/	a short traditional saying	■■■	The old adage about early birds applied perfectly to the situation.
aphorism	n.	/əˈfɔːrɪzəm/	a terse statement of a principle	■■■	He collected aphorisms, each a sentence carrying a whole philosophy.
epigram	n.	/ˈɛpɪɡræm/	a witty, pointed short saying	■■■	Wilde's epigrams pack a paradox into a single glittering line.
apothegm	n.	/əˈpɒθəɡm/	a terse, instructive saying	■■■	The coach repeated his favorite apothegm before every match.
dictum	n.	/dɪˈktɪm/	a short authoritative pronouncement	■■■	"Measure twice, cut once" was the carpenter's unbending dictum.
abridge	v.	/əˈbrɪdʒ/	to shorten by condensing	■■■■■	The editor abridged the rambling chapter to a tight two pages.
condense	v.	/kənˈdɛns/	to reduce to a brief, dense form	■■■■■	Try to condense the proposal so it fits on one slide.
distill	v.	/dɪˈstɪl/	to extract the essence concisely	■■■■■	She distilled the long debate into three actionable points.
truncate	v.	/ˈtrʌŋkeɪt/	to cut short or shorten abruptly	■■ ■■■	He truncated his remarks when he saw the audience growing restless.
curtail	v.	/kəˈteɪl/	to cut back or shorten	■■■■■	Time constraints forced them to curtail the lengthy agenda.
compress	v.	/kəmˈprɛs/	to squeeze into a smaller space	■■■■■	She compressed a week of findings into a single tight briefing.
encapsulate	v.	/ɪnˈkæpsjəleɪt/	to express concisely in brief form	■■■■■	One headline managed to encapsulate the entire scandal.
recapitulate	v.	/ˈrɪkæpɪteɪleɪt/	to summarize briefly the main points	■■■■■	Before voting, the chair paused to recapitulate the proposal in brief.
laconically	adv.	/ləˈkɒnɪkli/	using very few words	■■■■■	"We won," he said laconically, and offered nothing more.

SAT 2000 — Day 09 · Stubbornness & Obstinacy (■■■■·■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
obdurate	adj.	/■bd■rt/	stubbornly refusing to change one's mind	■■ ■	The obdurate landlord refused every plea to lower the rent.
intransigent	adj.	/■n■træns■d■nt/	unwilling to compromise or relent	■■■■■	Both intransigent parties left the table without yielding an inch.
recalcitrant	adj.	/r■kæls■tr■nt/	defiantly resistant to authority	■■■■■	The recalcitrant recruit ignored every order he disliked.
pertinacious	adj.	/p■rt■ne■■s/	stubbornly persistent and unyielding	■■■■	Her pertinacious lobbying wore down even the most reluctant senators.
mulish	adj.	/■mjul■/	obstinate like a mule	■■■■■	With mulish resolve he repeated the failed plan a third time.
intractable	adj.	/■n■trækt■b■l/	not easily controlled or persuaded	■■■ ■■	The dispute proved intractable, resisting every proposed solution.
obstinate	adj.	/■bst■n■t/	firmly refusing to change course	■■■	He was too obstinate to admit even an obvious mistake.
headstrong	adj.	/h■d■str■/	willfully determined to have one's way	■■■■■	The headstrong heir ignored every adviser and ran the firm aground.
willful	adj.	/w■lf■l/	obstinately bent on one's own way	■■ ■	His willful refusal to listen cost the team the contract.
pigheaded	adj.	/p■■■h■d■d/	foolishly and rigidly stubborn	■■■■■	Too pigheaded to ask directions, he drove in circles for an hour.
bullheaded	adj.	/b■l■h■d■d/	obstinate and headstrong	■■■■■	His bullheaded approach left no room for anyone else's ideas.
hardheaded	adj.	/h■rd■h■d■d/	stubborn and unwilling to be swayed	■■■	The hardheaded foreman dismissed every new method out of hand.
mule-headed	adj.	/■mjul■h■d■d/	obstinately set in one's ways	■■■■■	His mule-headed insistence sank a deal everyone else welcomed.
unyielding	adj.	/■n■jild■/	refusing to bend or give way	■■■ ■■	She remained unyielding despite mounting pressure to settle.
inflexible	adj.	/■n■fl■ks■b■l/	rigidly unwilling to adapt	■■■ ■■	His inflexible rules admitted no exception, however reasonable.
incorrigible	adj.	/■n■k■rd■b■l/	incapable of being corrected or reformed	■■ ■■■■	An incorrigible contrarian, he opposed reforms he had once proposed himself.
mutinous	adj.	/■mjut■n■s/	rebelliously refusing to obey	■■■■■	The mutinous crew defied the captain's orders outright.
refractory	adj.	/r■frækt■ri/	stubbornly resistant to control	■■ ■■■	The refractory machine defied every attempt to repair it.
contumacious	adj.	/k■ntu■me■■s/	stubbornly disobedient to authority	■■■■■	The contumacious witness was held in contempt for defying the court.
froward	adj.	/fro■w■rd/	perversely contrary and willful	■■■■■	The froward apprentice opposed every instruction on principle.
untoward	adj.	/■nt■rd/	perverse and difficult to manage	■■■ ■■	His untoward stubbornness turned a simple favor into a standoff.
perverse	adj.	/p■rv■rs/	obstinately contrary to reason	■■■■■	With perverse delight he did the opposite of whatever was advised.
wayward	adj.	/we■w■rd/	willfully resistant to guidance	■■■■■	The wayward colt bolted whenever the trainer approached.
restive	adj.	/r■st■v/	stubbornly resisting control or command	■■■■ ■■■■	The restive mare refused the bit no matter how gently he coaxed.
cross-grained	adj.	/kr■s■re■nd/	perversely contrary and hard to please	■■■■ ■■■	His cross-grained temper turned every suggestion into a quarrel.
unappeasable	adj.	/■n■piz■b■l/	impossible to satisfy or pacify	■■ ■■■	Her unappeasable resentment rejected every gesture of peace.
irreconcilable	adj.	/r■k■nsa■l■b■l/	impossible to bring into agreement	■■■ ■■■	The two factions held irreconcilable demands and would not budge.
cussed	adj.	/k■s■d/	awkwardly and stubbornly contrary	■■ ■	Out of pure cussed pride he refused the help he badly needed.
ornery	adj.	/r■rn■ri/	stubborn and bad-tempered	■■ ■■ ■■■■	The ornery old mule planted its feet and would not move.
die-hard	adj.	/da■h■rd/	stubbornly clinging to a lost cause	■■■	A few die-hard members refused to accept the new rules at all.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
bloody-minded	adj.	/ˈblʊdiˈmaɪndɪd/	deliberately uncooperative and obstinate	■■■■■ ■■ ■	Purely out of bloody-minded spite he vetoed the popular plan.
self-willed	adj.	/ˈsɛlfˈwɪld/	obstinately following one's own wishes	■■■■■	The self-willed child ignored every rule the adults set.
rooted	adj.	/ˈrutɪd/	firmly fixed and refusing to move	■■■ ■■	He stayed rooted in his opinion despite overwhelming evidence.
obstinacy	n.	/ˈɒbstɪˈnæsi/	stubborn refusal to yield	■■■	His sheer obstinacy turned a minor disagreement into a feud.
intransigence	n.	/ˌɪnˈtrænsɪdʒəns/	refusal to reach agreement	■■■	The talks collapsed under the intransigence of both delegations.
pertinacity	n.	/ˌpɜːrtɪˈnæsɪti/	dogged, stubborn persistence	■■■	With remarkable pertinacity she pursued the claim for a decade.
recalcitrance	n.	/rɪˈkælsɪˈtræns/	defiant resistance to authority	■■■	The colony's recalcitrance provoked harsher rule from the crown.
contumacy	n.	/ˈkɒntʊmˈæsi/	willful disobedience to authority	■■■	His repeated contumacy in court earned him a stiffer sentence.
obduracy	n.	/ˈɒbdʊˈræsi/	stubborn impenitence or hardness	■■■	Her obduracy in the face of evidence baffled the negotiators.
perversity	n.	/pɜːrˈvɜːrsɪti/	willful contrariness to what is right	■■■	Out of pure perversity he rejected the help he plainly needed.
willfulness	n.	/ˈwɪlfʊlnəs/	obstinate insistence on one's way	■■■	His willfulness made collaboration nearly impossible.
obstinateness	n.	/ˈɒbstɪˈnætnəs/	the quality of being unyieldingly stubborn	■■■	The board's obstinateness blocked even the most modest change.
rigidity	n.	/rɪˈdʒɪdɪti/	stiff refusal to adapt or bend	■■■	The committee's rigidity doomed every creative proposal.
obstinance	n.	/ˈɒbstɪˈnæns/	dogged firmness in one's position	■■■	His flat obstinance left the mediators with nothing to work on.
balk	v.	/bɔːk/	to stubbornly refuse to proceed	■■■	The horse balked at the gate and would not budge.
defy	v.	/dɪˈfaɪ/	to boldly refuse to obey	■■■■■	He chose to defy the new rule openly, daring anyone to enforce it.
steel	v.	/stɪl/	to harden oneself against yielding	■■■ ■■	He steeled himself against every appeal to soften his stance.
case-hardened	adj.	/ˈkeɪsˈhɑːrdənd/	hardened and unyielding in attitude	■■■■■	Years of refusal had left him case-hardened against any reform.
unmoved	adj.	/ˌʌnmʊvd/	not shifted from one's position	■■ ■■	He stood unmoved by every argument they put to him.
unbending	adj.	/ˌʌnbændɪŋ/	rigid and refusing to relent	■■■ ■■	His unbending stance left no opening for negotiation.

SAT 2000 — Day 10 · Compliance & Submission (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
docile	adj.	/dɒsəl/	easily led and ready to obey	■■■■■	The docile pupils followed every instruction without a murmur.
tractable	adj.	/træktəbəl/	easily managed or controlled	■■■ ■■	The new recruits proved tractable and quick to take orders.
acquiescent	adj.	/ækwiəsənt/	readily agreeing without protest	■■■ ■■■	Too acquiescent to object, she signed whatever was placed before her.
servile	adj.	/sɜrvaɪl/	excessively submissive and fawning	■■■	His servile bowing before the manager embarrassed his coworkers.
biddable	adj.	/bɪdəbəl/	obedient and willing to do as told	■■■■	The biddable assistant never questioned a single request.
supine	adj.	/supaɪn/	passively submissive and inert	■■■■■ ■■■■	The supine council rubber-stamped the governor's every decree.
obsequent	adj.	/əbskwɪənt/	dutifully obedient and yielding	■■■■	The obsequent clerk carried out orders he privately thought unwise.
obedient	adj.	/əbɪdiənt/	complying with commands or rules	■■■■	The obedient dog sat the instant its owner raised a hand.
dutiful	adj.	/dʊtɪfəl/	obediently conscientious about duty	■■■	A dutiful son, he honored his father's wishes without question.
deferent	adj.	/dɪfərənt/	yielding respectfully to others	■■■	His deferent manner toward elders won the family's approval.
pliant	adj.	/plaɪənt/	easily influenced or persuaded	■■■	The pliant committee bent to whichever lobbyist spoke last.
pliable	adj.	/plaɪəbəl/	readily yielding to others' will	■■■■■	A pliable intern, he reshaped his views to match his boss's.
yielding	adj.	/jɪldɪŋ/	giving way readily to pressure	■■■■	Her yielding temperament made open conflict almost impossible.
malleable	adj.	/məliəbəl/	easily shaped by outside influence	■■■■ ■■	The malleable trainee absorbed his mentor's habits wholesale.
ductile	adj.	/dʌktəl/	readily molded to another's wishes	■■■■■	A ductile subordinate, he adopted whatever opinion his chief held.
sequacious	adj.	/sɪkwɛsɪs/	slavishly following another's lead	■■■■	His sequacious disciples echoed his every claim without question.
tame	adj.	/teɪm/	docile and unresisting	■■■■	Years of routine had left the once-rebellious staff entirely tame.
governable	adj.	/gəvənəbəl/	capable of being easily controlled	■■ ■■■	The new class proved far more governable than the last.
manageable	adj.	/mənədʒəbəl/	easily directed or handled	■■■ ■■	With incentives, the restless crew became surprisingly manageable.
unassertive	adj.	/ʌnəsɜrtɪv/	reluctant to assert one's own will	■■■■ ■■	His unassertive nature let louder colleagues claim his ideas.
unresisting	adj.	/ʌnrɪzɪstɪŋ/	offering no opposition; submitting	■■■■ ■■	Unresisting, the prisoners filed quietly into the yard.
cringing	adj.	/krɪndɪŋ/	servilely shrinking before authority	■■■■■	His cringing manner before the boss disgusted everyone present.
crawling	adj.	/krɔlɪŋ/	abjectly servile and ingratiating	■■■	The crawling courtier flattered anyone with the slightest power.
sycophantic	adj.	/sɪkəfəntɪk/	servilely flattering to win favor	■■■■	His sycophantic praise of the director fooled no one.
slavish	adj.	/sleɪvɪʃ/	abjectly servile and imitative	■■■■	His slavish devotion to the rules left no room for judgment.
cowed	adj.	/kaʊd/	intimidated into meek submission	■■■ ■■■	The cowed staff obeyed every demand rather than risk his temper.
acquiescence	n.	/ækwiəsəns/	passive acceptance without protest	■■	Her silent acquiescence was mistaken for genuine approval.
compliance	n.	/kəmplaɪəns/	the act of conforming to demands	■■	Full compliance with the new rules was expected by Monday.
submission	n.	/səbmɪʃən/	the act of yielding to authority	■■	The defeated army's submission ended the long rebellion.
servility	n.	/sɜrvɪləti/	abject, fawning submissiveness	■■	The courtier's servility disgusted even the flattered king.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
docility	n.	/dɒsɪlɪti/	readiness to be taught or led	도실리티	The herd's docility made it easy for a single shepherd to manage.
obaisance	n.	/oʊbeɪsəns/	a deferential gesture of submission	오베이스런스	The envoys made deep obaisance before the emperor's throne.
subservience	n.	/sʌbsərviəns/	willingness to serve and obey humbly	서브서비언스	His subservience to powerful patrons cost him his independence.
tractability	n.	/ˈtræktəbɪlɪti/	the quality of being easily managed	트랙타빌리티	The animal's tractability made the long training quick and easy.
passivity	n.	/pæsiˈvɪti/	unresisting acceptance of events	패시비티	Their passivity allowed the abuses to continue unchecked for years.
capitulation	n.	/kəpɪˈteɪləʃən/	the act of surrendering on terms	캐피탈레이션	The garrison's capitulation spared the city further bombardment.
resignation	n.	/rɪˈzɪneɪʃən/	passive acceptance of the inevitable	리자이네이션	With weary resignation he accepted the verdict he could not change.
submissiveness	n.	/sʌbmɪsɪvniəs/	the disposition to yield to others	서브미시브니스	Her habitual submissiveness invited others to take advantage.
biddability	n.	/bɪdəbɪlɪti/	willing obedience to instruction	비더빌리티	The puppy's biddability made the training almost effortless.
pliancy	n.	/ˈplaɪnsi/	the quality of yielding readily	플라이언시	His pliancy in negotiations cost the firm several key concessions.
acquiesce	v.	/əkwiːs/	to accept or comply without protest	악위스	Rather than fight, she chose to acquiesce in their plan.
comply	v.	/kəmˈplaɪ/	to act in accordance with a request	컴플라이	Every department must comply with the updated safety code.
submit	v.	/sʌbmɪt/	to yield to authority or control	서브미트	Outnumbered, the rebels finally submitted to the new regime.
capitulate	v.	/kəpɪˈteɪlət/	to surrender after resistance	캐피테이트	After hours of pressure, the board capitulated to the demands.
succumb	v.	/sʌkʌm/	to give way to overwhelming force	서러컴	He finally succumbed to their relentless persuasion.
accede	v.	/əkˈsid/	to agree or yield to a demand	엑세이드	The minister acceded to the protesters' central demand at last.
yield	v.	/jɪld/	to give way to demand or force	ields	Faced with the evidence, he reluctantly yielded the point.
relent	v.	/rɪˈlent/	to soften and give in at last	리엘런트	After much pleading, the strict warden finally relented.
truckle	v.	/ˈtrʌkl/	to submit obsequiously to another	트러클	He would truckle to anyone who held the slightest power over him.
grovel	v.	/ˈgrʌvl/	to behave abjectly to win favor	그로벨	He groveled for forgiveness, abandoning the last of his pride.

SAT 2000 — Day 11 · Anger & Indignation (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
irate	adj.	/a■■re■t/	extremely angry; enraged	■■■	An irate customer demanded to speak with the manager at once.
incensed	adj.	/■n■s■nst/	furious; provoked to anger	■■■	She was incensed by the casual dismissal of her complaint.
livid	adj.	/■l■v■d/	furiously angry; enraged	■■■■■	He was livid when he discovered the contract had been altered.
irascible	adj.	/■■ræs■b■l/	easily angered; hot-tempered	■■■	The irascible old judge snapped at every interruption.
splenetic	adj.	/spl■■n■t■k/	bad-tempered; peevishly spiteful	■■■■■	His splenetic outbursts alienated even his closest allies.
choleric	adj.	/■k■l■r■k/	quick to anger; bad-tempered	■ ■ ■ ■	The choleric coach berated the team after every missed play.
wrath	n.	/ræθ/	intense, vengeful anger	■■	The tyrant unleashed his wrath upon the rebellious province.
ire	n.	/a■■r/	anger; wrath	■■	His careless remark drew the ire of the entire committee.
indignation	n.	/■■nd■■ne■■n/	anger at unfairness or wrong	■■	Public indignation grew as the scandal's details emerged.
umbrage	n.	/■■mbr■d■/	offense; resentment	■■■	She took umbrage at the implication that she had lied.
rancor	n.	/■ræ■k■r/	bitter, lasting resentment	■■	Years of rancor poisoned the negotiations between the families.
choler	n.	/■k■l■r/	irritability; anger	■■■	A rising choler colored his cheeks as the insults continued.
dudgeon	n.	/■d■d■■n/	a fit of anger or resentment	■■	He stormed out in high dudgeon when his idea was mocked.
pique	n.	/pi■k/	resentment from wounded pride	■	In a fit of pique, she tore up the rejection letter.
vex	v.	/v■ks/	to irritate or annoy	■■■ ■■	The constant delays began to vex even the patient travelers.
rile	v.	/ra■l/	to anger or agitate	■■■ ■■	Nothing could rile him more than being called dishonest.
nettle	v.	/■n■t■l/	to irritate or provoke	■■■ ■■	Her smug tone nettled him throughout the meeting.
incense	v.	/■n■s■ns/	to make very angry	■■■■■	The verdict incensed the crowd gathered outside the courthouse.
enrage	v.	/■n■re■d■/	to fill with rage	■■■■■	The broken promise enraged the workers who had trusted him.
infuriate	v.	/■n■fj■■rie■t/	to make furious	■■■■■	It infuriated her that no one had warned her in advance.
exasperate	v.	/■■■zæsp■re■t/	to irritate intensely	■ ■ ■ ■ ■ ■	His evasive answers exasperated the entire panel.
chafe	v.	/t■e■f/	to feel irritated impatience	■■■ ■■	The recruits chafed under the sergeant's relentless discipline.
bristle	v.	/■br■s■l/	to react with sudden anger	■■■ ■■	He bristled at the suggestion that his work was careless.
seethe	v.	/si■ð/	to be inwardly furious	■■■■■	She sat silently, seething at the unfairness of the decision.
fume	v.	/fju■m/	to show suppressed anger	■■■■■	He fumed in the corner, unwilling to voice his complaint aloud.
bridle	v.	/■bra■d■l/	to show resentment or anger	■■■ ■■	She bridled at the patronizing advice from her junior colleague.
apoplectic	adj.	/■æp■■pl■kt■k/	overcome with extreme anger	■■■■■	The manager was apoplectic when the shipment arrived ruined.
vehement	adj.	/■vi■■m■nt/	showing intense feeling; forceful	■■■	Her vehement protest left no doubt about her outrage.
vindictive	adj.	/v■n■d■kt■v/	seeking revenge; spiteful	■■■ ■■	His vindictive streak made him a dangerous enemy to cross.
rancorous	adj.	/■ræ■k■r■s/	full of bitter resentment	■ ■ ■	The rancorous dispute split the once-friendly partnership.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
acrimonious	adj.	/ˈækriˌmoˌniəs/	angry and bitter in tone	악랄하다	Their acrimonious divorce dragged on for years.
truculent	adj.	/ˈtruːkjʊlənt/	aggressively defiant; belligerent	악랄하다	The truculent prisoner refused every order with a sneer.
bellicose	adj.	/ˈbelɪkoʊs/	eager to fight; hostile	악랄하다	His bellicose rhetoric inflamed an already tense situation.
pugnacious	adj.	/pʊˈneɪʃəs/	quick to quarrel; combative	악랄하다	The pugnacious debater attacked every point his rival made.
petulant	adj.	/ˈpetjʊlənt/	sulky and ill-tempered	악랄하다	He gave a petulant shrug and refused to apologize.
peevish	adj.	/ˈpiːvɪʃ/	irritable; querulous	악랄하다	Hunger made the children peevish by late afternoon.
querulous	adj.	/ˈkwɛrʊləs/	complaining in a petulant way	악랄하다	His querulous tone grated on everyone in the waiting room.
waspish	adj.	/ˈwɒspɪʃ/	sharply irritable; snappish	악랄하다	Her waspish replies made colleagues wary of asking questions.
testy	adj.	/ˈtɛsti/	easily irritated; touchy	악랄하다	He grew testy whenever his methods were questioned.
cantankerous	adj.	/kənˈtæŋkərəs/	bad-tempered and argumentative	악랄하다	The cantankerous landlord disputed every minor repair.
fractious	adj.	/ˈfrækʃəs/	irritable and quarrelsome	악랄하다	The fractious crowd booed every announcement from the stage.
wrathful	adj.	/ˈræθfʊl/	full of intense anger	악랄하다	The wrathful king ordered the messenger thrown from the hall.
ireful	adj.	/ˈaɪrʃʊl/	full of anger; wrathful	악랄하다	She shot him an ireful glance and turned away.
asperity	n.	/æˈspɪrɪti/	harshness of tone or temper	악랄하다	She rebuked the intern with unexpected asperity.
acerbity	n.	/ˈsɛrbɪti/	sharpness or bitterness of temper	악랄하다	The critic reviewed the play with characteristic acerbity.
vituperation	n.	/vɪˈtuːpəˈreɪʃən/	bitter, abusive language	악랄하다	A torrent of vituperation poured from the furious coach.
high-strung	adj.	/ˈhaɪ ˈstrʊŋ/	tense and easily upset	악랄하다	The high-strung pianist snapped at the slightest distraction.
resentful	adj.	/rɪˈzɛntfʊl/	feeling bitter anger at a wrong	악랄하다	He grew resentful of the credit others took for his work.
affronted	adj.	/əˈfrʌntɪd/	offended; insulted	악랄하다	She looked thoroughly affronted by his blunt assessment.
indignant	adj.	/ˈɪndɪˌɡnənt/	angry at unfair treatment	악랄하다	She was indignant at being blamed for a mistake she never made.

SAT 2000 — Day 12 · Calm & Composure (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
equanimity	n.	/■kw■■■n■m■ti/	calmness under stress or strain	■■■	She faced the diagnosis with remarkable equanimity.
imperturbable	adj.	/■mp■r■t■■rb■b■l /	unable to be upset or disturbed	■■■■ ■■	The pilot remained imperturbable as the storm intensified.
phlegmatic	adj.	/fl■■■mæt■k/	calm and unemotional by nature	■■■	His phlegmatic manner reassured the panicking crew.
sangfroid	n.	/■s■■■frw■■/	composure under pressure	■■	She defused the crisis with admirable sangfroid.
placid	adj.	/■plæs■d/	calm and untroubled	■■■	He kept a placid expression throughout the heated debate.
unflappable	adj.	/■n■flæp■b■l/	never agitated; consistently calm	■■■	The unflappable surgeon worked steadily despite the chaos.
composure	n.	/k■m■po■■■r/	calm self-control	■■	She regained her composure before addressing the crowd.
serenity	n.	/s■■r■n■ti/	a state of calm tranquility	■■■	A deep serenity settled over the temple at dawn.
tranquility	n.	/træ■■kw■l■ti/	calmness; peacefulness	■■	The garden offered a rare tranquility amid the busy city.
poise	n.	/p■■z/	graceful, calm assurance	■■■	She handled the hostile questions with effortless poise.
placidity	n.	/pl■■s■d■ti/	the quality of being calm	■■■	The lake's placidity mirrored the stillness of the morning.
quietude	n.	/■kwa■■tju■d/	a state of stillness and calm	■■	He sought the quietude of the mountains after the ordeal.
repose	n.	/r■■po■z/	a state of calm rest	■■	Her face wore an expression of perfect repose.
sedate	adj.	/s■■de■t/	calm, dignified, and unhurried	■■■	They walked at a sedate pace through the quiet gallery.
stoic	adj.	/■sto■■k/	enduring without showing feeling	■■■■	He bore the bad news with stoic silence.
staid	adj.	/ste■d/	sedate and steady; composed	■■■	The staid old banker never raised his voice.
collected	adj.	/k■■l■kt■d/	calm and self-controlled	■■■	She remained cool and collected during the emergency.
unruffled	adj.	/■nr■f■ld/	calm; not agitated	■■■	He stayed unruffled even as the deadline slipped past.
untroubled	adj.	/■n■tr■b■ld/	free from worry or disturbance	■■■	Her untroubled smile calmed the anxious patients.
nonchalant	adj.	/■n■n■■■l■■nt/	casually calm and indifferent	■■■	He gave a nonchalant shrug at the alarming news.
insouciant	adj.	/■n■su■si■nt/	carefree and unconcerned	■■■	Her insouciant air hid the gravity of the situation.
dispassionate	adj.	/d■s■pæ■■n■t/	calm and impartial; unemotional	■■■	The judge weighed the evidence in a dispassionate tone.
equable	adj.	/■kw■b■l/	even-tempered and calm	■■■	His equable temperament made him an ideal mediator.
placidness	n.	/■plæs■dn■s/	calm, untroubled quality	■■■	There was a placidness in her voice that soothed the room.
complacence	n.	/k■m■ple■s■ns/	calm, untroubled contentment	■■	A dangerous complacence settled over the unguarded camp.
phlegm	n.	/fl■m/	calm, sluggish temperament	■■	He met the threat with the phlegm of a seasoned officer.
temperate	adj.	/■t■mp■r■t/	showing moderation and calm	■■■	Her temperate response cooled the rising tempers.
levelheaded	adj.	/■lv■l■h■d■d/	calm and sensible	■■ ■■	A levelheaded captain kept the passengers from panicking.
imperturbability	n.	/■mp■r■t■■rb■■b■l■ti/	calmness that cannot be disturbed	■■■	His imperturbability in crisis became legendary.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
equanimous	adj.	/ˈkwænɪmɪs/	calm and composed	■■■■	She stayed equanimous despite the relentless criticism.
unperturbed	adj.	/ˈnpɜrtʁbd/	not anxious or upset	■■■■ ■■	He remained unperturbed by the jeering audience.
placatory	adj.	/pləˈkeɪtəri/	intended to calm or soothe	■■■■	She raised a placatory hand to quiet the argument.
emollient	adj.	/ˈmɒliənt/	having a soothing, calming effect	■■■■■■	His emollient words eased the tension between the rivals.
halcyon	adj.	/ˈhælsiən/	calm, peaceful, and prosperous	■■■■	They looked back fondly on those halcyon summer days.
becalmed	adj.	/bɪˈkæmd/	made still and motionless	■■■■■	The becalmed sailboat drifted on a glassy, windless sea.
pacific	adj.	/pəˈsɪfɪk/	peaceful in character; calming	■■■■■	Her pacific demeanor defused the standoff.
mollify	v.	/ˈmɒlɪfaɪ/	to soothe or pacify	■■■■	He tried to mollify the angry crowd with apologies.
placate	v.	/pləˈkeɪt/	to calm someone's anger	■■■■	She placated the upset client with a full refund.
assuage	v.	/ˈsweɪdʒ/	to ease or soothe	■■■■■■	Nothing could assuage his guilt over the lost contract.
pacify	v.	/ˈpæsɪfaɪ/	to bring calm to; quiet	■■■■■■	The nurse pacified the frightened child with a song.
appease	v.	/ˈpiːz/	to calm by giving in	■■■■	They appeased the protesters with a token concession.
becalm	v.	/bɪˈkæm/	to make still or tranquil	■■■■ ■■	A sudden calm seemed to becalm the entire valley.
tranquilize	v.	/ˈtrækwɪlaɪz/	to make calm or peaceful	■■■■■	The steady drumbeat seemed to tranquilize the restless crowd.
soothe	v.	/suːð/	to gently calm or comfort	■■■■	Soft music can soothe even the most agitated nerves.
quell	v.	/kwɛl/	to suppress or subdue; calm	■■■■■	The captain's steady voice quelled the rising panic.
settle	v.	/ˈsɛtəl/	to make calm or stable	■■■■■	A few deep breaths helped settle her racing heart.
compose	v.	/kəmˈpoʊz/	to make oneself calm	■■■■■	She paused to compose herself before the interview.
lull	v.	/lʊl/	to calm into a relaxed state	■■■■	The gentle rocking lulled the infant to sleep.
allay	v.	/ˈleɪ/	to diminish or calm fear	■■■■■	The official's statement did little to allay public fears.
placidly	adv.	/ˈplæsɪdli/	in a calm, untroubled manner	■■■■■	She placidly continued reading as the argument raged.

SAT 2000 — Day 13 · Sadness & Despair (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
melancholy	n.	/ˈmɛlˌɒŋkəli/	a pensive, lingering sadness	■■■	A quiet melancholy descended as the last guests departed.
despondent	adj.	/dɪˈspɒndənt/	in low spirits from loss of hope	■■■■	He grew despondent after the third rejection in a month.
disconsolate	adj.	/dɪsˈkɒnsəleɪt/	too sad to be comforted	■■■■ ■■	She sat disconsolate beside the empty hospital bed.
lugubrious	adj.	/luˈɡʊbrɪəs/	mournful, often exaggeratedly so	■■■■■	The lugubrious dirge echoed through the dim chapel.
morose	adj.	/məˈroʊs/	sullen and gloomy	■■■■■	He turned morose whenever the subject of home arose.
lachrymose	adj.	/ˈlækriˈmoʊs/	tearful; given to weeping	■■■ ■■■■	The lachrymose widow wept through the entire service.
despair	n.	/dɪˈspɛər/	complete loss of hope	■■■	A sense of despair gripped the stranded climbers.
desolation	n.	/ˈdɛsəleɪʃən/	bleak emptiness and grief	■■■■	She felt only desolation in the silent, ruined house.
dejection	n.	/dɪˈdʒekʃən/	a state of low spirits	■■■	His dejection deepened with each piece of bad news.
despondency	n.	/dɪˈspɒndənsi/	deep dejection and hopelessness	■■■	Months of unemployment sank him into despondency.
gloom	n.	/luːm/	a feeling of sadness; darkness	■■■	An air of gloom hung over the defeated team.
sorrow	n.	/ˈsɒrəʊ/	deep distress caused by loss	■■■	Her eyes were heavy with unspoken sorrow.
woe	n.	/woʊ/	great sorrow or distress	■■■	He recounted his tale of woe to anyone who would listen.
anguish	n.	/ˈæŋwɪʃ/	severe mental or physical pain	■■■	The mother's anguish was unbearable to witness.
grief	n.	/ˈɡriːf/	intense sorrow, especially from loss	■■■	His grief was still raw a year after the funeral.
misery	n.	/ˈmɪzəri/	a state of great suffering	■■■■	The refugees endured months of cold and misery.
forlorn	adj.	/fɔːrˈlɔːrn/	pitifully sad and abandoned	■■■■	The forlorn dog waited at the gate long after dark.
woebegone	adj.	/ˈwoʊbɛɡən/	sad and miserable in appearance	■■■■ ■■	He shuffled in, woebegone and soaked by the rain.
crestfallen	adj.	/ˈkrɛstfɛlən/	dejected after disappointment	■■■ ■■	She left the audition crestfallen and silent.
doleful	adj.	/ˈdoʊlfʊl/	expressing deep sorrow	■■■■■	The hound gave a doleful howl at the closed door.
mournful	adj.	/ˈmɔːnfn̩l/	feeling or showing grief	■■■■■	A mournful silence fell over the gathered mourners.
plaintive	adj.	/ˈpleɪntɪv/	sounding sad and mournful	■■■■	The plaintive cry of the gull carried across the empty shore.
sorrowful	adj.	/ˈsɒrəfʊl/	feeling or expressing sorrow	■■■	She gave a sorrowful nod and turned away.
heartsick	adj.	/ˈhɜːrtsɪk/	deeply despondent or grieved	■■■■	He was heartsick over the friendship he had lost.
inconsolable	adj.	/ˈɪŋkɒnsəleɪbəl/	impossible to comfort	■■■■ ■■■■	The child was inconsolable after losing the puppy.
despairing	adj.	/dɪˈspɛərɪŋ/	showing loss of all hope	■■■■■	He cast a despairing glance at the rising floodwaters.
disheartened	adj.	/dɪsˈhɜːrtənd/	having lost determination or hope	■■■■	The volunteers grew disheartened by the slow progress.
saturnine	adj.	/ˈsætərnaɪn/	gloomy and sullen in temperament	■■■■	His saturnine moods cast a pall over the household.
dolorous	adj.	/ˈdɒlərəs/	feeling or expressing great sorrow	■■■■	A dolorous wail rose from the grieving crowd.
funereal	adj.	/fjuːˈniːəriəl/	sad and solemn like a funeral	■■■■	The funereal atmosphere of the office signaled bad news.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
sepulchral	adj.	/sɪpʌlkrəl/	gloomy; suggestive of the grave	■■■■	He spoke in a sepulchral tone that chilled the room.
elegiac	adj.	/ɪlɛdʒiˈæk/	expressing sorrow for the past	■■■■	The novel ends on an elegiac note of loss and memory.
wretched	adj.	/rɪtʃɪd/	deeply unhappy or miserable	■■■■	He felt wretched after betraying his oldest friend.
abject	adj.	/æbdʒɪkt/	utterly hopeless and miserable	■■■■	They lived in abject poverty on the city's edge.
bereft	adj.	/bɪrɪft/	deprived and desolate, as by loss	■■ ■■■ ■■	Bereft of her companion, she wandered the house in silence.
distraught	adj.	/dɪstrɔːt/	deeply upset and agitated	■■■■	The distraught parents searched the crowd for their child.
melancholic	adj.	/mɛlənˈkɒlɪk/	marked by pensive sadness	■■■■	He fell into a melancholic silence as the music faded.
glum	adj.	/ɡlʌm/	sullen and gloomy in mood	■■■■	She looked glum about the cancelled trip.
downcast	adj.	/daʊnkɒst/	low in spirit; dejected	■■■■■	His downcast eyes betrayed his disappointment.
despond	v.	/dɪspɒnd/	to lose heart; become dejected	■■■■■	He began to despond as rescue seemed less likely each hour.
grieve	v.	/ɡriːv/	to feel deep sorrow	■■■■■	She needed time alone to grieve her late mentor.
lament	v.	/ləmɛnt/	to express grief or regret	■■■■■	The villagers gathered to lament the fallen soldiers.
mourn	v.	/mɔːrn/	to grieve over a death or loss	■■■■■	The nation paused to mourn its beloved leader.
bemoan	v.	/bɪmoʊn/	to lament or grieve over	■■■■■	He bemoaned the opportunities he had let slip away.
pine	v.	/paɪn/	to suffer with longing or grief	■■■ ■■■■■	She pined for the home she had left behind.
languish	v.	/ˈlæŋkwɪʃ/	to grow weak from grief or longing	■■■■	He languished in dejection for weeks after the loss.
mope	v.	/moʊp/	to be listless and dejected	■■■■■	She moped around the house all weekend, refusing to speak.
repine	v.	/rɪpaɪn/	to fret or grieve discontentedly	■■■■■	He chose to act rather than repine over his misfortune.
keen	v.	/kiːn/	to wail in grief for the dead	■■■■■	The mourners began to keen as the coffin was lowered.
melancholia	n.	/mɛlənˈkɒliː/	deep, persistent depression	■■■■	A profound melancholia overtook him each winter.

SAT 2000 — Day 14 · Joy & Elation (■■■-■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
jubilant	adj.	/ˈdʒuˌbɪlˌənt/	feeling or showing great joy	■■■■■	The jubilant crowd flooded the streets after the victory.
ebullient	adj.	/ˈbʌliˌənt/	cheerful and full of energy	■■■■■	Her ebullient greeting lifted everyone's spirits.
euphoric	adj.	/juˈfɔːrɪk/	intensely happy and elated	■■■■■ ■■■■	He felt euphoric upon hearing he had passed the bar.
exultant	adj.	/ˈzʌltˌənt/	triumphantly joyful	■■■■■■	The exultant runners embraced at the finish line.
rapturous	adj.	/ˈræptʃrəs/	full of intense joy or delight	■■■■	The soprano received rapturous applause from the audience.
blithe	adj.	/blaɪð/	cheerful and lighthearted	■■■■	She gave a blithe wave and skipped down the path.
elation	n.	/ˈleɪʃən/	great happiness and exhilaration	■■■■■	A wave of elation swept over the team at the buzzer.
jubilation	n.	/ˈdʒuˌbɪleɪʃən/	a feeling of great joy	■■■	Scenes of jubilation erupted across the capital.
euphoria	n.	/juˈfɔːrɪə/	intense, often giddy happiness	■■■■	The euphoria of the launch lasted well into the night.
exhilaration	n.	/ˈzɪləreɪʃən/	a feeling of lively excitement	■■■ ■■	She felt a rush of exhilaration as the plane lifted off.
rapture	n.	/ˈræptʃr/	intense, overwhelming joy	■■■	He listened to the symphony in a state of pure rapture.
ecstasy	n.	/ˈekstəsi/	overwhelming joy or delight	■■■■	The pilgrims wept in ecstasy at the sacred site.
bliss	n.	/blɪs/	perfect happiness; great joy	■■■■ ■■	The newlyweds spent a week of uninterrupted bliss.
glee	n.	/ˈliː/	lively, delighted joy	■■■	The children shrieked with glee at the surprise.
mirth	n.	/mɜːrθ/	amusement expressed in laughter	■■■■	The hall rang with mirth throughout the feast.
jollity	n.	/ˈdʒɒlɪti/	lively, cheerful merriment	■■■■	The festival was a scene of music and jollity.
gaiety	n.	/ˈeɪti/	a state of cheerful liveliness	■■■■	The ballroom buzzed with light and gaiety.
merriment	n.	/ˈmɜːrɪmənt/	gaiety and fun; laughter	■■■■	Sounds of merriment drifted from the crowded tavern.
felicity	n.	/fəˈlɪsɪti/	intense, complete happiness	■■■■ ■■	They recalled the felicity of their early years together.
beatitude	n.	/biˈætɪtjuːd/	supreme blessedness and joy	■■■	A look of beatitude crossed the monk's serene face.
rhapsody	n.	/ˈræpsədi/	an effusive expression of joy	■■■■ ■■	She launched into a rhapsody about her travels abroad.
transport	n.	/ˈtrænsˌpɔːrt/	an overwhelming rush of emotion	■■■	In a transport of delight, he embraced every stranger nearby.
buoyancy	n.	/ˈbɔɪˌænsi/	cheerful, resilient high spirits	■■■■	Her natural buoyancy returned the moment the sun came out.
effervescence	n.	/ˈɛfərˌvɛsəns/	bubbly liveliness and high spirits	■■■	The host's effervescence kept the party alive past midnight.
ebullience	n.	/ˈbʌliˌəns/	overflowing enthusiasm and joy	■■■	His ebullience was contagious among the new recruits.
exuberance	n.	/ˈzʊˌbɜːrəns/	the quality of lively high spirits	■■■ ■■	The puppy greeted her with boundless exuberance.
jubilee	n.	/ˈdʒuˌbɪliː/	a joyful celebration or anniversary	■■■	The town held a jubilee to mark its hundredth year.
exuberant	adj.	/ˈzʊˌbɜːrənt/	filled with lively, joyful energy	■■■ ■■■	The exuberant fans chanted long after the final whistle.
elated	adj.	/ˈleɪtəd/	extremely happy and excited	■■■■■■	She was elated to learn of her acceptance to the program.
overjoyed	adj.	/ˈoʊˌvɔːrdʒoʊd/	extremely pleased; filled with joy	■■■ ■■■■	They were overjoyed at the safe return of the expedition.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
rapt	adj.	/ræpt/	filled with delight; enthralled	■■ ■■	The audience sat rapt as the dancer took the stage.
beatific	adj.	/■bi■■■t■f■k/	showing blissful happiness	■■■ ■■	A beatific smile spread across the child's face.
buoyant	adj.	/■b■■■nt/	cheerful and optimistic	■■■	He remained buoyant despite the gloomy forecast.
jovial	adj.	/■d■o■vi■l/	cheerful and good-humored	■■■	The jovial host kept the guests laughing all evening.
convivial	adj.	/k■n■v■vi■l/	friendly, festive, and merry	■■■	The dinner had a warm, convivial atmosphere.
effervescent	adj.	/■■f■r■v■s■nt/	bubbly, vivacious, and cheerful	■■■	Her effervescent personality drew people to her instantly.
vivacious	adj.	/v■■ve■■■s/	lively and full of spirit	■■■	The vivacious host charmed the entire room.
sprightly	adj.	/■spra■tli/	lively and full of energy	■■■	The sprightly old gentleman danced every number.
blithesome	adj.	/■bla■ðs■m/	cheerful and merry	■■■	Her blithesome laughter echoed through the orchard.
gleeful	adj.	/■■li■f■l/	full of lively, delighted joy	■■ ■	He let out a gleeful shout when he won the raffle.
mirthful	adj.	/■m■rθf■l/	full of amusement and laughter	■■■■■	A mirthful twinkle lit up his eyes.
jubilate	v.	/■d■u■b■le■t/	to rejoice greatly	■■■■	The supporters jubilated long into the night.
exult	v.	/■■■z■lt/	to feel or show triumphant joy	■■ ■■■■	The scientists exulted as the rocket cleared the tower.
rejoice	v.	/r■■d■■■s/	to feel or show great joy	■■■■	The whole village rejoiced at the long-awaited rain.
revel	v.	/■r■v■l/	to take intense delight in	■■■■	She reveled in the applause after the curtain fell.
delight	v.	/d■■la■t/	to please greatly; take joy	■■ ■■■■	The magician delighted in the children's astonishment.
enraptured	adj.	/■n■ræpt■■rd/	filled with intense delight	■■■■	The enraptured crowd hung on the singer's every note.
elate	v.	/■■le■t/	to fill with joy or pride	■■■ ■■	The unexpected praise seemed to elate the whole staff.
jubilance	n.	/■d■u■b■l■ns/	the state of being jubilant	■■	The locker room overflowed with jubilation after the win.
blithely	adv.	/■bla■ðli/	in a carefree, cheerful manner	■■■■	He whistled blithely as he strolled to work.

SAT 2000 — Day 15 · Generosity & Benevolence (■■■■·■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
munificent	adj.	/mjuːnɪf.ɪ.sənt/	extremely generous in giving	■■ ■■	The munificent donor funded the entire wing of the new hospital.
magnanimous	adj.	/mæˌnæn.ɪ.məs/	generous and forgiving toward rivals	■■■ ■■	In victory she was magnanimous, praising the opponent she had just defeated.
altruistic	adj.	/æɫ.truːs.tɪk/	selflessly concerned for others	■■■■	His altruistic decision to donate a kidney saved a stranger's life.
philanthropic	adj.	/fɪl.ənθrəp.ɪk/	devoted to charitable giving	■■■	Her philanthropic foundation has built schools across three continents.
largesse	n.	/lɑːrʒes/	generous giving of money or gifts	■■■■ ■■	The villagers came to depend on the lord's seasonal largesse.
beneficent	adj.	/bɪnef.ɪ.sənt/	doing good; actively kind	■■■ ■■■	The beneficent ruler lowered taxes during the famine.
benevolent	adj.	/bɪnev.ɪl.ənt/	well-meaning and kindly	■■■■	A benevolent smile crossed the old teacher's face as she handed over the scholarship.
bountiful	adj.	/baʊn.tɪ.fʊl/	giving generously; plentiful	■■■	Their bountiful host refused to let any guest leave hungry.
openhanded	adj.	/oʊ.pənˈhændɪd/	freely generous with resources	■■ ■	An openhanded employer, he shared the year's profits with every worker.
unstinting	adj.	/nɪstɪn.tɪ/	given freely without limit	■■■■	She offered unstinting support to the young researchers in her lab.
liberality	n.	/lɪb.ɪræl.ɪ.ti/	generosity in giving	■■	His liberality toward the poor earned him the town's lasting gratitude.
munificence	n.	/mjuːnɪf.ɪ.səns/	great generosity	■■.■■■	The library stands today thanks to one banker's munificence.
benefaction	n.	/ben.ɪfæk.ʃən/	a charitable gift or good deed	■■.■■	The museum's newest gallery was made possible by an anonymous benefaction.
benefactor	n.	/ben.ɪ.fæk.tər/	one who gives help or money	■■■	An unknown benefactor paid the orphanage's debts for a decade.
philanthropy	n.	/fɪlənθrəpi/	goodwill expressed through giving	■■.■■	He devoted his retirement entirely to philanthropy.
altruism	n.	/æɫ.tru.ɪz.m/	selfless regard for others' welfare	■■■■	Pure altruism, she insisted, expects nothing in return.
magnanimity	n.	/mæˌnænɪm.ɪ.ti/	generosity of spirit	■■	He forgave the betrayal with surprising magnanimity.
clemency	n.	/klem.ɪn.si/	mercy shown to an offender	■■.■■	The governor granted clemency to the condemned prisoner.
largehearted	adj.	/lɑːrdʒhɑːrtɪd/	warmly generous and kind	■■■ ■■	Their largehearted neighbor took in every stray animal on the street.
eleemosynary	adj.	/el.ɪmˈs.n.ər.i/	relating to or dependent on charity	■■■	The shelter operates as a purely eleemosynary institution.
philanthropist	n.	/fɪlənθrəpɪst/	a person who gives to good causes	■■■	The philanthropist quietly endowed dozens of rural clinics.
oblation	n.	/bɒle.ʃən/	a charitable or religious offering	■■.■■	Each harvest, the family set aside an oblation for the needy.
almsgiving	n.	/ɒmzɪv.ɪz.m/	the giving of charity to the poor	■■.■■	Almsgiving was considered a sacred duty in the old community.
bonhomie	n.	/bɒn.mi/	warm, generous good nature	■■■.■■	His easy bonhomie made even strangers feel cared for.
solicitude	n.	/sɒlɪs.ɪ.tjuːd/	caring concern for others	■■.■■	She tended the sick traveler with tireless solicitude.
hospitable	adj.	/hɒspɪt.əbəl/	generous and welcoming to guests	■■■■	The hospitable family insisted the weary hikers stay the night.
charitable	adj.	/tʃær.ɪtəbəl/	generous toward those in need	■■■.■■■	He took a charitable view of his rival's clumsy apology.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
bounteous	adj.	/ˈbaʊn.ti.əs/	abundantly generous	부족.함	The harvest festival celebrated a bounteous and freely shared yield.
open-hearted	adj.	/ˈoʊ.pənˈhɜːr.tɪd/	frank, warm, and giving	부족.함	Her open-hearted welcome put the nervous newcomers at ease.
selfless	adj.	/ˈself.ləs/	putting others before oneself	자.비	His selfless work in the refugee camp drew quiet admiration.
gracious	adj.	/ˈɡreɪ.əs/	kind, courteous, and generous	부족.함	She was gracious enough to credit her assistants for the discovery.
indulgent	adj.	/ˈnɪd.əl.dʒənt/	generously lenient or yielding	부족.함	His indulgent grandparents denied the children nothing.
forbearing	adj.	/fəˈrɪbeɪ.rɪŋ/	patient and tolerant toward others	부족.함	A forbearing mentor, she overlooked his early mistakes.
placable	adj.	/ˈplæk.ə.bəl/	easily forgiving; mild-tempered	자.비.함	His placable nature meant grudges never lasted a day.
big-hearted	adj.	/ˈbɪɡˈhɜːr.tɪd/	kind and generous in nature	부족.함	The big-hearted coach paid for the team's uniforms himself.
humane	adj.	/hjuˈmeɪn/	compassionate and kind	부족.함	They campaigned for more humane treatment of the prisoners.
compassionate	adj.	/kəmˈpæ.ʃən.ət/	feeling and showing deep sympathy	자.비.함	A compassionate nurse stayed past her shift to comfort the patient.
benignant	adj.	/bɪˈnɪn.ənt/	kind and gracious, especially to inferiors	부족.함	The benignant headmaster knew every pupil by name.
sympathetic	adj.	/sɪm.pəˈθet.ɪk/	sharing or caring about others' feelings	부족.함	A sympathetic listener, he let the grieving widow speak for hours.
generosity	n.	/ˈdʒen.ərɪ.s.ə.ti/	willingness to give freely	부족.함	Her generosity extended to lending her own car to a stranger.
beneficence	n.	/bɪˈnef.ɪ.səns/	active kindness and charity	부족.함	The order was famous for its beneficence toward plague victims.
benignity	n.	/bɪˈnɪn.ə.ti/	kindliness; gentle goodwill	부족.함	There was a quiet benignity in the way she treated her servants.
benevolence	n.	/bɪˈnev.əl.əns/	the disposition to do good	부족.함	His benevolence toward struggling students never wavered.
goodwill	n.	/ˈɡʊd.wɪl/	kindly, generous feeling toward others	부족.함	The gesture was made purely out of goodwill.
tutelary	adj.	/ˈtjuː.təl.ər.i/	serving as a protective guardian	부족.함	He played a tutelary role, shielding the young recruits from harm.
benefactress	n.	/ˈben.ɪ.fæk.trəs/	a female patron or giver	부족.함	The school's benefactress visited each spring to meet the students.
propitious	adj.	/prəˈpɪ.əs/	kindly disposed; favorable	부족.함	The gods seemed propitious, granting them safe passage.
kindhearted	adj.	/ˈkaɪndˈhɜːr.tɪd/	having a kind and giving nature	부족.함	The kindhearted baker gave the day's unsold bread to the homeless.
tenderhearted	adj.	/ˈten.dərˈhɜːr.tɪd/	easily moved to kindness or pity	부족.함	Too tenderhearted to refuse, she adopted the abandoned puppy.
warmhearted	adj.	/ˈwɜːrmˈhɜːr.tɪd/	kind, affectionate, and sympathetic	부족.함	Their warmhearted welcome made the lonely exile feel at home.

SAT 2000 — Day 16 · Greed & Stinginess (■■■-■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
avarice	n.	/æv.ər.əs/	extreme greed for wealth	■■■	His avarice drove him to cheat even his closest friends.
rapacious	adj.	/ræp.əs.əs/	aggressively greedy or grasping	■■■■■	The rapacious developer bought up every plot the village owned.
parsimonious	adj.	/pɑr.sə.mo.ni.əs/	excessively unwilling to spend	■■■	So parsimonious was he that he reused tea bags for a week.
niggardly	adj.	/nɪr.d.li/	meanly stingy; grudging	■■■	The niggardly tip insulted the waiter who had served them for hours.
covetous	adj.	/kəv.əs.təs/	eagerly desiring others' possessions	■■■	He cast a covetous glance at his neighbor's gleaming new car.
penurious	adj.	/pɪn.ri.əs/	stingy; miserly with money	■■■	Her penurious uncle refused to heat the house even in winter.
miserly	adj.	/ma.zər.li/	hoarding wealth; very stingy	■■■ ■■	The miserly landlord let the building crumble to save a few coins.
cupidity	n.	/kju.pəd.iti/	greed for money or possessions	■■.■■	Cupidity blinded the heirs, who squabbled over every trinket.
rapacity	n.	/ræp.əs.iti/	aggressive greed; plundering	■■■.■■	The empire's rapacity stripped the colonies of their gold.
avaricious	adj.	/æv.ər.əs.əs/	greedy for wealth and gain	■■■■■	The avaricious banker foreclosed on widows without a flicker of guilt.
acquisitive	adj.	/kwəz.əs.tɪv/	keenly eager to acquire things	■■ ■■	Their acquisitive culture measured every person by net worth.
grasping	adj.	/græps.pə/	greedy and selfishly acquisitive	■■ ■■■	The grasping merchant raised prices the moment the famine began.
mercenary	adj.	/mə.r.sən.ər.i/	motivated solely by money	■■ ■■■	His mercenary motives became clear when the inheritance was mentioned.
venal	adj.	/vi.nəl/	open to bribery; corruptible by money	■■ ■■■■	The venal official would sign anything for the right sum.
tightfisted	adj.	/taɪt.fɪs.tɪd/	reluctant to spend; stingy	■■■	Their tightfisted boss begrudged them even a coffee break.
penny-pinching	adj.	/pen.i.pɪn.tɪŋ/	unwilling to spend even a little	■ ■■ ■ ■■	His penny-pinching habits left the family living like paupers.
closefisted	adj.	/kloʊs.fɪs.tɪd/	mean with money; stingy	■■■	The closefisted heir donated nothing despite his vast fortune.
illiberal	adj.	/lɪb.ər.əl/	ungenerous; stingy	■■■	It was illiberal of him to demand repayment of so trivial a loan.
churlish	adj.	/tʃɜr.lɪ/	mean-spirited and ungenerous	■■■■ ■■■■	It seemed churlish to refuse the children even a small treat.
ungenerous	adj.	/nɪdʒən.ər.əs/	not willing to give or share	■■■	His ungenerous nature showed in every grudging gift.
hoarding	n.	/hɔr.dɪ/	the amassing and hiding of goods	■■■.■■	Panic hoarding emptied the shelves within a single morning.
cheeseparing	adj.	/tʃi:z.pə.rə/	meanly economical; stingy	■■■	His cheeseparing economies saved pennies but lost loyal staff.
penny-wise	adj.	/pen.i.wa:z/	thrifty over small sums to a fault	■■■ ■■■	Penny-wise and pound-foolish, he skimped on repairs and ruined the roof.
mammon	n.	/mæm.n/	wealth pursued as a false idol	■.■■ ■■	He served mammon above all, and his soul withered for it.
avidity	n.	/vɪd.iti/	eager, often greedy, craving	■■.■■	She eyed the jewels with undisguised avidity.
voracious	adj.	/vɔr.əs.əs/	insatiably greedy or hungry	■■■■■	The corporation had a voracious appetite for smaller rivals.
insatiable	adj.	/nɪse.ə.bəl/	impossible to satisfy	■■■ ■ ■■■	His insatiable greed grew with every fortune he amassed.
extortionate	adj.	/kɪstɔr.ən.ət/	grossly overpriced; grasping	■■■ ■■■	The lender charged extortionate interest to the desperate borrowers.
usurious	adj.	/ju:ri.əs/	charging unfairly high interest	■■■	He trapped the poor in debt with usurious loans.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
predatory	adj.	/ˈpred.ɪ.tər.i/	exploiting others greedily for gain	■■■■■	Predatory lenders targeted families who could least afford it.
grudging	adj.	/ˈɡrʌdʒ.ɪŋ/	given reluctantly and meanly	■■■■.■■■	He offered only grudging help, and as little of it as possible.
skinflint	n.	/ˈskɪn.flɪnt/	a person who hates spending money	■■■	The old skinflint counted every grain of rice in the pantry.
miser	n.	/ˈmaɪ.zər/	one who hoards wealth greedily	■■■	The miser died alone, surrounded by gold he never spent.
pinchpenny	n.	/ˈpɪntʃ.pən.i/	a stingy, miserly person	■■■	That pinchpenny would haggle over the price of a single nail.
meretricious	adj.	/ˈmer.ɪ.trɪ.ʃəs/	showily attractive for mercenary ends	■■ ■■■■■	The advertisement made meretricious promises to lure greedy investors.
avid	adj.	/ˈæv.ɪd/	keenly greedy or eager for	■■ ■■.■■■	He was avid for profit, indifferent to who got hurt.
engrossing	adj.	/ˈnɒr.ə.sɪŋ/	monopolizing or hoarding to corner a market	■■.■■■■	By engrossing the entire grain supply, he forced prices sky-high.
monopolistic	adj.	/ˈmɒn.p.ə.lɪs.tɪk/	greedily controlling a whole market	■■■■	Their monopolistic grip let them charge whatever they pleased.
esurient	adj.	/ˈsʊr.i.ənt/	greedy; hungry for more	■■■■■	The esurient speculators devoured every available share.
selfish	adj.	/ˈsel.fɪʃ/	concerned only with one's own gain	■■■■	His selfish hoarding left nothing for the rest of the household.
self-seeking	adj.	/ˈself ˈsiː.kɪŋ/	pursuing one's own profit above all	■■■■■	Her self-seeking schemes always put her own purse first.
grabby	adj.	/ˈɡræb.i/	greedily eager to take	■■ ■■■	The grabby toddler clutched every toy in the room.
money-grubbing	adj.	/ˈmʌn.i.ər.ɪb.ɪŋ/	obsessively eager to amass money	■■ ■■	His money-grubbing relatives circled the dying man's estate.
Mammonism	n.	/ˈmæm.ən.ɪz.m/	devotion to the pursuit of wealth	■■■■	The novel condemned the Mammonism of the gilded age.
plutolatry	n.	/ˈplʊ.tl.ə.tri/	worship of wealth or riches	■■ ■■	Critics decried the city's open plutolatry.
hardfisted	adj.	/ˈhɑːrd.fɪstɪd/	mean and stingy with money	■■■	His hardfisted refusal to lend even a coin cost him every friend.
sordid	adj.	/ˈsɔːr.dɪd/	meanly mercenary; squalidly greedy	■■■■■ ■■■	The deal collapsed amid sordid haggling over every cent.
grabbing	adj.	/ˈɡræb.ɪŋ/	greedily seizing for oneself	■■■■	Their grabbing instinct left no share for anyone else.
hoggish	adj.	/ˈhɒɡ.ɪʃ/	greedy and selfish like a hog	■■■■■ ■■ ■■	His hoggish helping left little for the latecomers.
gluttonous	adj.	/ˈɡlʊt.nəs/	excessively greedy in consumption	■■■■■	The firm's gluttonous expansion swallowed a dozen competitors.

SAT 2000 — Day 17 · Courage & Boldness (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
intrepid	adj.	/■n■trep.■d/	fearless and adventurous	■■■■■	The intrepid explorer pressed on into the uncharted jungle.
dauntless	adj.	/■d■■nt.l■s/	showing fearless determination	■ ■■	Her dauntless spirit carried the team through the storm.
audacious	adj.	/■■■de■.■■s/	boldly daring and adventurous	■■■	His audacious plan to scale the cliff at night astonished everyone.
valorous	adj.	/■væl.■r.■s/	showing great bravery in battle	■■■	The valorous knight charged the enemy line alone.
doughty	adj.	/■da■.ti/	brave and persistent	■■■	The doughty old sailor faced the gale without flinching.
valiant	adj.	/■væl.j■nt/	courageous; resolutely brave	■■■	They made a valiant stand against overwhelming odds.
undaunted	adj.	/■n■d■■n.t■d/	not discouraged by danger or difficulty	■■■ ■■	Undaunted by failure, she rebuilt the bridge a third time.
plucky	adj.	/■pl■k.i/	showing spirited courage	■ ■■	The plucky underdog refused to concede the match.
mettlesome	adj.	/■met.■l.s■m/	spirited and courageous	■ ■■	The mettlesome recruit volunteered for the most dangerous post.
stouthearted	adj.	/■sta■t■h■■r.t■d/	brave and resolute	■■■	A stouthearted few held the gate until reinforcements came.
lionhearted	adj.	/■la■.■n■h■■r.t■d/	exceptionally brave	■■■ ■■■	The lionhearted captain led the rescue into the burning ship.
indomitable	adj.	/■n■d■m.■.t■.b■l/	impossible to subdue or defeat	■■■	Her indomitable will outlasted every setback.
gallant	adj.	/■æ.l.■nt/	brave and chivalrously bold	■■■.■■■	A gallant soldier, he shielded his comrades from the blast.
intrepidity	n.	/■■■n.tr■■p■d.■.ti/	fearless boldness	■■■.■■	The pilot's intrepidity in the storm saved every passenger.
valor	n.	/■væl.■r/	great courage in danger	■■	She received a medal for valor on the battlefield.
prowess	n.	/■pra■.es/	bravery and skill in combat	■ ■■	Tales of his prowess spread far beyond the kingdom.
audacity	n.	/■■■dæs.■.ti/	bold, daring willingness to risk	■■■	It took real audacity to challenge the champion in his prime.
temerity	n.	/t■■mer.■.ti/	reckless boldness; nerve	■■■ ■■■	He had the temerity to question the general's orders.
derring-do	n.	/■der.■■■du■/	daring, heroic action	■■■ ■■	The novel was packed with swashbuckling derring-do.
mettle	n.	/■met.■l/	courage and strength of character	■ ■■	The grueling climb truly tested their mettle.
hardihood	n.	/■h■■r.di.h■d/	boldness and daring resolve	■■■.■■	It took hardihood to confront the mob single-handed.
intrepidly	adv.	/■n■trep.■d.li/	in a fearless, bold manner	■■■■	She intrepidly dove into the icy water to reach the child.
venturesome	adj.	/■ven.t■■r.s■m/	willing to take risks; daring	■■■■	The venturesome sailor set out across the open ocean alone.
adventuresome	adj.	/■d■ven.t■■r.s■m/	eager for risky undertakings	■■■ ■■■	Her adventuresome streak led her to the world's tallest peaks.
daredevil	adj.	/■de■r.dev.■l/	recklessly bold and daring	■■■.■ ■■	His daredevil stunt on the motorcycle drew a gasping crowd.
foolhardy	adj.	/■fu■l■h■■r.di/	boldly rash; recklessly daring	■■■	It was foolhardy to cross the river during the flood.
unblenching	adj.	/■n■blen.t■■■/	showing no fear or flinching	■■■.■■■ ■■	He met the firing squad with an unblenching gaze.
courageous	adj.	/k■■re■.d■■s/	brave; able to face fear	■■■	A courageous bystander pulled the driver from the wreck.
heroic	adj.	/h■■ro■.■k/	showing great bravery	■■■■	Their heroic defense of the village became legend.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
emboldened	adj.	/ɪmˈbɒldənd/	made bolder and more confident	■■■■■	Emboldened by early success, the troops pushed forward.
spirited	adj.	/ˈspɪr.ɪ.tɪd/	full of energy and bold courage	■■■.■■■	They mounted a spirited resistance against the invaders.
fearless	adj.	/fɪr.ləs/	lacking any fear	■■■ ■■	The fearless firefighter ran back into the collapsing house.
redoubtable	adj.	/rɪdaɪ.tə.bəl/	formidable; commanding fearful respect	■■■.■■■	The redoubtable general had never lost a campaign.
chivalrous	adj.	/ˈtʃɪv.əl.rəs/	courageous and honorable	■■■■■	The chivalrous officer surrendered his own rations to the wounded.
manful	adj.	/ˈmæn.fʊl/	brave and determined	■■■.■■■	He made a manful effort to hold back his tears and stand firm.
swashbuckling	adj.	/ˈswɒʃbʌk.lɪŋ/	daringly adventurous and flamboyant	■■■■■	The swashbuckling captain boarded the enemy ship sword in hand.
venturous	adj.	/ˈven.tʃrəs/	daring; ready to take risks	■■■■■	A venturesome investor, she backed the unproven technology early.
nervy	adj.	/ˈnɜr.vi/	boldly audacious; brazen	■■ ■■	It was a nervy move to demand a raise on his first day.
dashing	adj.	/ˈdæʃ.ɪŋ/	boldly stylish and daring	■■■.■■■	The dashing cavalier galloped headlong into the fray.
unfaltering	adj.	/ˈnʌfɪl.tɪr.ɪŋ/	steady and not hesitating	■■■	With unfaltering nerve, she defused the device.
unquailing	adj.	/ˈnʌkweɪ.lɪŋ/	not shrinking from danger	■■■■ ■■	He stood unquailing before the angry tribunal.
greathearted	adj.	/ˈgreɪtˌhɜr.tɪd/	brave and noble in spirit	■■■■ ■■■	The greathearted leader inspired courage in everyone around him.
venturesomeness	n.	/ˈven.tʃr.səm.nəs/	readiness to take bold risks	■■■	Her venturesomeness opened markets no one else dared enter.
daring	n.	/ˈdeɪ.rɪŋ/	adventurous boldness	■■■.■■	The escape required nerve, timing, and sheer daring.
dauntlessness	n.	/ˈdaʊnt.ləs.nəs/	fearless resolve	■■■ ■■	His dauntlessness in the face of ridicule won grudging respect.
pluck	n.	/plʌk/	spirited courage and nerve	■■ ■■	It took real pluck to admit the mistake before the whole board.
backbone	n.	/ˈbæk.boʊn/	strength of character; courage	■■.■■	She had the backbone to stand up to her intimidating boss.
grit	n.	/grɪt/	courage and resolve; toughness	■■.■■	Sheer grit carried the marathoner across the finish line.
valorousness	n.	/ˈvæl.ər.əs.nəs/	the quality of being valorous	■■■	His valorousness under fire was recounted for generations.
audaciously	adv.	/ˈɔdeɪ.s.li/	in a boldly daring manner	■■■■■	She audaciously challenged the verdict in open court.

SAT 2000 — Day 18 · Cowardice & Timidity (■■■-■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
pusillanimous	adj.	/pjuː.sɪˈlæn.ɪ.məs/	timid and lacking courage	■ ■■-■■■	His pusillanimous retreat left his allies to face the enemy alone.
craven	adj.	/kreɪ.vən/	contemptibly cowardly	■■■	In a craven act, he abandoned his post at the first sign of danger.
timorous	adj.	/tɪm.ər.əs/	nervous and easily frightened	■ ■■	The timorous clerk dared not contradict his fearsome employer.
dastardly	adj.	/dæs.tɜrd.li/	wicked and cowardly	■■■-■■■	The dastardly ambush struck the travelers from behind.
poltroon	n.	/pɒlˈtruːn/	an utter coward	■■■	They branded him a poltroon for fleeing the duel.
recreant	adj.	/rek.ri.ənt/	cowardly and disloyal	■■■-■■■	The recreant soldier deserted his comrades under fire.
pusillanimity	n.	/pjuː.sɪˈlæn.ɪ.mə.ti/	a lack of courage; faint-heartedness	■■■-■■	His pusillanimity in the crisis cost him the respect of his men.
cowardice	n.	/kaʊ.ər.dɪs/	lack of bravery in danger	■■■	He was overcome by cowardice and fled the burning building.
timidity	n.	/tɪm.ɪ.də.ti/	lack of confidence or courage	■■■	Her timidity kept her from ever voicing her brilliant ideas.
poltroonery	n.	/pɒlˈtruː.nər.i/	abject cowardice	■■■	His poltroonery during the raid was never forgiven.
faint-hearted	adj.	/feɪnt.hɜrtɪd/	lacking courage; timid	■■■ ■■	The climb was not for the faint-hearted.
chicken-hearted	adj.	/tʃɪk.nhɜrtɪd/	cowardly; easily scared	■ ■■	Too chicken-hearted to complain, he simply swallowed the insult.
lily-livered	adj.	/lɪl.iˈlɪv.ɜrd/	weakly cowardly	■■■■	The lily-livered crew refused to sail into the storm.
pigeon-hearted	adj.	/pɪdʒ.nhɜrtɪd/	timid and cowardly	■ ■■	His pigeon-hearted excuses fooled no one.
spineless	adj.	/spaɪn.ləs/	lacking courage or resolve	■■ ■■	His spineless refusal to take a stand disappointed everyone.
gutless	adj.	/ɡʊt.ləs/	lacking courage or determination	■■ ■■	It was a gutless decision to let someone else take the blame.
yellow-bellied	adj.	/jel.əʊˈbel.id/	openly cowardly	■■■	The yellow-bellied bandit dropped his gun and begged for mercy.
dastard	n.	/dæs.tɜrd/	a malicious coward	■■■ ■	Only a dastard would strike a man already down.
poltroonish	adj.	/pɒlˈtruː.nɪʃ/	behaving like a coward	■■■ ■■	His poltroonish flight from the argument embarrassed his family.
dispirited	adj.	/dɪˈspɪr.ɪ.tɪd/	having lost courage or enthusiasm	■■■■■	The dispirited troops could barely lift their weapons.
daunted	adj.	/daʊntɪd/	intimidated; losing courage	■■■	Daunted by the crowd, the young speaker fell silent.
cowering	adj.	/kaʊ.ər.ɪʃ/	crouching in fear	■■■■	The cowering dog flinched at every raised hand.
craven-hearted	adj.	/kreɪ.vən.hɜrtɪd/	thoroughly cowardly at heart	■■■	His craven-hearted silence betrayed the friends who trusted him.
unmanly	adj.	/nˈmæn.li/	weak and cowardly	■■■-■■■	They sneered at his unmanly flight from the contest.
diffident	adj.	/dɪf.ɪ.dənt/	shy and lacking self-confidence	■■ ■■-■■■	Too diffident to raise her hand, she let the question pass.
bashful	adj.	/bæʃ.əl/	shyly self-conscious and timid	■■■	The bashful boy blushed whenever he was addressed.
mousy	adj.	/maʊ.si/	timid, quiet, and retiring	■■■	Her mousy demeanor hid a surprisingly sharp mind.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
skittish	adj.	/skɪt.ɪʃ/	nervous and easily startled	■ ■■.■ ■■■	The skittish horse bolted at the slightest noise.
tremulous	adj.	/trem.jʌ.ləs/	trembling with fear or timidity	■■■.■■■	In a tremulous voice, she confessed she was afraid.
trepidatious	adj.	/trep.ɪdeɪ.ɪs/	fearful and apprehensive	■■■■■	He took a trepidatious step toward the darkened doorway.
apprehensive	adj.	/æp.rɪhen.sɪv/	anxious that something bad may happen	■■■	She felt apprehensive about walking home alone at night.
pavid	adj.	/pæv.ɪd/	timid; full of fear	■■■	His pavid glance toward the exit gave away his fright.
poltroonism	n.	/pɒltruːn.ɪz.əm/	the conduct of a coward	■■■	Such poltroonism on the field shamed the entire regiment.
funk	n.	/fʌŋk/	a state of cowering fear	■■■.■■■	He fell into a funk and could not bring himself to act.
cravenness	n.	/kreɪ.vən.nɪs/	contemptible cowardice	■■■	His cravenness in court let the real culprit walk free.
namby-pamby	adj.	/næm.bi.pæm.bi/	weak, timid, and indecisive	■■■■.■■■	His namby-pamby leadership inspired no one.
milksoy	n.	/mɪlk.sɒp/	a feeble, timid person	■■■.■■■ ■■	They dismissed him as a milksoy who feared his own shadow.
poltroonness	n.	/pɒltruːn.nɪs/	the state of being a coward	■■■	His poltroonness was exposed the moment trouble appeared.
shrinking	adj.	/rɪŋk.ɪŋk/	timidly drawing back; shy	■■■■.■■■	A shrinking violet, she dreaded every public appearance.
sheepish	adj.	/ʃiːp.ɪʃ/	timidly embarrassed or meek	■■■.■■■	He gave a sheepish shrug and slipped quietly out the door.
meek	adj.	/miːk/	submissive and timid	■■■.■■■	Too meek to protest, she accepted the unfair workload.
retiring	adj.	/rɪtaɪ.ɪŋk/	shy and avoiding company	■■■■	His retiring manner made him invisible at parties.
jittery	adj.	/dʒɪt.ɪr.i/	nervous and unable to relax	■■■■■■■	He grew jittery as the deadline crept closer.
craven-spirited	adj.	/kreɪ.vənspɪr.ɪtɪd/	cowardly in disposition	■■■	Their craven-spirited surrender ended the rebellion overnight.
poltroonous	adj.	/pɒltruːn.ɪs/	resembling a coward	■■■ ■■	His poltroonous excuses grew more elaborate by the day.
weak-kneed	adj.	/wiːkniːd/	lacking resolve; cowardly	■■ ■■	His weak-kneed apology satisfied neither side.
chicken-livered	adj.	/tʃɪk.nɪl.vɜːd/	timid and cowardly	■ ■■	Don't be so chicken-livered; just ask for what you deserve.
unnerved	adj.	/nʌnɜːvd/	deprived of courage or composure	■■■.■■■	The eerie silence left the guards thoroughly unnerved.
poltroonously	adv.	/pɒltruːn.ɪs.li/	in a cowardly manner	■■■■	He poltroonously slipped away before the reckoning came.
cowardly	adj.	/kaɪ.rd.li/	lacking courage; ignobly fearful	■■■	It was a cowardly thing to mock him behind his back.

SAT 2000 — Day 19 · Clarity & Lucidity (■■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
lucid	adj.	/ˈluːsɪd/	clear and easy to understand	■■■■	Her lucid summary made the dense theory finally click.
perspicuous	adj.	/pɜːrˈspɪkjʊəs/	clearly expressed and easy to grasp	■■■■	The judge praised the brief for its perspicuous reasoning.
limpid	adj.	/ˈlɪmpɪd/	clear and transparent; lucid	■■, ■■■	His limpid prose never makes the reader work twice.
pellucid	adj.	/pɛˈluːsɪd/	transparently clear; easily understood	■■■■, ■■■	She gave a pellucid account of the experiment's logic.
intelligible	adj.	/ˈnɪtɪlədʒəbl/	able to be understood	■■■ ■ ■■	Translate the contract into something intelligible to laypeople.
coherent	adj.	/koːhəˈrɪnt/	logically connected and clear	■■■■, ■■ ■■	He needed sleep before he could form a coherent argument.
perspicuity	n.	/pɜːrspɪkjʊˈti/	clearness of expression	■■■■	The manual's perspicuity makes the software easy to learn.
lucidity	n.	/luːsɪdˈti/	clearness of thought or style	■■■■	In rare moments of lucidity, the patient recognized her family.
limpidity	n.	/lɪmpɪdˈti/	transparent clearness	■■■■	Critics admired the limpidity of her late poems.
transpicuous	adj.	/trænˈspɪkjʊəs/	clearly visible or evident	■■■■	His motives were transpicuous to everyone in the room.
diaphanous	adj.	/daɪəˈfəniəs/	so thin as to be transparent	■■■■, ■■■	Light passed easily through the diaphanous curtains.
translucent	adj.	/trænsˈluːsɪnt/	letting light pass through	■■■■	The translucent paper glowed when held to the lamp.
crystalline	adj.	/ˈkrɪstəˈlaɪn/	clear and transparent like crystal	■■■■ ■■	The lake's crystalline water revealed every stone below.
unambiguous	adj.	/ˈnæmˈbɪkjʊəs/	having only one clear meaning	■■■■	The statute is unambiguous about the filing deadline.
explicit	adj.	/ˈkɪsplɪsɪt/	stated clearly and fully	■■■■	The instructions were explicit about every required step.
distinct	adj.	/dɪˈstɪkt/	clearly perceptible or separate	■■■■	A distinct smell of smoke hung in the corridor.
salient	adj.	/ˈseɪliənt/	most noticeable or prominent	■■■■	She listed the salient points of the proposal first.
manifest	adj.	/ˈmænɪfɪst/	clear and obvious to the eye	■■■■	His relief was manifest the moment the news arrived.
patent	adj.	/ˈpeɪnt/	plainly evident; obvious	■■■■	It was patent nonsense, and the jury saw through it.
palpable	adj.	/ˈpælpəbl/	so clear it can almost be felt	■■■ ■ ■■	The tension in the negotiating room was palpable.
conspicuous	adj.	/kənˈspɪkjʊəs/	clearly visible; standing out	■■ ■■	His absence was conspicuous at the family reunion.
evident	adj.	/ˈvɪdɪnt/	plain to see or understand	■■■■	Her talent for design was evident from the first sketch.
discernible	adj.	/dɪˈsɜːrnəbl/	able to be clearly perceived	■■ ■■■	There was no discernible pattern in the scattered data.
perceptible	adj.	/pɜːrˈsɪptəbl/	able to be noticed or felt	■■■ ■ ■■	A perceptible chill entered as the door swung open.
legible	adj.	/ˈlɪdʒəbl/	clear enough to read	■■ ■■	His handwriting was barely legible on the cramped form.
articulate	adj.	/ˈɑːrtɪkjəˈleɪt/	expressing ideas clearly	■■■■ ■■■	She gave an articulate defense of the unpopular policy.
cogent	adj.	/ˈkoʊdɪɡənt/	clear, logical, and convincing	■■■ ■■	He made a cogent case for delaying the launch.
trenchant	adj.	/ˈtrɪntʃənt/	sharply clear and incisive	■■■■ ■■■	Her trenchant analysis cut straight to the flaw.
incisive	adj.	/ˈnɪsəˈsɪv/	clear and sharply analytical	■■■■	The columnist is known for incisive, no-nonsense commentary.
perspicacious	adj.	/pɜːrspɪˈkeɪʃəs/	having keen mental clarity	■■■ ■■	A perspicacious reader spots the twist within pages.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
luculent	adj.	/lʊkʃlnt/	clear in thought or expression	■■■■	His luculent explanation dispelled every lingering doubt.
limn	v.	/lm/	to depict or describe clearly	■■■ ■■■■	The biography limns her early years in vivid detail.
elucidate	v.	/lʊsdeɪt/	to make clear; explain	■■■■ ■■■■	Could you elucidate the second clause of the rule?
explicate	v.	/ksplkeɪt/	to analyze and develop in detail	■■■ ■■■■	The lecture explicated the poem line by line.
expound	v.	/kspand/	to explain clearly and fully	■■■ ■■■■	She expounded her theory to a rapt audience.
adumbrate	v.	/ædmbreɪt/	to outline or foreshadow clearly	■■■ ■■■	The preface adumbrates the arguments that follow.
delineate	v.	/dlnieɪt/	to describe or portray precisely	■■■ ■■■■	The report delineates each agency's responsibilities.
clarify	v.	/klærfaɪ/	to make easier to understand	■■■ ■■	Let me clarify what I meant by 'temporary'.
crystallize	v.	/krstlaɪz/	to make or become clear and definite	■■■■■	The discussion helped her ideas finally crystallize.
illuminate	v.	/lumneɪt/	to make clear; clarify	■■■, ■■■ ■■	A good footnote can illuminate an obscure passage.
limpidly	adv.	/lmpdli/	in a clear, transparent way	■■, ■■■■	She wrote limpidly even about the hardest topics.
lucidly	adv.	/lusdli/	in a clear, easily understood way	■■■■	He lucidly explained why the plan would fail.
plain	adj.	/pleɪn/	clear and easy to perceive	■■■	It is plain that the schedule cannot be met.
vivid	adj.	/vvd/	producing clear, strong images	■■■	Her vivid description placed us inside the scene.
graphic	adj.	/ræfɪk/	vividly clear and detailed	■■■	He gave a graphic account of the storm's aftermath.
luminous	adj.	/lumɪns/	brilliantly clear; enlightening	■■■, ■■■	The essay offers a luminous reading of the play.
clear-cut	adj.	/klrɪkɪt/	definite and unambiguous	■■■	This is not a clear-cut case of negligence.
limpid-eyed	adj.	/lmpɪd aɪd/	having clear, untroubled eyes	■■ ■■	The limpid-eyed child stared up without a trace of guile.
univocal	adj.	/juɪnvɪkl/	having a single clear meaning	■ ■■ ■■	Scientific terms should be univocal to avoid confusion.
crisp	adj.	/krɪsp/	clear and sharply defined	■■■	He gave crisp, unambiguous orders before the march.

SAT 2000 — Day 20 · Obscurity & Vagueness (■■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
abstruse	adj.	/æb■stru■s/	hard to understand; deep	■■■■	The lecture grew abstruse the moment he reached the proofs.
recondite	adj.	/r■k■nda■t/	obscure and known to few	■■■■, ■■■■	He delights in recondite facts no one else recalls.
nebulous	adj.	/n■bj■l■s/	vague and ill-defined	■■■■	Her plans for after graduation remained nebulous.
arcane	adj.	/r■r■ke■n/	mysterious and understood by few	■■■■■■	The ritual followed rules known only to arcane tradition.
cryptic	adj.	/kr■pt■k/	having a hidden, puzzling meaning	■■■■ ■■	He left a cryptic note that no one could decode.
inscrutable	adj.	/n■skru■t■bl/	impossible to interpret or read	■■■■ ■ ■■	Her inscrutable expression gave nothing away.
esoteric	adj.	/s■t■r■k/	understood by only a select few	■■■■, ■■■■	The journal publishes esoteric work on medieval logic.
opaque	adj.	/o■pe■k/	hard to understand; not transparent	■■■■■, ■■■■	The tax form's wording is hopelessly opaque.
obscure	adj.	/b■skj■r/	unclear or little known	■■■■, ■ ■■■■ ■■	The poem alludes to an obscure local legend.
abstract	adj.	/æbstrækt/	theoretical and hard to grasp	■■■■■	His argument stayed too abstract to persuade anyone.
impenetrable	adj.	/m■p■n■tr■bl/	impossible to understand	■■■■ ■ ■■	The contract's jargon was impenetrable to outsiders.
unfathomable	adj.	/n■fæð■m■bl/	too deep or strange to understand	■■■■ ■ ■■	Her reasons for leaving remained unfathomable to him.
enigmatic	adj.	/n■mæt■k/	mysterious and puzzling	■■■■ ■■	The artist gave only enigmatic answers about her work.
obscurantist	adj.	/bskj■rænt■st/	deliberately preventing clarity	■■■■■■	Critics called the policy obscurantist and evasive.
abstruseness	n.	/æb■stru■sn■s/	quality of being hard to grasp	■■■■	The abstruseness of the theory deterred casual readers.
obscurity	n.	/b■skj■r■ti/	state of being unclear or unknown	■■■■, ■■	The clause's obscurity sparked years of litigation.
opacity	n.	/o■pæs■ti/	quality of being hard to understand	■■■■■	The opacity of the rules frustrated every applicant.
ambiguity	n.	/æmb■ju■ti/	openness to more than one meaning	■■■■	The treaty's ambiguity let both sides claim victory.
vagueness	n.	/ve■n■s/	lack of clear definition	■■■■	The vagueness of his promise worried the investors.
murkiness	n.	/m■rkin■s/	obscurity; lack of clarity	■■■■■	The murkiness of the accounts hinted at fraud.
ambiguous	adj.	/æmb■ju■s/	open to more than one meaning	■■■■	His ambiguous reply could be read two ways.
oracular	adj.	/rækj■l■r/	obscure and ambiguous like a prophecy	■■■■ ■■	His oracular pronouncements left the staff guessing.
sibylline	adj.	/s■bl■l■n/	mysteriously prophetic and obscure	■■ ■■	She spoke in sibylline hints rather than plain advice.
murky	adj.	/m■rki/	obscure; hard to see into	■■■■	The deal's murky financing raised regulators' suspicions.
turbid	adj.	/t■rb■d/	clouded; muddled and unclear	■■■■	His turbid prose buried the point under qualifiers.
hazy	adj.	/he■zi/	vague and indistinct	■■■■	My memory of that night is hazy at best.
nebular	adj.	/n■bj■l■r/	cloudlike; vague and diffuse	■■ ■■, ■■■■	The proposal had a nebular outline and no real plan.
amorphous	adj.	/m■rf■s/	shapeless and ill-defined	■■ ■■	His fears were amorphous, attached to nothing specific.
inchoate	adj.	/n■ko■t/	vague because not yet formed	■■■■■, ■■■■	She had only an inchoate sense of what she wanted.
nondescript	adj.	/n■nd■skr■pt/	lacking distinctive features	■■ ■■	The suspect wore nondescript clothes and vanished.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
indeterminate	adj.	/ɪndɪtərmiːnt/	not fixed or precisely known	■■■■■	The painting dated from some indeterminate medieval year.
indistinct	adj.	/ɪndɪstɪkt/	not clear; blurred	■■■	Their voices were indistinct through the thick wall.
nebulously	adv.	/nɪbjʊlsli/	in a vague, unclear way	■■■■■	He spoke nebulously of 'changes' without naming any.
cryptically	adv.	/krɪptɪkli/	in a puzzling, obscure way	■■■■■■■	She smiled and answered cryptically, then walked off.
occlude	v.	/ɔkluːd/	to block or obscure from view	■■■, ■■■■	A bank of cloud occluded the summit all morning.
mystify	v.	/mɪstɪfaɪ/	to bewilder or puzzle	■■■■■■■ ■■	The disappearing files mystified the whole IT team.
becloud	v.	/bɪklaʊd/	to make confused or obscure	■■■ ■■	Anger can becloud even a sharp lawyer's judgment.
muddle	v.	/mʌdl/	to make confused or unclear	■■■■■■■ ■■■	Too many footnotes only muddle the main claim.
shroud	v.	/ʃraʊd/	to hide or obscure	■■■	Mist shrouded the valley until well past noon.
veil	v.	/veɪl/	to conceal or partly hide	■■■	Polite phrasing veiled the threat in his letter.
cloud	v.	/klaʊd/	to make less clear	■■■ ■■	Bias clouded their reading of the evidence.
blur	v.	/blʊr/	to make indistinct or unclear	■■■■ ■■	Rain blurred the city lights into smears.
convoluted	adj.	/kɒnvʊlətɪd/	extremely complex and unclear	■■■	The plot grew so convoluted that readers lost track.
labyrinthine	adj.	/læbɪrɪnθaɪn/	intricate and confusing	■■ ■■	The tax code is a labyrinthine maze of exceptions.
byzantine	adj.	/bɪzəntiːn/	excessively complicated and obscure	■■■■■	Approval required navigating a byzantine bureaucracy.
abstrusely	adv.	/æbstrʊsli/	in a hard-to-understand way	■■■■■	He wrote abstrusely, as if clarity were beneath him.
unintelligible	adj.	/ʌnɪntəlɪdʒəbl/	impossible to understand	■■■ ■ ■■	The drunken message was completely unintelligible.
gnomic	adj.	/noʊmɪk/	terse and puzzlingly obscure	■■■■■	His gnomic remarks read like half-finished riddles.
occult	adj.	/ɔkʌlt/	hidden, secret, and obscure	■■■	The text described some occult method long since lost.
tenebrous	adj.	/tɛnɪbrəs/	dark, shadowy, and obscure	■■■	A tenebrous mood and tangled syntax cloud the novel.

SAT 2000 — Day 21 · Diligence & Industry (■■-■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
assiduous	adj.	/■s■dju■s/	showing great care and persistence	■■■	Her assiduous note-taking saved the whole team later.
sedulous	adj.	/■s■dj■l■s/	diligent and persevering	■■■■	He was sedulous in checking every figure twice.
painstaking	adj.	/■pe■nzte■k■/	done with careful, thorough effort	■■■	Restoring the fresco took years of painstaking labor.
unflagging	adj.	/■n■flæ■■■/	not weakening; tireless	■ ■ ■■■	Her unflagging energy kept the campaign alive.
diligent	adj.	/■d■l■d■nt/	hardworking and careful	■■■	Diligent students reviewed the material every evening.
industrious	adj.	/■n■d■stri■s/	hardworking and productive	■■■■	The industrious apprentice mastered the trade in a year.
sedulity	n.	/s■■dju■l■ti/	diligent, persistent effort	■■	With great sedulity she rebuilt the archive from scraps.
assiduity	n.	/■æs■■dju■ti/	constant, careful attention	■■	His assiduity in practice set him apart from rivals.
industriousness	n.	/■n■d■stri■sn■s/	quality of being hardworking	■■■	Her industriousness impressed even the strictest manager.
perseverance	n.	/■p■■rs■■v■■r■ns/	persistence despite difficulty	■ ■, ■■	Sheer perseverance carried the project past every setback.
sedulously	adv.	/■s■dj■l■sli/	with diligent persistence	■■■■	He sedulously logged each result before moving on.
assiduously	adv.	/■■s■dju■sli/	with great care and effort	■■■■	She assiduously revised the draft until dawn.
tireless	adj.	/■ta■■rl■s/	showing no sign of fatigue	■ ■ ■■■	A tireless advocate, he never missed a hearing.
untiring	adj.	/■n■ta■■r■/	persistent and never weary	■■■	Her untiring outreach finally won the grant.
unremitting	adj.	/■■nr■■mt■/	never relaxing or stopping	■■■■	His unremitting effort turned the failing store around.
unwearied	adj.	/■n■w■■rid/	not tired; persistent	■■■ ■■	She kept an unwearied vigil at the patient's bedside.
persevering	adj.	/■p■■rs■■v■■r■/	steadily persistent	■ ■ ■■	Only the persevering applicants survived the long vetting.
persistent	adj.	/p■r■s■st■nt/	continuing firmly despite obstacles	■■■	Persistent practice gradually steadied her hands.
dogged	adj.	/■d■■d/	stubbornly persistent	■■■	His dogged research uncovered the buried records.
tenacious	adj.	/t■■ne■■s/	holding firmly; persistent	■■■	A tenacious reporter, she refused to drop the story.
meticulous	adj.	/m■■t■kj■l■s/	extremely careful about detail	■■■	His meticulous records left auditors nothing to query.
fastidious	adj.	/fæ■st■di■s/	very attentive to detail and care	■■■	Her fastidious editing polished every loose sentence.
thorough	adj.	/■θ■r■/	complete and careful in execution	■■■	A thorough inspection revealed the hidden crack.
rigorous	adj.	/■r■■r■s/	strict, careful, and exhaustive	■■■, ■■■	The study followed a rigorous testing protocol.
exacting	adj.	/■■■zækt■/	demanding great care and effort	■■■	The exacting craftsman rejected any flawed joint.
painstakingly	adv.	/■pe■nzte■k■■li/	with great care and thoroughness	■■■	She painstakingly reassembled the shredded letter.
laborious	adj.	/l■■b■■ri■s/	requiring hard, sustained work	■ ■, ■■■■	Cataloguing the fossils was slow, laborious work.
workmanlike	adj.	/■w■■rk■n■l■k/	diligent and competently done	■■■	He turned in a steady, workmanlike performance.
studious	adj.	/■stju■di■s/	devoted to careful study	■■■■	The studious intern read every manual cover to cover.
plodding	adj.	/■pl■d■/	slow but steadily persistent	■■■, ■■■	Through plodding effort he finished the marathon thesis.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
sturdy	adj.	/stɜːrdi/	firm and steadfast in effort	굳건	Her sturdy commitment never wavered through the crisis.
sedulousness	n.	/sɪdʒələsnəs/	persistent diligence	굳건	His sedulousness earned a promotion within months.
toil	v.	/tɔɪl/	to work long and hard	고생하다	They toiled through the night to meet the deadline.
persevere	v.	/pəˈrsɛvər/	to keep on despite difficulty	견디다	She persevered until the stubborn proof gave way.
drudge	v.	/drʌdʒ/	to do hard, dull work	고생하다	He drudged at the ledgers long after closing.
grind	v.	/graɪnd/	to work or study laboriously	고생하다	She ground away at the problem set all weekend.
slog	v.	/slɒɡ/	to work hard over a long task	고생하다	They slogged through hundreds of pages of records.
beaver	v.	/biˈvər/	to work hard and steadily	고생하다	He beavered away at the report until it shone.
dedicated	adj.	/dɪdɪkeɪtɪd/	devoted to a task or purpose	헌신적	The dedicated volunteers sorted donations for hours.
committed	adj.	/kəˈmɪtɪd/	loyally devoted to a cause	헌신적	A committed teacher, she stayed late to tutor.
zealous	adj.	/zɛləs/	fervently devoted and hardworking	헌신적	A zealous recruit, he volunteered for every drill.
intent	adj.	/ɪntɛnt/	earnestly focused on a task	집중	She was intent on her work, deaf to the noise.
sober	adj.	/soʊbər/	serious and steadily applied	굳건	He brought a sober, methodical focus to the audit.
workaholic	n.	/wɜːrkəhɒlɪk/	a compulsively hard worker	고생꾼	A confessed workaholic, she rarely took a day off.
go-getter	n.	/ˈɡoʊɡɛtər/	an energetic, enterprising worker	고생꾼	The young go-getter doubled the branch's sales.
stickler	n.	/stɪklər/	one who insists on careful detail	고생꾼	A stickler for accuracy, she rechecked every total.
workhorse	n.	/wɜːrkhɔːrs/	a dependable, tireless worker	고생꾼	The quiet workhorse handled half the department's load.
operose	adj.	/ˈɒpərəs/	involving much labor; industrious	고생, 고생	The monks undertook the operose task of copying each manuscript by hand.
indefatigability	n.	/ɪndɪfəˈtæbəlɪti/	tireless persistence	고생, 고생	Her indefatigability carried the project through three long winters.
strenuous	adj.	/ˈstrɛnjuəs/	requiring vigorous, sustained effort	고생, 고생	He made a strenuous effort to finish before the deadline.

SAT 2000 — Day 22 · Laziness & Lethargy (■■■·■■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
indolent	adj.	/■nd■l■nt/	habitually lazy; averse to work	■■■	The indolent heir let the estate fall into ruin.
slothful	adj.	/■slo■θfl/	lazy and disinclined to act	■■■	He grew slothful and skipped his morning runs.
torpid	adj.	/■t■rp■d/	sluggish; lacking energy	■■■■	The heat left everyone torpid by mid-afternoon.
languid	adj.	/■læ■w■d/	lacking energy; slow and relaxed	■■■	She gave a languid wave and sank back into the chair.
listless	adj.	/■l■stl■s/	lacking energy or interest	■■■■	The listless students barely glanced at the board.
otiose	adj.	/■o■io■s/	idle; serving no useful purpose	■■■, ■■■■	His afternoons were otiose, drifting and unproductive.
lethargic	adj.	/l■θ■rd■k/	sluggish and lacking energy	■■■■	A heavy lunch left him lethargic for the meeting.
sluggish	adj.	/■sl■■■/	slow-moving and inactive	■■■	The whole office felt sluggish on the humid Friday.
lackadaisical	adj.	/■læk■de■z■kl/	lacking enthusiasm or effort	■■■■	His lackadaisical attitude annoyed the eager interns.
indolence	n.	/■nd■l■ns/	habitual laziness	■■	Years of indolence had dulled his once-sharp mind.
sloth	n.	/slo■θ/	reluctance to work; laziness	■■	He blamed his failure on sloth, not bad luck.
torpor	n.	/■t■rp■r/	sluggish inactivity; dormancy	■■■	A strange torpor settled over the drowsy village.
lethargy	n.	/■l■θ■rd■i/	lack of energy; sluggishness	■■■	The illness brought weeks of fog and lethargy.
languor	n.	/■læ■■■r/	pleasant or oppressive weariness	■■■	A summer languor hung over the empty courtyard.
lassitude	n.	/■læs■tju■d/	weariness; lack of energy	■■, ■■■	A deep lassitude kept her from leaving the bed.
inertia	n.	/■n■r■/	tendency to remain inactive	■■■, ■■	Sheer inertia kept the failing program limping along.
idleness	n.	/■a■dl■s/	state of doing nothing	■■■	Forced idleness during the strike drove him restless.
stupor	n.	/■stju■p■r/	near-unconscious sluggish daze	■■■■, ■■ ■■	He sat in a stupor, unable to lift a finger.
somnolence	n.	/■s■mn■l■ns/	drowsiness; sleepy sluggishness	■■	The droning lecture induced a creeping somnolence.
enervation	n.	/■n■r■ve■■■n/	loss of energy or vitality	■■ ■■	The tropical fever brought weeks of utter enervation.
indolently	adv.	/■nd■l■ntli/	in a lazy, idle manner	■■■■	He lounged indolently while the others packed.
languidly	adv.	/■læ■w■dli/	in a slow, listless way	■■■■	She stirred her tea languidly, in no hurry at all.
slothfully	adv.	/■slo■θfli/	in a lazy, idle manner	■■■■	The afternoon passed slothfully, hour by empty hour.
indisposed	adj.	/■nd■spo■zd/	disinclined; unwilling to act	■■■ ■■	He felt indisposed to do any work that day.
shiftless	adj.	/■■■ftl■s/	lazy and lacking ambition	■■■	They dismissed him as a shiftless drifter.
slack	adj.	/slæk/	careless and lacking effort	■■■	Slack supervision let the errors pile up unnoticed.
remiss	adj.	/r■m■s/	negligent; lax in duty	■■■	It would be remiss of me to ignore the warning.
negligent	adj.	/■n■l■d■nt/	failing to take proper care	■■■	The negligent clerk left the safe wide open.
dilatory	adj.	/■d■lt■ri/	slow to act; given to delay	■■■■■	His dilatory replies stalled the whole negotiation.
laggard	adj.	/■læ■rd/	slow and lagging behind	■■■■	The laggard crew fell a full day behind schedule.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
inert	adj.	/ɪnɜːrt/	inactive; lacking power to move	■ ■ ■	He lay inert on the sofa for the whole holiday.
comatose	adj.	/kəˈmɑːtoʊs/	deeply sluggish; nearly lifeless	■■■■■, ■■■■	By midnight the party had gone comatose and dull.
somnolent	adj.	/sɒmnələnt/	sleepy and sluggish	■■	The warm room made the whole class somnolent.
soporific	adj.	/səˈpɔːrɪfɪk/	tending to cause drowsiness	■■■ ■■	The minister's soporific drone emptied half the pews.
enervated	adj.	/ɛnɜːvɪtɪd/	drained of energy and vigor	■■■■■	Enervated by the heat, they abandoned the climb.
effete	adj.	/ɛfiːt/	worn out; lacking vitality	■■■■■, ■■■	The once-bold party had grown effete and idle.
moribund	adj.	/məˈrɪbʌnd/	stagnant; near death or inactivity	■■ ■■■, ■■■	The moribund factory limped along with no orders.
torpidity	n.	/tɔːrɪˈpɪdɪti/	sluggish dullness; inactivity	■■■	Winter torpidity slowed the whole sleepy town.
sluggishness	n.	/sɫʌʃɪnəs/	slowness and lack of energy	■■■	A vague sluggishness blunted his usual quick wit.
dawdle	v.	/dɔːdl/	to waste time; move idly	■■■■■	Stop dawdling, or we'll miss the last train.
loaf	v.	/loʊf/	to idle away time lazily	■■■■■	He loafed all summer instead of finding a job.
laze	v.	/leɪz/	to relax idly; be lazy	■■■ ■■■	They lazed by the pool without a single plan.
loungue	v.	/laʊndʒ/	to lie or sit lazily	■■■■■	He lounged on the couch as the chores piled up.
loll	v.	/lɔːl/	to lie or lean in a lazy way	■■■■	The cat lolled in the sun all afternoon.
malinger	v.	/məˈlɪŋɡər/	to feign illness to avoid work	■■ ■■■	He malingered to skip the tedious inventory count.
shirk	v.	/ʃɜːrk/	to avoid work or duty	■■■■	She never shirked even the most thankless task.
vegetate	v.	/vɛdʒɪˈteɪt/	to live passively and idly	■■■■■■	He vegetated in front of the screen for days.
idle	v.	/aɪdl/	to spend time doing nothing	■■■■■	They idled away the holiday without ambition.
slacker	n.	/slækər/	one who avoids work	■■■■■	The team carried two slackers who never pulled their weight.
sluggard	n.	/sɫʌɡəd/	a habitually lazy person	■■■■■	The proverb warns the sluggard to learn from the ant.

SAT 2000 — Day 23 · Abundance & Excess (■■■-■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
profusion	n.	/prɒfjuːʃn/	abundant quantity; lavish outpouring	■■■■	The garden bloomed in a profusion of color by midsummer.
plethora	n.	/ˈpleθrə/	an excessive, overlarge amount	■■■	A plethora of options left the customers paralyzed at the counter.
surfeit	n.	/sɜːrfɪt/	an excess, especially of food	■■■	A surfeit of rich dishes left the banquet guests sluggish.
copious	adj.	/ˈkoʊpiəs/	abundant; plentiful in supply	■■■■	She took copious notes throughout the three-hour lecture.
prodigal	adj.	/ˈprɒdɪɡəl/	wastefully extravagant; lavish	■■■■■	His prodigal spending drained the inheritance within a year.
superfluous	adj.	/suːpərfluəs/	more than needed; unnecessary	■■■■■	The editor cut every superfluous adjective from the draft.
plenitude	n.	/ˈplenɪtuːd/	fullness; an abundant amount	■■■■	Autumn brought a plenitude of grain to the village stores.
cornucopia	n.	/ˈkɒrnəkoʊpiə/	an overflowing abundance	■■■■ ■	The market was a cornucopia of exotic fruits and spices.
luxuriant	adj.	/lʌˈʃərɪənt/	growing thickly and abundantly	■■■■	Luxuriant ferns blanketed the rainforest floor.
teeming	adj.	/ˈtiːmɪŋ/	full of; swarming with life	■■■■■■	The tide pool was teeming with crabs and anemones.
rife	adj.	/raɪf/	widespread; abounding, often of ills	■■■■	Rumors were rife in the office after the sudden resignation.
lavish	adj.	/ˈlævɪʃ/	given or spent abundantly	■■■■■	They hosted a lavish reception with hundreds of guests.
opulent	adj.	/ˈɒpjələnt/	richly abundant; luxurious	■■■■■	The opulent ballroom dripped with gilt and crystal.
myriad	adj.	/ˈmɪrɪəd/	countless; very numerous	■■■■	The night sky revealed myriad stars far from the city.
redundant	adj.	/rɪˈdʌndənt/	exceeding what is needed; repetitive	■■■■	The report was padded with redundant restatements of its thesis.
inundate	v.	/ɪˈnʌndeɪt/	to overwhelm with an excess	■■■■■	Customer complaints inundated the help desk after the outage.
saturate	v.	/ˈsætʃəreɪt/	to fill completely beyond capacity	■■■■■■	Cheap imports saturated the market and crushed prices.
glut	n.	/ɡlʊt/	an oversupply of something	■■ ■■	A glut of oil sent prices tumbling worldwide.
surplus	n.	/ˈsʌrplʌs/	an amount beyond what is used	■■■	The harvest produced a surplus the town sold abroad.
abound	v.	/əˈbaʊnd/	to exist in great numbers	■■■■■	Wildlife abounds in the untouched reaches of the delta.
proliferate	v.	/prəˈlɪfəreɪt/	to increase rapidly in number	■■■■■	Street vendors proliferated as the festival crowds grew.
burgeon	v.	/ˈbɜːrdʒən/	to grow or expand rapidly	■■■■■■	The startup scene burgeoned across the once-quiet district.
replete	adj.	/rɪˈpliːt/	fully filled or supplied	■■■ ■	The memoir was replete with vivid anecdotes.
abundant	adj.	/əˈbʌndənt/	existing in large quantities	■■■■	Fresh water was abundant in the highland valleys.
prolific	adj.	/prəˈlɪfɪk/	producing much; highly fruitful	■■■■	The prolific author published three novels in a single year.
voluminous	adj.	/vəˈluːmɪnəs/	of great size or quantity	■■■■	The trial generated voluminous documents and testimony.
ample	adj.	/ˈæmpəl/	more than enough; spacious	■■■■	There was ample room for everyone in the new hall.
fecund	adj.	/ˈfiːkʌnd/	highly fertile; productive	■■■■	The fecund floodplain yielded crops twice a year.
fertile	adj.	/ˈfɜːrtɪl/	able to produce abundantly	■■■■	The fertile soil supported dense fields of wheat.
prodigious	adj.	/prəˈdɪdʒəs/	remarkably great in amount	■■■■	He consumed a prodigious quantity of books each month.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
profligate	adj.	/prɒflɪɡət/	recklessly wasteful; extravagant	프로피가트	Their profligate use of resources alarmed the auditors.
extravagant	adj.	/ɪkˈstrævəɡənt/	exceeding reasonable limits; excessive	익스트라바гант	The extravagant wedding cost more than a house.
sumptuous	adj.	/sʌmptʊəs/	lavish and costly	섬트유스	Guests dined on a sumptuous seven-course meal.
overweening	adj.	/oʊvərwiːnɪŋ/	excessive; immoderate in degree	오버위닝	His overweening ambition blinded him to every risk.
immoderate	adj.	/ɪmˈmɒdərət/	exceeding proper bounds; excessive	임모데리트	Her immoderate appetite for praise wore on her colleagues.
exorbitant	adj.	/ɪkˈzɔːrbɪtənt/	far exceeding reasonable limits	익소비탄트	The hotel charged exorbitant rates during the festival.
inordinate	adj.	/ɪnˈɔːrdɪnət/	excessive; beyond normal limits	인오르디네이트	He spent an inordinate amount of time on trivial details.
engorged	adj.	/ɪnˈɡɔːrdʒd/	swollen or filled to excess	잉가르드	The river ran engorged with weeks of meltwater.
satiate	v.	/seɪiət/	to fill or gratify to excess	세이엠티어	The endless buffet satiated even the hungriest guests.
cloy	v.	/kloɪ/	to sicken by excess sweetness	클로이	The dessert's syrup soon began to cloy.
surcharge	n.	/sɜːrtʃɑːrdʒ/	an excessive additional load or fee	서차지	An unexpected surcharge inflated the final bill.
overabundance	n.	/oʊvərˈbʌndəns/	an excessive supply	오버어바운드런스	An overabundance of zucchini left neighbors begging others to take it.
bonanza	n.	/bəˈnænzə/	a source of great wealth or yield	보난자	The new oil field proved a bonanza for the region.
affluence	n.	/æfluːns/	an abundance of wealth	아플루언스	The suburb's affluence showed in its manicured lawns.
rampant	adj.	/ræmpənt/	spreading unchecked; flourishing widely	램판트	Weeds grew rampant across the abandoned lot.
lush	adj.	/lʊʃ/	growing thick and abundant	러시	The valley was lush after the long rains.
verdant	adj.	/vɜːrdənt/	abundantly green with vegetation	버들	Verdant hills rolled away beyond the river.
plenteous	adj.	/plentiəs/	existing in great plenty	플렌티어스	The orchard gave a plenteous yield of apples.
wanton	adj.	/wɒntən/	excessive and unrestrained	완톤	The storm caused wanton destruction across the coast.
superabundant	adj.	/suːpərˈbʌndənt/	existing in excessive quantity	슈퍼어바운드	The harvest was so superabundant that crates rotted in the fields.

SAT 2000 — Day 24 · Scarcity & Lack (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
paucity	n.	/p■s■ti/	smallness of number or amount	■■■	A paucity of evidence forced the case to be dropped.
dearth	n.	/d■rθ/	a scarcity or lack of something	■■■	There was a dearth of qualified applicants for the post.
exiguous	adj.	/z■ju■s/	scanty; very small in amount	■■■	They survived a month on exiguous rations.
meager	adj.	/mi■r/	lacking in quantity or quality	■■■	His meager salary barely covered the rent.
scanty	adj.	/skænti/	barely sufficient; insufficient	■■■	Scanty rainfall left the reservoirs dangerously low.
modicum	n.	/m■d■k■m/	a small or modest amount	■■■	Show even a modicum of effort and we will help you.
scarcity	n.	/skers■ti/	a shortage; insufficiency of supply	■■■	Water scarcity threatened the entire region.
shortfall	n.	/rtf■l/	a deficit; amount falling short	■■■	The budget shortfall forced deep cuts in services.
deficit	n.	/def■s■t/	a shortage; the amount lacking	■■■	The company ran a deficit for three straight quarters.
deficiency	n.	/d■f■nsi/	a lack or insufficiency	■■■	An iron deficiency left her chronically fatigued.
privation	n.	/pra■ve■n/	lack of basic necessities; hardship	■■■	The refugees endured years of privation in the camp.
penury	n.	/penj■ri/	extreme poverty; destitution	■■■	Illness drove the once-wealthy family into penury.
destitution	n.	/dest■tu■n/	complete lack of resources	■■■	The war reduced thousands to utter destitution.
indigence	n.	/nd■d■ns/	the state of being poor	■■■	Charity sheltered families fallen into indigence.
want	n.	/w■nt/	lack or scarcity of something	■■■	The harvest failed, and the village knew real want that winter.
lack	n.	/læk/	the absence of something needed	■■■	A lack of funding stalled the entire project.
deplete	v.	/d■pli■t/	to use up; reduce greatly	■■■■■	Overfishing depleted the once-rich coastal waters.
exhaust	v.	/z■st/	to use up completely	■■■■■	The expedition exhausted its supplies before reaching the pass.
deprive	v.	/d■pra■v/	to keep from having something	■■■■■	The siege deprived the city of food and medicine.
stint	v.	/st■nt/	to supply sparingly; skimp	■■■■ ■■	She never stinted on praise for her students.
sparse	adj.	/sp■rs/	thinly scattered; scant	■■■■■	Vegetation was sparse on the windswept plateau.
scant	adj.	/skænt/	barely sufficient; meager	■■■	The witnesses paid scant attention to the time.
paltry	adj.	/p■ltri/	ridiculously small; trifling	■■■■■	They offered a paltry sum for the valuable painting.
negligible	adj.	/ne■ld■b■l/	too small to matter	■■■ ■■	The change in temperature was negligible overnight.
sporadic	adj.	/sp■ræd■k/	occurring scantily and irregularly	■■■■■	Sporadic rainfall could not break the drought.
barren	adj.	/bær■n/	unproductive; lacking growth	■■■	Nothing grew on the barren, salt-crusted flats.
arid	adj.	/ær■d/	extremely dry; lacking moisture	■■■	The arid plateau supported only hardy scrub.
desolate	adj.	/des■l■t/	bare and deserted; bleak	■■■	The desolate moor stretched empty for miles.
depauperate	adj.	/d■p■p■r■t/	impoverished; poorly developed	■■■	Isolation left the island's fauna depauperate.
impoverish	v.	/m■p■vr■/	to make poor; drain of resources	■■■■ ■■	Decades of mismanagement impoverished the province.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
attenuate	v.	/ˈtɛnjueɪt/	to reduce in force or amount	약해지다	Distance attenuated the signal until it vanished.
diminish	v.	/dɪˈmɪnɪʃ/	to make or grow less	줄어들다	Reserves diminished steadily through the lean months.
dwindle	v.	/ˈdwɪndəl/	to shrink gradually; waste away	줄어들다	The crowd dwindled as the rain set in.
abate	v.	/əˈbeɪt/	to lessen in intensity or amount	줄어들다	The fever slowly abated by morning.
wane	v.	/weɪn/	to decrease gradually; decline	줄어들다	Public interest in the scandal soon waned.
frugal	adj.	/ˈfruːɡəl/	sparing; economical with resources	절약하다	Their frugal habits let them save despite low wages.
abstemious	adj.	/əbˈstiːmiəs/	sparing in food and drink	절약하다	He led an abstemious life, eating little and drinking less.
spartan	adj.	/ˈspɑːrtən/	austere; lacking comfort	절약하다	The monks kept a spartan cell with only a cot.
austere	adj.	/ˈɔːstɪər/	severely plain; without luxury	절약하다	Postwar life was austere, with rationing for years.
meagerness	n.	/ˈmiːɡərnəs/	the quality of being scant	적량	The meagerness of the rations weakened the troops.
famine	n.	/ˈfæmɪn/	an extreme shortage of food	굶주림	Drought and war together brought a devastating famine.
drought	n.	/draʊt/	a prolonged shortage of water	가뭄	The worst drought in a century cracked the riverbed.
pittance	n.	/ˈpɪtəns/	a very small allowance or wage	조금의 돈	Laborers toiled all day for a mere pittance.
smidgen	n.	/ˈsmɪdʒən/	a tiny amount	조금	Add just a smidgen of salt to balance the dish.
iota	n.	/aɪəˈtoʊtə/	an extremely small quantity	조금	There was not an iota of truth in the rumor.
vestige	n.	/ˈvestɪdʒ/	a tiny remaining trace	조금	Only a vestige of the old wall still stood.
skimp	v.	/skɪmp/	to provide too little; economize	절약하다	Do not skimp on materials for the foundation.
ration	v.	/ˈræʃən/	to limit supply during scarcity	제한하다	The crew rationed water as the voyage dragged on.
denude	v.	/dɪˈnuːd/	to strip bare of covering	벌거숭이	Logging denuded the once-forested slopes.
threadbare	adj.	/ˈθredber/	worn thin; impoverished	마모되다	He arrived in a threadbare coat and worn shoes.

SAT 2000 — Day 25 · Hostility & Antagonism (■■·■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
belligerent	adj.	/bɛlɪdʒərɪnt/	aggressively hostile; warlike	■■■■	His belligerent tone turned the meeting into a shouting match.
animosity	n.	/ænɪmɪsɪti/	strong hostility or hatred	■■	Years of rivalry bred deep animosity between the clans.
inimical	adj.	/ɪnɪmɪkəl/	hostile; harmful to interests	■■■■	The policy proved inimical to small farmers.
enmity	n.	/enmɪti/	deep-seated mutual hatred	■■■	The ancient enmity between the houses never healed.
antagonism	n.	/ænɪtəɡɒnɪzəm/	active hostility or opposition	■■	Open antagonism marked every encounter between the rivals.
acrimony	n.	/ækɪmoʊni/	bitterness in speech or manner	■■■	The divorce was settled only after months of acrimony.
hostility	n.	/hɒstɪlɪti/	unfriendly, aggressive opposition	■■■	The crowd's hostility forced the speaker offstage.
antipathy	n.	/ænɪtpəθi/	deep-seated dislike; aversion	■■	She felt an instinctive antipathy toward the newcomer.
vendetta	n.	/venɪdetə/	a prolonged bitter feud	■■■	The two families pursued their vendetta for generations.
feud	n.	/fjuːd/	a lasting hostile quarrel	■■	A bitter feud divided the village for decades.
discord	n.	/dɪskɔːrd/	lack of harmony; strife	■■	Petty jealousies sowed discord within the team.
strife	n.	/straɪf/	bitter conflict or struggle	■■	Civil strife tore the country apart for years.
rivalry	n.	/raɪvəlri/	competition between hostile parties	■■	Their rivalry intensified with every match.
belligerence	n.	/bɛlɪdʒərəns/	aggressive, warlike behavior	■■■	The country's belligerence provoked international sanctions.
combative	adj.	/kəmˈbætɪv/	ready and eager to fight	■■■■	She grew combative whenever her work was questioned.
contentious	adj.	/kənˈtenʃəs/	quarrelsome; prone to dispute	■■■■	The contentious bill split the legislature.
quarrelsome	adj.	/kwɔːrəlsəm/	given to fighting and disputes	■■■ ■■■■	The quarrelsome neighbors argued over every fence line.
malevolent	adj.	/məˈlevələnt/	wishing harm to others	■■■■	A malevolent rumor wrecked his reputation.
malicious	adj.	/məˈlɪʃəs/	intending to do harm	■■ ■■	The malicious prank left real damage behind.
vitriolic	adj.	/vɪˈtriɒlək/	savagely bitter in expression	■■■	The critic launched a vitriolic attack on the novel.
venomous	adj.	/venəməs/	full of malice; spiteful	■■ ■■	She shot him a venomous glare across the room.
hostile	adj.	/hɒstɪl/	unfriendly; antagonistic	■■■■	The delegates met in a tense, hostile silence.
adversarial	adj.	/ədˈvɜːsəriəl/	characterized by opposition	■■■■	The two firms had a long adversarial relationship.
antagonize	v.	/ænɪtəɡɒnaɪz/	to provoke hostility in	■■■■■	His blunt remarks antagonized the whole board.
estrange	v.	/ɪˈstreɪnd/	to turn away in feeling; alienate	■■■■ ■■	The quarrel estranged the brothers for years.
alienate	v.	/əˈliːneɪt/	to make hostile or unfriendly	■■■■ ■■	The harsh policy alienated longtime supporters.
provoke	v.	/prəˈvoʊk/	to stir up anger or hostility	■■■■	The insult was clearly meant to provoke a fight.
incite	v.	/ɪnˈsaɪt/	to stir up; urge to action	■■■■	The speech incited the mob to violence.
embroil	v.	/ɪmˈbrɔɪl/	to involve in conflict or strife	■■■■ ■■	The scandal embroiled the firm in lawsuits.
rebuff	v.	/rɪˈbʊf/	to reject sharply; snub	■■ ■■	She rebuffed every attempt at reconciliation.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
spar	v.	/spɑːr/	to argue or contend with	싸다	The candidates sparred over taxes all night.
wrangle	v.	/ˈræŋɡl/	to dispute noisily and angrily	싸다	The partners wrangled over every clause of the deal.
rancorously	adv.	/ˈræŋkərəsli/	with bitter resentment	싸다	They parted rancorously, vowing never to speak again.
internecine	adj.	/ˌɪntərˈnesiːn/	mutually destructive within a group	싸다	Internecine feuds crippled the once-powerful party.
factionous	adj.	/ˈfækʃəs/	given to dissension; divisive	싸다	The factionous assembly splintered into rival camps.
bilious	adj.	/ˈbɪliəs/	ill-humored; peevish	싸다	He delivered a bilious tirade against his critics.
obstreperous	adj.	/ˈɒbstreˈpərəs/	noisily and aggressively defiant	싸다	The obstreperous crowd drowned out the speaker.
captious	adj.	/ˈkæpʃəs/	apt to find fault; carping	싸다	His captious objections delayed the agreement.
disputatious	adj.	/ˈdɪspjuˈteɪʃəs/	fond of argument; quarrelsome	싸다	The disputatious scholar challenged every claim.
detestation	n.	/ˌdiːtəˈsteɪʃən/	intense dislike; loathing	싫어, 미워	He regarded the regime with open detestation.
vituperative	adj.	/vɪˈtuːpəˈrətɪv/	harshly abusive; bitterly critical	싫어, 미워	His vituperative review savaged the young author.
contumelious	adj.	/ˈkɒntjʊˈmiːliəs/	insolently abusive and humiliating	싫어	She bristled at his contumelious dismissal of her work.
acerbic	adj.	/ˈsɜːrbɪk/	sharp and biting in tone	싸다	The critic was known for his acerbic wit.
malignant	adj.	/ˈmælɪˈnənt/	feeling or showing intense ill will	싫어	A malignant rumor spread quickly through the office.
spiteful	adj.	/ˈspaɪtfl/	desiring to hurt or humiliate	싫어, 미워	Out of spiteful envy she sabotaged his presentation.
viperous	adj.	/ˈvaɪpərəs/	malicious; venomously spiteful	싫어, 미워	Behind the smile lay a viperous intent to ruin him.
misanthropic	adj.	/ˈmɪzənθrɒpɪk/	disliking and distrusting humankind	싫어	Years of betrayal left him bitter and misanthropic.
enmityridden	adj.	/ˌɪnmɪˈtɪrɪdən/	consumed by mutual hostility	싫어	The two enmity-ridden clans had feuded for generations.
odium	n.	/ˈoʊdiəm/	intense hatred or disgust	싫어, 미워	The traitor's name became a byword for public odium.
execration	n.	/ˈeksˌkreɪʃən/	the act of cursing or loathing	싫어, 미워	His betrayal earned him the execration of the whole town.

SAT 2000 — Day 26 · Friendship & Harmony (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
amicable	adj.	/æm■k■b■l/	friendly; free of conflict	■■■■	The two firms reached an amicable settlement.
congenial	adj.	/k■n■d■i■ni■l/	pleasantly agreeable; compatible	■■■ ■■	She found the small office a congenial place to work.
camaraderie	n.	/k■m■r■d■ri/	warm friendship and trust	■■■	A deep camaraderie bound the crew together.
affable	adj.	/æf■b■l/	friendly and easy to talk to	■■■	The affable host put every guest at ease. concord	n.	/k■k■rd/	agreement; harmony	■■	The treaty restored concord between the nations.
amity	n.	/æm■ti/	friendly relations; goodwill	■■	Decades of amity linked the two coastal towns.
accord	n.	/k■k■rd/	agreement; mutual harmony	■■	The rivals finally reached an accord on trade.
rapport	n.	/ræp■r/	a close, harmonious relationship	■■■	The teacher built an easy rapport with her students.
conviviality	n.	/k■n■v■i■æl■ti/	warm, festive sociability	■■■	The pub was famous for its noisy conviviality.
geniality	n.	/d■i■ni■æl■ti/	warm, cheerful friendliness	■■■	His geniality made strangers feel like old friends.
fellowship	n.	/felo■■p/	friendly companionship; community	■■	They valued the fellowship of the climbing club.
comity	n.	/k■m■ti/	courteous, harmonious relations	■■	The two courts cooperated in a spirit of comity.
harmony	n.	/h■rm■ni/	peaceful agreement; accord	■■	The diverse team worked in remarkable harmony.
rapprochement	n.	/ræpr■■m■n/	renewal of friendly relations	■■	Quiet talks led to a rapprochement between the rivals.
détente	n.	/de■t■nt/	an easing of strained relations	■■ ■■	The summit marked a welcome détente after years of hostility.
reconciliation	n.	/rek■ns■li■e■■n/	restoration of friendly ties	■■	After the apology came a lasting reconciliation.
solidarity	n.	/s■l■dær■ti/	unity arising from common interest	■■	The workers stood in solidarity during the strike.
concordance	n.	/k■n■k■rd■ns/	agreement; state of harmony	■■	There was full concordance among the experts.
consonance	n.	/k■ns■ns/	agreement; harmonious accord	■■	Her values were in consonance with the group's mission.
communion	n.	/k■mju■ni■n/	intimate sharing; deep fellowship	■■	They felt a quiet communion walking the old trails together.
concert	n.	/k■ns■rt/	agreement; harmonious action	■■	The agencies acted in concert to manage the crisis.
affinity	n.	/f■fn■ti/	a natural liking or kinship	■■■	She felt an immediate affinity with her new colleagues.
cordial	adj.	/k■rd■l/	warm and sincerely friendly	■■■	They exchanged cordial greetings at the door.
amiable	adj.	/e■mi■b■l/	good-natured and likable	■■■ ■■	Her amiable manner won over the whole committee.
genial	adj.	/d■i■ni■l/	cheerful and kindly; warm	■■■	The genial innkeeper greeted everyone by name.
gregarious	adj.	/gr■■eri■s/	sociable; fond of company	■■■■	Naturally gregarious, he knew half the town.
sociable	adj.	/so■■b■l/	enjoying friendly company	■■■■	The sociable host moved easily among the guests.
companionable	adj.	/k■mpæni■n■b■l/	pleasantly friendly; sociable	■■■	They shared a companionable silence by the fire.
neighborly	adj.	/ne■b■rli/	friendly and helpful, as a neighbor	■■■■	A neighborly gesture of help mended old grudges.
fraternal	adj.	/fr■t■rn■l/	brotherly; of mutual affection	■■ ■■	A fraternal bond united the veterans for life.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
collegial	adj.	/kɒlɪdʒiəl/	cooperative among colleagues	콜리지얼	The lab kept a warm, collegial atmosphere.
harmonious	adj.	/hɑːrmoʊniəs/	free of conflict; agreeable	하모니우스	The roommates kept a harmonious household.
amicability	n.	/æmɪkəbɪlɪti/	friendliness; goodwill	아미카빌리티	The talks proceeded with surprising amicability.
amenable	adj.	/əmiˈnəbəl/	agreeable; open to cooperation	아메네블	She was amenable to almost any reasonable plan.
complaisant	adj.	/kəmˈpleɪsənt/	eager to please; obliging	컴플라이언트	The complaisant clerk fulfilled every request.
obliging	adj.	/əbˈlaɪdʒɪŋ/	willing to help; accommodating	오블리징	An obliging stranger carried her bags up the stairs.
fraternize	v.	/ˈfrætərnaɪz/	to associate on friendly terms	프라터나이즈	Soldiers from both camps began to fraternize during the truce.
reconcile	v.	/ˈrekənsaɪl/	to restore friendly relations	리كون사일	A common friend helped reconcile the estranged partners.
conciliate	v.	/kənˈsɪliət/	to win goodwill; placate	컨실리에이트	The mediator worked to conciliate the warring sides.
harmonize	v.	/ˈhɑːrmənaɪz/	to bring into agreement	하모나이즈	The committee worked to harmonize the competing plans.
coalesce	v.	/ˈkoʊleɪs/	to unite into one harmonious whole	코일리스	The scattered groups coalesced into a single movement.
commune	v.	/kəˈmjuːn/	to share thoughts intimately	커뮤닌	They walked the shore to commune with old friends.
befriend	v.	/bɪˈfrend/	to act as a friend toward	베프렌드	She befriended the lonely new student at once.
consort	v.	/kənˈsɔːrt/	to keep company; associate	컨소르트	He often consorted with artists and writers.
entente	n.	/ˈɒntənt/	a friendly understanding between parties	앙테	The neighbors reached a quiet entente over the shared road.
affability	n.	/æfəbɪlɪti/	warm, approachable friendliness	아페빌리티	His affability disarmed even his fiercest critics.
intimacy	n.	/ˈɪntɪməsi/	close, warm personal connection	인티마시	Years of letters built a deep intimacy between them.
kinship	n.	/ˈkɪnʃɪp/	a feeling of close connection	킨십	They felt an instant kinship over their shared roots.
concinny	n.	/kənˈsɪnɪti/	harmonious elegance; smooth agreement	컨신니티	The duet achieved a concinny that silenced the hall.
clubbable	adj.	/ˈklʌbəbəl/	sociable; suited to friendly company	클러블블	His clubbable warmth made him welcome at every table.

SAT 2000 — Day 27 · Wisdom & Insight (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
sagacious	adj.	/s■■■■e■■■s/	showing keen practical judgment	■■■	Her sagacious counsel steered the firm through the downturn.
judicious	adj.	/d■■u■■d■■■s/	showing sound, careful judgment	■■ ■■	A judicious allocation of funds kept the project solvent.
astute	adj.	/■■stju■■t/	shrewd and perceptive	■■■	An astute negotiator, she read his bluff instantly.
erudite	adj.	/■■er■■da■■t/	having deep, extensive learning	■■■	His erudite lectures drew on six languages of sources.
percipient	adj.	/p■■r■■s■■pi■■nt/	perceptive and discerning	■■■ ■■	A percipient critic, he grasped the novel's hidden structure.
sagacity	n.	/s■■■■æ■■ti/	soundness of judgment	■■■	The elder's sagacity resolved the dispute in minutes.
perspicacity	n.	/■■p■■rsp■■kæs■■ti/	keenness of understanding	■■■	Her perspicacity laid bare the scheme's fatal weakness.
discernment	n.	/d■■s■■rnm■■nt/	ability to judge well	■■■	Choosing the right hire demands real discernment.
acumen	n.	/■■ækj■■m■■n/	keen insight or shrewdness	■■■	Her business acumen turned a debt into a fortune.
sapient	adj.	/■■se■■pi■■nt/	wise; possessing deep wisdom	■■■■	The sapient ruler weighed every voice before deciding.
acuity	n.	/■■kju■■ti/	sharpness of perception or insight	■■■	Her mental acuity sharpened with every hard case. prescient	adj.	/■■presi■■nt/	having foreknowledge of events	■■■■ ■■	Her prescient warning about the crash proved exact.
sage	adj.	/se■■d■■/	profoundly wise	■■■	He offered sage advice that aged remarkably well.
perceptive	adj.	/p■■r■■sept■■v/	quick to notice and understand	■■■ ■■	A perceptive teacher, she sensed his unspoken worry.
discerning	adj.	/d■■s■■rn■■/	showing good judgment and taste	■■ ■■	Discerning collectors recognized the forgery at once.
discriminating	adj.	/d■■skr■■m■■ne■■t■■/	showing refined judgment and taste	■■ ■■	A discriminating palate distinguished the rare vintage.
prudent	adj.	/■■pru■■d■■nt/	acting with care and foresight	■■■	A prudent investor diversifies before a storm.
sagely	adv.	/■■se■■d■■li/	in a wise manner	■■■■	He nodded sagely, withholding his verdict for now.
penetrating	adj.	/■■pen■■tre■■t■■/	deeply insightful	■■■ ■■	His penetrating analysis cut to the policy's core.
connoisseur	n.	/■■k■■n■■s■■r/	an expert judge in matters of taste	■■■	A connoisseur of jade, he priced each piece at a glance.
provident	adj.	/■■pr■■v■■d■■nt/	wisely preparing for the future	■■■■ ■■	A provident farmer stores grain against lean years.
shrewd	adj.	/■■ru■■d/	sharp in practical judgment	■■■■	A shrewd reader of markets, he sold before the dip.
savvy	adj.	/■■sævi/	shrewdly knowledgeable	■■■	Politically savvy, she anticipated every objection.
judiciousness	n.	/d■■u■■d■■■sn■■s/	quality of sound judgment	■■■	The committee praised her judiciousness under pressure.
canny	adj.	/■■kæni/	shrewd and cautious in dealings	■■■	A canny bargainer, she never paid full price.
astuteness	n.	/■■stju■■tn■■s/	keen perceptive intelligence	■■■	His astuteness in reading people made him a fine envoy.
sapience	n.	/■■se■■pi■■ns/	wisdom; profound understanding	■■	The text is revered for its moral sapience.
perspicaciousness	n.	/■■p■■rsp■■ke■■■sn■■s/	acuteness of discernment	■■■	Her perspicaciousness uncovered the buried motive.
clairvoyance	n.	/kler■■v■■■ns/	exceptional insight or foresight	■■■	His near-clairvoyance about trends unnerved rivals.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
intuit	v.	/■n■tu■■t/	to grasp by instinctive insight	■■■■	She could intuit a lie before any proof surfaced.
fathom	v.	/■fæð■m/	to understand after deep thought	■■■■	He struggled to fathom her sudden reversal.
apprehend	v.	/■æpr■■hend/	to grasp the meaning of	■■■■	Few could apprehend the theory's full reach.
cogitate	v.	/■k■d■■te■t/	to ponder deeply	■■■■	He cogitated for days before committing to the plan.
ruminate	v.	/■ru■m■ne■t/	to think over carefully	■■■ ■■■■	She ruminated on the proposal all weekend.
ratiocinate	v.	/■ræti■■s■ne■t/	to reason methodically	■■■■	He loved to ratiocinate his way to a proof.
discern	v.	/d■■s■■rn/	to perceive or distinguish clearly	■■■■	She could discern truth from flattery effortlessly.
sapiential	adj.	/■se■pi■en■■l/	relating to or providing wisdom	■■■	The proverbs form a sapiential guide to living.
polymath	n.	/■p■li■mæθ/	person of wide-ranging learning	■■■	A true polymath, she mastered physics and the violin.
savant	n.	/■sæv■nt/	a learned, deeply knowledgeable person	■■	The savant could recite entire treatises from memory.
luminary	n.	/■lu■m■n■ri/	an intellectually eminent person	■■■	Each luminary in the field attended the symposium.
cognoscente	n.	/■k■nj■■enti/	a person of expert knowledge	■■■	Only a cognoscente would spot the vintage's flaw.
erudition	n.	/■er■■d■■n/	deep, extensive scholarly knowledge	■■	His erudition spanned epochs few historians touch.
nous	n.	/na■s/	shrewd practical intelligence	■■■	He had the nous to quit while he was ahead.
intuition	n.	/■■ntu■■■n/	immediate insight without reasoning	■■	Her intuition about the candidate proved sound.
foresight	n.	/■f■■rsa■t/	provision for the future; prudence	■■■■	His foresight in stockpiling supplies saved the camp.
profundity	n.	/pr■■f■nd■ti/	great depth of insight	■■■	The lecture's profundity left the audience silent.
percipience	n.	/p■r■s■pi■ns/	keenness of perception and insight	■■■, ■■■	Her percipience let her read the room before a word was spoken.
sophic	adj.	/■s■f■k/	of or relating to wisdom	■■■■	The elder offered a sophic remark that reframed the dispute.
sagaciousness	n.	/s■■■e■■■sn■s/	shrewd practical wisdom	■■■, ■■■	Her sagaciousness in a crisis steadied the whole team.
insightfulness	n.	/■■nsa■tf■ln■s/	the quality of deep understanding	■■■	The essay's insightfulness marked her as a rare thinker.

SAT 2000 — Day 28 · Foolishness & Folly (■■■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
fatuous	adj.	/fætʰuːs/	silly and complacently foolish	■■■■■	His fatuous grin suggested he had missed the point entirely.
asinine	adj.	/æsɪnaɪn/	extremely stupid or foolish	■■■■	The plan was so asinine that no one defended it.
vacuous	adj.	/vækjuːs/	empty-headed; lacking thought	■■■■	She gave a vacuous reply that answered nothing.
inane	adj.	/ɪneɪn/	silly and pointless	■■■■	The meeting dissolved into inane chatter.
obtuse	adj.	/ɒbtuːs/	slow to understand; dull-witted	■■■	He was too obtuse to grasp the obvious hint.
vapid	adj.	/væpɪd/	dull and lacking liveliness	■■■■■■	Their vapid small talk drained the room.
fatuity	n.	/fætʰuːti/	smug, complacent foolishness	■■■■	The sheer fatuity of the remark stunned the panel.
inanity	n.	/ɪnənɪti/	silliness; lack of sense	■■■■■	He could not abide the inanity of the slogan.
vacuity	n.	/vækjuːti/	emptiness of mind or content	■■■■	Behind the polish lay an alarming vacuity.
imbecility	n.	/ɪmbɛsɪlɪti/	extreme foolishness or stupidity	■■■■■	The scheme's imbecility doomed it from the start.
puerile	adj.	/pjʊəraɪl/	childishly silly and immature	■■■■	His puerile jokes embarrassed the whole table.
jejune	adj.	/dʒeɪjuːn/	naive, simplistic, and shallow	■■■■	The argument was jejune, ignoring every nuance.
callow	adj.	/kæloʊ/	immature and inexperienced	■■■■	The callow recruit blundered through his first case.
sophomoric	adj.	/sɒfəˈmɔːrɪk/	pretentious yet immature and ill-informed	■■■■	His sophomoric thesis mistook cynicism for depth.
doltish	adj.	/dɒltɪʃ/	stupid; dull and slow	■■■■	A doltish stare met every reasonable question.
obtuseness	n.	/ɒbtuːsnəs/	dullness of perception	■■■■	His obtuseness about feelings strained the marriage.
witless	adj.	/wɪtləs/	foolish; lacking sense	■■■■■	It was witless to ignore the storm warnings.
brainless	adj.	/breɪnləs/	stupid; thoughtless	■■ ■■	The brainless prank nearly burned the shed down.
addlepated	adj.	/ædlepɪtɪd/	muddled and foolish	■■■■	The addlepated clerk filed every form in the wrong box.
muddleheaded	adj.	/mɪdlhedɪd/	confused and unable to think clearly	■■■■■■■	His muddleheaded directions got us thoroughly lost.
harebrained	adj.	/herbreɪnd/	rash and foolish; ill-conceived	■■■■	Her harebrained scheme to fly the kite in a gale failed.
cockamamie	adj.	/kɒkəˈmeɪmi/	ridiculous and implausible	■■■■■■	He floated some cockamamie theory about the tides.
preposterous	adj.	/prɪpɒstɪrəs/	utterly absurd; contrary to sense	■■■■■■	The excuse was preposterous and fooled no one.
ludicrous	adj.	/luːdɪkrəs/	absurd; laughably foolish	■■■■■■■	It would be ludicrous to repeat that mistake.
risible	adj.	/rɪzəbl/	deserving mocking laughter; absurd	■■■■■	His risible defense crumbled under one question.
absurd	adj.	/əbˈsɜːrd/	wildly unreasonable or illogical	■■■■■	The proposal was absurd on its face.
nonsensical	adj.	/nɒnsensɪkl/	having no meaning; making no sense	■■■■■	The instructions were nonsensical and self-contradictory.
fatuousness	n.	/fætʰuːsnəs/	self-satisfied foolishness	■■■■■	The fatuousness of his boast invited ridicule.
folly	n.	/fɒli/	foolishness; a foolish act	■■■■■	Repeating the failed experiment was sheer folly.
fecklessness	n.	/feklɪsnəs/	ineffectual, irresponsible foolishness	■■■■	His fecklessness squandered every advantage.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
feckless	adj.	/fɛklɪs/	weak, irresponsible, and ineffective	ㅋㅋㅋㅋ	The feckless heir frittered the estate away.
ineptitude	n.	/ɪnɛptɪtuːd/	lack of skill; foolish incompetence	ㅋㅋ	Their ineptitude turned a simple task into chaos.
imprudent	adj.	/ɪmˈpruːdɪnt/	rash; lacking good judgment	ㅋㅋ	It was imprudent to sign before reading the terms.
injudicious	adj.	/ɪndʒuːdɪʃəs/	showing poor judgment	ㅋㅋㅋㅋ	His injudicious remark offended the entire board.
benighted	adj.	/bɛnaɪtɪd/	intellectually unenlightened; ignorant	ㅋㅋ	He dismissed the era as benighted and superstitious.
crass	adj.	/kræs/	grossly stupid and insensitive	ㅋㅋ	His crass remark betrayed total ignorance.
dunderhead	n.	/dʌndɪrhed/	a stupid person; dolt	ㅋㅋ	Only a dunderhead would touch a live wire.
nincompoop	n.	/nɪŋkɒmpuːp/	a silly, foolish person	ㅋㅋ	The play's nincompoop bungled every errand.
simpleton	n.	/sɪmpltɪn/	a foolish or gullible person	ㅋㅋ	They duped the simpleton with a transparent trick.
ignoramus	n.	/ɪɡnəˈreɪməs/	an ignorant, foolish person	ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋ	He played the ignoramus to dodge responsibility.
buffoon	n.	/bʊˈfuːn/	a ridiculous, foolish person	ㅋㅋㅋㅋ	He behaved like a buffoon at the formal dinner.
dolt	n.	/dɒlt/	a slow-witted, foolish person	ㅋㅋ	Even a dolt could see the bridge was unsafe.
nitwit	n.	/nɪtwɪt/	a silly or stupid person	ㅋㅋ	Some nitwit left the gate wide open.
blockhead	n.	/blɒkhed/	a stupid, dense person	ㅋㅋ	The blockhead repeated the error a third time.
imbecilic	adj.	/ɪmbɛsɪlɪk/	stupid; idiotic	ㅋㅋ ㅋㅋ	His imbecilic grin made the lie obvious.
moronic	adj.	/məˈrɒnɪk/	extremely foolish or stupid	ㅋㅋ ㅋㅋ	It was moronic to taunt the larger dog.
doltishness	n.	/dɒltɪʃnəs/	dull, stupid behavior	ㅋㅋ	His doltishness exhausted everyone's patience.
vacuousness	n.	/vækjuːsnəs/	emptiness; lack of substance	ㅋㅋ	The speech's vacuousness left listeners cold.
gormless	adj.	/ɡɔːrmləs/	lacking sense; dull and stupid	ㅋㅋ	He stood there gormless while the chance slipped away.
daft	adj.	/dæft/	silly; foolish	ㅋㅋㅋㅋ	It seemed daft to argue with the weather.

SAT 2000 — Day 29 · Order & Structure (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
systematic	adj.	/sɪstəmətɪk/	done according to a fixed plan	■■■■■	Her systematic review missed nothing in the archive.
methodical	adj.	/məˈθɒdɪkl/	orderly and carefully systematic	■■■■	His methodical search of the room took hours.
regimented	adj.	/ˈredɪmentɪd/	strictly organized and controlled	■■■■	Life at the academy was rigidly regimented.
hierarchical	adj.	/ˈhaɪərərkiəl/	arranged in ranked levels	■■■■■	The firm's hierarchical chain slowed every decision.
codify	v.	/koʊdɪfaɪ/	to arrange laws or rules into a system	■■■■■	The council moved to codify the scattered customs.
taxonomy	n.	/tækˈsɒnəmi/	a system of orderly classification	■■ ■■	Biologists revised the taxonomy of the genus.
regimen	n.	/ˈredɪmən/	a prescribed orderly routine	■■■■ ■■	She kept to a strict training regimen all season.
hierarchy	n.	/ˈhaɪərərki/	a ranked system of order	■■■	Within the guild, hierarchy governed every privilege.
schema	n.	/ˈskiːmə/	an organized structural framework	■■■	He sketched a schema for the whole database.
stratification	n.	/ˈstrætɪfɪkeɪʃən/	arrangement into ordered layers	■■■■	Social stratification shaped every interaction at court.
systematize	v.	/sɪstəmaɪz/	to arrange into a coherent system	■■■■■	She set out to systematize the chaotic files.
regularize	v.	/ˈreɡjələraɪz/	to make orderly and consistent	■■■■■	New rules regularized the once-haphazard process.
marshal	v.	/ˈmɑːrəl/	to arrange in proper order	■■■■■	He marshaled the evidence into a tight argument.
collate	v.	/kəˈleɪt/	to gather and arrange in order	■■ ■■■■	Clerks collated the pages before binding.
catalog	v.	/kætəlɒɡ/	to list systematically	■■■■■	She cataloged each specimen by region and date.
tabulate	v.	/ˈtæbjʊleɪt/	to arrange data in tables	■■ ■■■■	The analyst tabulated the results overnight.
demarcate	v.	/ˈdiːmərkeɪt/	to set the boundaries of	■■■■ ■■■■	Fences demarcate the parcels along the ridge.
configure	v.	/kənˈfɪɡjər/	to arrange parts in a pattern	■■■■■	Engineers configured the array for maximum yield.
orchestrate	v.	/ˈɔːrkstreɪt/	to arrange and coordinate carefully	■■■■■	She orchestrated the launch down to the minute.
structured	adj.	/ˈstrʌktʃəd/	organized into a defined framework	■■■■■	The course follows a tightly structured syllabus.
orderly	adj.	/ˈɔːrli/	neatly and logically arranged	■■■■	Files were kept in strict, orderly rows.
symmetrical	adj.	/sɪˈmetrɪkl/	balanced in proportion and order	■■■■	The garden's symmetrical paths pleased the eye.
cohesive	adj.	/koʊˈhiːsɪv/	well integrated and unified	■■■■ ■■	The team formed a cohesive, well-drilled unit.
regimentation	n.	/ˈredɪmenˈteɪʃən/	strict, uniform organization	■■ ■■	The school's regimentation left no room for whim.
codification	n.	/koʊdɪfɪkeɪʃən/	the act of systematizing rules	■■■■	Codification of the bylaws ended years of dispute.
classification	n.	/klæsɪfɪkeɪʃən/	orderly arrangement into classes	■■■	Her classification of dialects became the standard.
configuration	n.	/kənˈfɪɡjʊreɪʃən/	an arrangement of parts	■■■	The new configuration doubled the throughput.
framework	n.	/ˈfreɪmwɜːrk/	a basic supporting structure	■■■	They proposed a framework for sorting the claims.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
infrastructure	n.	/ˈɪnfraˌstrʌktʃər/	underlying organizational foundation	인프라	Sound infrastructure underpins every reliable system.
protocol	n.	/ˈprɒtəˌkɒl/	an established orderly procedure	프로토콜	Strict protocol governs each step of the trial.
regularity	n.	/ˈreɡjələˌrɪti/	orderly, consistent recurrence	정기성	The tides return with reassuring regularity.
uniformity	n.	/ˈjuːnɪfɔːrmɪti/	consistency of form throughout	일관성	Inspectors demanded uniformity across the batches.
symmetry	n.	/ˈsɪmətri/	balanced, proportionate order	대칭	The facade's symmetry signaled careful design.
alignment	n.	/əˈlaɪnmənt/	arrangement in correct relative order	정렬	Proper alignment of the gears stopped the rattle.
sequence	n.	/ˈsiːkwəns/	an ordered succession of items	순서	The steps must follow a precise sequence.
gradation	n.	/ˈɡrædeɪʃən/	an ordered series of stages	구분 단계	The chart shows a fine gradation of ranks.
stratify	v.	/ˈstrætɪfaɪ/	to arrange in ordered layers	층화하다	Researchers stratified the sample by age.
categorize	v.	/ˈkætəɡəraɪz/	to sort into ordered groups	분류하다	He categorized the complaints by department.
subordinate	v.	/səˈbɔːrdɪneɪt/	to place in a lower rank or order	하위화하다	The plan subordinates speed to safety.
arrange	v.	/əˈreɪndʒ/	to put into a deliberate order	배치하다	She arranged the exhibits by century.
regulated	adj.	/ˈreɡjəleɪtɪd/	controlled by rule or system	규제된	The market is heavily regulated for fairness.
ordered	adj.	/ˈɔːdərd/	arranged in a methodical way	정돈된	His ordered desk mirrored an ordered mind.
graduated	adj.	/ˈɡrædʒueɪtɪd/	arranged in measured steps	구분된	A graduated scale set the fees by income.
ordinance	n.	/ˈɔːrdɪnəns/	an authoritative regulating rule	규정	A new ordinance standardized the signage.
schematic	adj.	/skiˈmætɪk/	representing structure in diagram form	개념도	The schematic map clarified the wiring at a glance.
formalize	v.	/ˈfɔːrməlaɪz/	to give definite structure to	정식화하다	They moved to formalize the informal agreement.
regiment	v.	/ˈredɪment/	to organize strictly and uniformly	정돈하다	The coach regimented every minute of practice.
systematization	n.	/ˈsɪstəˌmætɪzeɪʃən/	the act of making systematic	체계화	Systematization of the records sped up every audit.
methodicalness	n.	/məˈθɒdɪklnəs/	quality of being orderly and methodical	체계성	Her methodicalness turned disorder into routine.
syntactic	adj.	/sɪnˈtæktɪk/	relating to orderly arrangement	구문론적, 문법적	The filing system followed a strict syntactic logic.

SAT 2000 — Day 30 · Chaos & Disorder (■■■·■■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
pandemonium	n.	/pændmoˈniəm/	wild uproar and confusion	■■■■	Pandemonium broke out when the lights failed.
bedlam	n.	/bedləm/	a scene of uproar and chaos	■■■■	The trading floor descended into sheer bedlam.
tumult	n.	/tuˈmʌlt/	a loud, confused commotion	■■	Amid the tumult, no one heard the alarm.
maelstrom	n.	/meɪlstrəm/	a violent, turbulent situation	■■■■	He was swept into a maelstrom of accusations.
anarchy	n.	/ˈænərki/	absence of order or authority	■■■ ■■	When the council collapsed, anarchy followed.
disarray	n.	/dɪsˈreɪ/	a state of disorder	■■	The retreat left the army in total disarray.
turmoil	n.	/tɜːrmɔɪl/	great disturbance and confusion	■■	The nation sank into political turmoil.
mayhem	n.	/meɪhem/	violent disorder and havoc	■■■■	The collision caused mayhem at the junction.
havoc	n.	/həvək/	widespread destruction and disorder	■■■■	The flood wreaked havoc on the lowland farms.
chaos	n.	/keɪs/	complete disorder and confusion	■■	Without a schedule, the office fell into chaos.
commotion	n.	/komoʃən/	noisy disturbance or fuss	■■	A sudden commotion erupted near the gate.
melee	n.	/meɪleɪ/	a confused, chaotic struggle	■■	Reporters vanished into the melee at the entrance.
fracas	n.	/freɪkəs/	a noisy disorderly quarrel	■■	A fracas in the stands halted the match.
imbroglia	n.	/mɪbroʊliə/	a confused, embarrassing entanglement	■■	The contract dispute became a costly imbroglia.
shambles	n.	/æmblz/	a state of total disorder	■■■■	The botched rollout left the system in shambles.
disorder	n.	/dɪsˈɔːdə/	lack of order; confusion	■■■■	Papers lay in hopeless disorder on the floor.
welter	n.	/weltər/	a confused, disordered mass	■■■■	She faced a welter of conflicting reports.
disorganization	n.	/dɪsˈɔːrənəzeɪʃən/	lack of orderly arrangement	■■ ■■	The team's disorganization doomed the launch.
discomposure	n.	/dɪskəmˈpoʊər/	agitated lack of composure	■■	His sudden discomposure betrayed the bad news.
perturbation	n.	/pɜːrtərˈbeɪʃən/	a disturbance of order or calm	■■	A small perturbation threw the orbit off course.
convulsion	n.	/kənˈvʌlʃən/	a violent upheaval or disturbance	■■	The reform triggered a social convulsion.
upheaval	n.	/pəˈhiːvl/	a sudden violent disruption	■■	The merger caused upheaval across every team.
cataclysm	n.	/kætəˈklɪzəm/	a violent, large-scale upheaval	■■■■	The war was a cataclysm that reshaped the map.
maelstromic	adj.	/meɪlstrəmɪk/	resembling a turbulent whirlpool	■■■■ ■■	The crowd's maelstromic surge swept the barricades.
turbulent	adj.	/tɜːrbjʌlənt/	marked by violent disorder	■■■■	They married during a turbulent year of revolt.
tumultuous	adj.	/tuˈmʌltjuəs/	full of uproar and disorder	■■■■	A tumultuous crowd jammed the narrow square.
anarchic	adj.	/əˈnɜːrkɪk/	without order or control	■■■■	The festival had an anarchic, lawless energy.
chaotic	adj.	/keɪˈtɒk/	in complete disorder	■■■■■	The evacuation grew chaotic within minutes. disheveled	adj.	/dɪˈhevld/	untidy; in disordered condition	■■■■	He arrived disheveled, papers spilling from his bag.
unruly	adj.	/nɪˈruːli/	disorderly and hard to control	■■■ ■■	The unruly mob ignored every command.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
riotous	adj.	/ˈraɪətəs/	marked by wild disorder	라이어터스	Riotous laughter drowned out the speaker.
discombobulated	adj.	/ˌdɪskəmˈbɒbjəleɪtəd/	confused and disconcerted	디스컴보블레이티드	The detour left the tourists discombobulated.
topsy-turvy	adj.	/ˈtɒpsiˈtʊrvi/	in utter confusion; upside down	토프시터브이	The renovation left the house topsy-turvy.
haphazard	adj.	/ˈhæpəˈhæzəd/	lacking order or plan	해파저드	Their haphazard filing lost half the records.
disjointed	adj.	/dɪsˈdɔɪntɪd/	lacking coherent order	디스조인트	His disjointed account confused the jury.
incoherent	adj.	/ˌɪnkoʊhərənt/	lacking logical order or clarity	인코히어런트	The feverish patient grew incoherent by dawn.
pell-mell	adv.	/ˈpelˌmel/	in disorderly, headlong haste	펠멜	The children rushed pell-mell down the stairs.
helter-skelter	adv.	/ˈheltərˌskeltər/	in disorderly confusion and haste	헬터스켈터	Books were stacked helter-skelter across the desk.
convulse	v.	/kənˈvʌls/	to throw into violent disorder	컨벌스	Strikes convulsed the capital for weeks.
discompose	v.	/ˌdɪskəmˈpoʊz/	to disturb the calm or order of	디스컴포즈	Nothing could discompose her steady manner.
disorient	v.	/dɪsˈɔɪrɪnt/	to cause to lose bearings	디스오리엔트	The smoke disoriented everyone in the corridor.
unsettle	v.	/ˈnʌsetl/	to disturb the order or calm of	언셋틀	The verdict unsettled the entire community.
roil	v.	/rɔɪl/	to stir up; make turbulent	로일	The scandal roiled the placid little town.
addle	v.	/ˈædl/	to confuse or muddle	애들	The noise addled her concentration completely.
fluster	v.	/ˈflʌstər/	to make agitated and confused	플러스터	The sudden question flustered the witness.
jumble	n.	/ˌdʒʌmbəl/	a confused, untidy mixture	잡블	Her drawer held a jumble of cables and keys.
snarl	n.	/snɜːrl/	a confused tangle or jam	스널	A traffic snarl paralyzed downtown for hours.
turbulence	n.	/ˈtɜːrbjələns/	violent, disordered movement	터벌런스	Market turbulence wiped out the morning's gains.
ferment	n.	/ˈfɜːrment/	a state of agitation and unrest	페르먼트	The campus was in political ferment that spring.
entropy	n.	/ˈentrəpi/	gradual decline into disorder	엔트로피	Left untended, the system drifts toward entropy.

SAT 2000 — Day 31 · Permanence & Endurance (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
perpetual	adj.	/pəˈrɪpɪtʃuəl/	never ending or changing	■■■■	The treaty promised perpetual peace between the two crowns.
immutable	adj.	/ˈmjuːtəbəl/	unchanging over time	■■■■	He treated the deadline as an immutable law of nature.
indelible	adj.	/ˈnɪdɪləbəl/	impossible to remove or erase	■■ ■■■	The disaster left an indelible mark on the town's memory.
abiding	adj.	/ˈbaɪdɪŋ/	lasting a long time; enduring	■■■■■	She had an abiding love of the sea from childhood.
perennial	adj.	/pəˈrɪniəl/	lasting or recurring through the years	■■■■■	Traffic is a perennial complaint among commuters.
perdurable	adj.	/pəˈdʊrəbəl/	permanent; very long-lasting	■■■■■	Granite is among the most perdurable of building stones.
everlasting	adj.	/ˈevərɪləstɪŋ/	continuing forever	■■■■	They carved a vow of everlasting friendship into the oak.
enduring	adj.	/ˈnɪdʊrɪŋ/	continuing or surviving long	■■■■■	His enduring reputation outlasted every rival of his era.
durable	adj.	/ˈdʊrəbəl/	able to withstand wear and time	■■■■ ■■	The tent's durable fabric survived three Himalayan seasons.
imperishable	adj.	/ˈɪmˌpɪrɪəbəl/	enduring forever; not subject to decay	■■■■	She believed great art conferred an imperishable kind of fame.
indestructible	adj.	/ˈɪndɪˌstrʌktəbəl/	impossible to destroy	■■■■ ■■■	The vault was advertised as virtually indestructible.
ineradicable	adj.	/ˈɪnɪˌrædɪkəbəl/	unable to be eradicated or rooted out	■■■■ ■■■	Old superstitions proved ineradicable in the village.
ineffaceable	adj.	/ˈɪnɪˌfeɪsəbəl/	incapable of being effaced or erased	■■ ■■■	The trauma left an ineffaceable impression on him.
indissoluble	adj.	/ˈɪndɪˌsɒljəbəl/	unable to be dissolved or broken	■■■■ ■■■	They regarded the marriage bond as indissoluble.
inveterate	adj.	/ˈɪnvətərɪt/	firmly established by long habit	■■ ■■	He was an inveterate gambler who could not stop.
ingrained	adj.	/ˈɪnˌɡreɪnd/	deeply fixed and hard to change	■■ ■	Punctuality was ingrained in her from an early age.
entrenched	adj.	/ˈɛnˌtrɛntɪt/	firmly established and resistant to change	■■■■ ■■■■	The party's entrenched interests blocked every reform.
permanence	n.	/pəˈmɪnəns/	the state of lasting indefinitely	■■■■	Stone lent the monument an air of permanence.
perpetuity	n.	/pəˈpɪtʃuɪti/	the state of continuing forever	■■■	The land was granted to the city in perpetuity.
immutability	n.	/ˈmjuːtəbəlɪti/	the quality of never changing	■■■■	Mathematicians prize the immutability of proven theorems.
constancy	n.	/ˈkɒnstənsi/	steadfast and unchanging quality	■■■■■	Her constancy through hard years never wavered.
stability	n.	/stəˈbɪləti/	the state of being firmly fixed	■■■■	Decades of stability made the currency a haven.
fixity	n.	/ˈfɪksɪti/	the quality of being fixed and stable	■■■■	The fixity of his gaze unsettled the witness.
durability	n.	/dʊrəˈbɪləti/	the ability to last and endure	■■■■	The brand built its name on the durability of its boots.
longevity	n.	/lɒnˈdʒevɪti/	long duration or life	■■, ■■■	The engine's longevity made it a fleet favorite.
perpetuate	v.	/pəˈpɪtʃueɪt/	to make something continue indefinitely	■■■■■	The myth was perpetuated by careless retelling.
persist	v.	/pəˈsɪst/	to continue firmly despite difficulty	■■■■■	The drought persisted well into the autumn.
endure	v.	/ˈnɪdʊr/	to last; to remain in existence	■■■■■	Few empires endure beyond a few centuries.
abide	v.	/ˈbaɪd/	to continue without fading	■■■■■	Their loyalty abided long after the war ended.
subsist	v.	/səˈbɪsɪst/	to remain in existence; continue	■■■■■	The old customs subsist in remote valleys.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
perdure	v.	/pɜːrˈdʊr/	to last permanently; endure	퍼듀어	Certain truths perdure across every generation.
entrench	v.	/ɪnˈtrɛntʃ/	to establish firmly and securely	엔트렌치	The dynasty entrenched its power over two centuries.
ensconce	v.	/ɪnˈskɒns/	to settle firmly and securely	엔스콘스	He ensconced himself in the family business for life.
perpetuation	n.	/pəˈpɛtʃuːeɪʃən/	the act of making something continue	퍼페추이션	The school resisted the perpetuation of outdated rules.
stalwart	adj.	/stɔːlˈwɔːrt/	loyal and unwavering over time	스탈워트	A stalwart supporter, she never missed a meeting in thirty years.
unswerving	adj.	/ʌnˈswɜːrvɪŋ/	not deviating; constant	언스워빙	He showed unswerving devotion to the cause.
immovable	adj.	/ɪˈmuːvəbəl/	incapable of being moved or changed	임모바일	On this point she was immovable.
invariable	adj.	/ɪnˈvəriəbəl/	never changing; constant	인variably	His invariable habit was tea at four o'clock.
perennate	v.	/pəˈrɛneɪt/	to survive from season to season	퍼에너테	The bulbs perennate underground through the frost.
sempiternal	adj.	/sɛmˈpɪtɪrniəl/	eternal and unchanging	셈피터널	The poet sang of love as a sempiternal flame.
perduring	adj.	/pəˈdʊrɪŋ/	continuing permanently; enduring	퍼듀어링	Their perduring rivalry shaped the whole league.
lasting	adj.	/læstɪŋ/	continuing for a long time	라스팅	The summit produced a lasting agreement on trade.
adamantine	adj.	/ədəˈmɛntiən/	unbreakable; utterly firm	아다만틴	She held an adamantine grip on the company's reins.
incessant	adj.	/ɪnˈsɛsənt/	continuing without interruption	인세스انت	The incessant rain lasted the entire month.
ceaseless	adj.	/siːsləs/	constant and without end	세이스리스	The ceaseless hum of the city never let her sleep.
perpetuance	n.	/pəˈpɛtʃuːəns/	continued or perpetual existence	퍼페추언스	They prayed for the perpetuance of the old order. permanency	n.	/pəˈmɛnənsi/	the condition of being permanent	퍼먼언시	The role offered the permanency she had long sought.
irrevocable	adj.	/ɪrɪˈvɒkəbəl/	impossible to undo or reverse	이리브캐블	The decision was final and irrevocable.
indurate	v.	/ɪnˈdjʊreɪt/	to make hard and unyielding	인듀레이트	Years of hardship had indurated his resolve.
perduration	n.	/pəˈdʊrdʒən/	the quality of lasting permanently	퍼듀레이션	The cathedral's perduration through war astonished historians.

SAT 2000 — Day 32 · Transience & Decay (■■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
ephemeral	adj.	/ˈɛfɪmərəl/	lasting a very short time	■■■■	Fame in pop music can be painfully ephemeral.
evanescent	adj.	/ˈvænɪsənt/	quickly fading and vanishing	■■■■■	The evanescent glow of fireflies lit the meadow briefly.
transient	adj.	/ˈtrænzɪənt/	lasting only a short while	■■■■■	Pleasure of that kind is transient and soon forgotten.
fugacious	adj.	/fjuːˈɡeɪʃəs/	fleeting; passing away quickly	■■■■	Youth is fugacious, gone almost before we notice.
putrefy	v.	/ˈpuːtrɪfaɪ/	to rot and decompose	■■■■■	The discarded fish began to putrefy in the heat.
fleeting	adj.	/ˈfliːtɪŋ/	passing swiftly; brief	■■■■■	She caught only a fleeting glimpse of the comet.
transitory	adj.	/ˈtrænzɪtɔːri/	not permanent; temporary	■■■■■	The board dismissed the gains as transitory.
fugitive	adj.	/ˈfjuːdɪtɪv/	fleeting and hard to capture	■■■■	He chased the fugitive scent of jasmine on the breeze.
perishable	adj.	/ˈpɛrɪʃəbəl/	likely to decay or spoil quickly	■ ■■■■	Perishable goods must be refrigerated at once.
momentary	adj.	/ˈmoʊməntəri/	lasting for a moment only	■■■■	A momentary doubt crossed her face, then vanished.
impermanent	adj.	/ɪmˈpɜːrmənt/	not lasting; temporary	■■■■■ ■■	Buddhism teaches that all things are impermanent.
deciduous	adj.	/dɪˈsɪdʊəs/	falling off or shed seasonally	■■■■■	The deciduous trees stood bare by November.
mutable	adj.	/ˈmjuːtəbəl/	liable to change	■■■■ ■■	Public opinion is notoriously mutable.
volatile	adj.	/ˈvɒlətaɪl/	quick to change; fleeting	■■■■■■	The volatile mood of the crowd shifted by the minute.
decadent	adj.	/ˈdekədənt/	in a state of decline or decay	■■■■■	Critics called the empire's final art decadent.
transience	n.	/ˈtrænzɪəns/	the state of lasting only briefly	■■■■	The poem dwells on the transience of summer.
evanescence	n.	/ˈvænɪsəns/	the act of fading from sight	■■■	The evanescence of the dream left her unsettled.
impermanence	n.	/ɪmˈpɜːrməns/	the quality of not lasting	■■■■	Autumn leaves are a study in impermanence.
decay	n.	/dɪˈkeɪ/	gradual decline or rot	■■■, ■■	Neglect hastened the mansion's slow decay.
decrepitude	n.	/dɪˈkreɪtʃuːd/	the state of decay from age or use	■■■	The bridge had fallen into utter decrepitude.
dilapidation	n.	/dɪˈləpɪdeɪʃən/	a state of disrepair and ruin	■■■	Years of neglect left the theater in dilapidation.
putrescence	n.	/puːˈtrɛsəns/	the state of rotting	■■■	A stench of putrescence rose from the marsh.
atrophy	n.	/ˈætrɒfi/	wasting away or decline	■■■, ■■	Muscle atrophy set in after weeks in the cast.
desuetude	n.	/dɪˈsjuːtʃuːd/	a state of disuse and decline	■■■, ■■	The old law fell into desuetude and was never repealed.
obsolescence	n.	/ˈɒbsəˈleɪsəns/	the process of becoming outdated	■■■■	Rapid obsolescence plagues consumer electronics.
degeneration	n.	/dɪˈdʒenəreɪʃən/	a decline to a lower condition	■■■	The novel charts the slow degeneration of a family.
deliquesce	v.	/dɪˈliːkwɪs/	to melt away or dissolve	■■ ■■■■	The salt began to deliquesce in the humid air.
moulder	v.	/ˈmoʊldər/	to decay slowly and crumble	■■■■■	Old manuscripts mouldered in the damp cellar.
wither	v.	/ˈwɪðər/	to dry up and shrivel	■■■■	The flowers withered within a day of the frost.
molder	v.	/ˈmoʊldər/	to crumble through slow decay	■■■■■	The forgotten archives moldered behind locked doors.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
decompose	v.	/ˈdiːkɒmpoʊz/	to break down and rot	■■■■■	Fallen leaves decompose into rich soil.
degenerate	v.	/dɪˈdʒenereɪt/	to decline to a worse state	■■■■■	The debate degenerated into name-calling.
fester	v.	/ˈfɛstər/	to rot; grow worse over time	■■■	Resentment festered in the silent household.
corrode	v.	/kəˈroʊd/	to wear away gradually	■■■■■	Salt air had corroded the railings to lace.
etiolate	v.	/iˈtiəleɪt/	to make pale and weak from lack of light	■■■■■ ■■	The seedlings etiolated in the dim cupboard.
evanesce	v.	/ˈvænɪs/	to fade gradually from sight	■■■■■	The mist evanesced as the sun rose.
vitiate	v.	/ˈviːieɪt/	to spoil or impair the quality of	■■■■■■	One careless error vitiated the entire experiment.
necrotic	adj.	/nəˈkroʊtɪk/	relating to dead, decaying tissue	■■■■	Surgeons removed the necrotic tissue from the wound.
putrid	adj.	/ˈpuːtrɪd/	rotten and foul-smelling	■■■	A putrid odor seeped from the abandoned fridge.
rancid	adj.	/ˈrænsɪd/	stale and rank from decay	■■ ■■	The butter had turned rancid in the warm pantry.
decrepit	adj.	/dɪˈkreɪt/	worn out and ruined by age	■■■■	They lived in a decrepit cottage near the moor.
ramshackle	adj.	/ˈræmʃækəl/	rickety and falling apart	■ ■■■■■	A ramshackle barn leaned against the hill.
dilapidated	adj.	/dɪˈləpɪdeɪtɪd/	fallen into disrepair	■■■■	The dilapidated pier was closed to the public.
effemeral	adj.	/ˈfɛmərəl/	short-lived; lasting one day	■■■■■ ■■	The mayfly lives an effemeral adult life of a single day.
passing	adj.	/ˈpæsɪŋ/	brief and soon over	■■■■	It was only a passing fad among teenagers.
short-lived	adj.	/ˈʃɔːrtlɪvd/	lasting only a brief time	■■■■	The truce proved short-lived and broke by dawn.
caducous	adj.	/kəˈdjuːkəs/	falling away early; transitory	■■ ■■■■	The petals of this poppy are caducous, dropping in a day.
senescent	adj.	/sɪˈnɛsənt/	growing old; deteriorating with age	■■■■■	The senescent cells lost their power to divide.
necrosis	n.	/nəˈkroʊsɪs/	death and decay of body tissue	■■■	Frostbite can lead to necrosis of the fingertips.
ephemerality	n.	/ˈfɛmərəlɪti/	the quality of lasting briefly	■■■■	Photography captures the ephemerality of a single instant.

SAT 2000 — Day 33 · Secrecy & Concealment (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
clandestine	adj.	/klændɪstɪn/	kept secret; done in secrecy	■■■■	They held clandestine meetings in a back-alley cellar.
surreptitious	adj.	/sʊrɪptɪʃəs/	done by stealth to avoid notice	■■■■	He took a surreptitious glance at his notes.
covert	adj.	/koʊvɜrt/	concealed; not openly shown	■■■■	The agency ran a covert operation overseas.
furtive	adj.	/fɜrtɪv/	stealthy and secretive	■■■■	She cast a furtive look over her shoulder.
stealthy	adj.	/stɪlθi/	moving quietly to avoid detection	■■ ■■	With stealthy steps he crossed the dark hall.
cloak	v.	/kloʊk/	to hide or conceal	■■■■	He cloaked his motives behind a show of generosity.
covertness	n.	/koʊvɜrtnəs/	the quality of being concealed	■■■■	The covertness of the deal raised suspicions.
stealth	n.	/stɪlθ/	secret, quiet movement or action	■■■■	The cat hunted with practiced stealth.
secrecy	n.	/sɪkrəsi/	the condition of being kept hidden	■■■	The plans were drafted in total secrecy.
concealment	n.	/kənseɪlmənt/	the act of hiding something	■■■	His concealment of the debts ruined the merger.
obfuscation	n.	/ɒbfʊskeɪʃən/	the act of making unclear to hide	■■■■■	The report was a mass of jargon and obfuscation.
occultation	n.	/ɒkʌlteɪʃən/	the act of hiding from view	■■, ■■	The occultation of the star behind the moon was timed precisely.
circumspection	n.	/sɜrkʌmspɛkʃən/	guarded caution and discretion	■■■■	She handled the rumor with great circumspection.
conceal	v.	/kənseɪl/	to keep from being seen or known	■■■■	He concealed the letter beneath the floorboards.
secrete	v.	/sɪkri:t/	to hide away in a secret place	■■ ■■■	She secreted the jewels inside a hollow book.
camouflage	v.	/kæmfleɪʃ/	to disguise so as to blend in	■■■■■	The soldiers camouflaged the bunker with netting.
mask	v.	/mæsk/	to hide the true nature of	■■■■	A cheerful tone masked her exhaustion.
harbor	v.	/hɑrbər/	to keep or hide secretly	■■■■■	He was accused of harboring a fugitive.
sequester	v.	/sɪkwɛstər/	to set apart and hide away	■■■■■	The jury was sequestered for the trial's duration.
enshroud	v.	/ɪnʃraʊd/	to cover completely and conceal	■■■■ ■■■	Fog enshrouded the harbor and hid every ship.
cache	v.	/kæʃ/	to store secretly in a hidden spot	■■■■■	Smugglers cached the goods in a sea cave.
stash	v.	/stæʃ/	to hide away for later	■■■■■	She stashed the spare key under a loose brick.
suppress	v.	/sɪprɛs/	to keep from being known	■■■■	Officials tried to suppress news of the leak.
skulk	v.	/skʌlk/	to move or lurk stealthily	■■ ■■■	A figure skulked in the shadows of the alley.
lurk	v.	/lɜrk/	to wait hidden and unseen	■■■■■	Danger seemed to lurk behind every door.
covertly	adv.	/koʊvɜrtli/	in a hidden or secret manner	■■■■■	They covertly recorded the whole conversation.
stealthily	adv.	/stɪlθli/	in a quiet, secret way	■■■	He stealthily slipped out the side door.
clandestinely	adv.	/klændɪstɪnli/	in a secret, concealed manner	■■■■	Funds were clandestinely moved offshore.
incognito	adv.	/ɪnkɒɡnɪtoʊ/	with one's identity concealed	■■■■ ■■■	The actor traveled incognito to avoid the press.
underhand	adj.	/ʌndər'hænd/	secret and deceptive	■■■■■ ■■■	They won the contract by underhand means.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
shadowy	adj.	/ˈædəʃi/	obscure and concealed	■■■■, ■■■	A shadowy network financed the operation.
privily	adv.	/ˈprɪvli/	secretly; in private	■■■	He privily warned his friend of the coming raid.
sub-rosa	adj.	/sʊˈbrɒzə/	done in secret; confidential	■■■■	The negotiations were strictly sub-rosa.
hugger-mugger	n.	/ˈhʌɡərˈmʌɡər/	secrecy or concealment	■■, ■■	The deal was done in hugger-mugger, away from reporters.
secretive	adj.	/ˈsiːkrətɪv/	inclined to conceal things	■■■■■	He grew secretive about his weekend whereabouts.
sequestration	n.	/ˈsiːkwəstreɪʃən/	the act of hiding away in seclusion	■■, ■■	The sequestration of the documents delayed the inquiry.
screen	v.	/skriːn/	to shield from view or notice	■■ ■■■	A hedge screened the garden from the road.
cloistered	adj.	/ˈklɒstəd/	kept secluded and hidden away	■■■	She led a cloistered life far from public view.
clandestinity	n.	/ˈklændəstɪnɪti/	the state of being secret	■■■	The movement operated in deep clandestinity.
muffle	v.	/ˈmʌfəl/	to wrap up so as to conceal or deaden	■■ ■■■	He muffled the alarm and slipped away unseen.
palliate	v.	/ˈpæliət/	to disguise the seriousness of	■■■ ■■■	Officials tried to palliate the scandal with vague denials.
incognizable	adj.	/ˈnɒkənəzəbəl/	incapable of being known or perceived	■ ■ ■■	The cult kept its rites incognizable to outsiders.
crypsis	n.	/ˈkrɪpsɪs/	the state of being concealed or hidden	■■, ■■	The insect's crypsis rendered it invisible against the bark.
abscond	v.	/ˈbɪskʌnd/	to depart secretly and hide	■■ ■■■■	The treasurer absconded with the funds before dawn.
obnubilate	v.	/ˈɒnjuˌbɪleɪt/	to obscure or darken; conceal	■■■ ■■, ■■■	Bureaucratic jargon seemed designed to obnubilate the truth.
secretiveness	n.	/ˈsiːkrətɪvnɪs/	the disposition to conceal	■■■■	Her secretiveness about the project bred suspicion.
clandestineness	n.	/klændəstɪnɪs/	the quality of being secret and hidden	■■■	The deal's clandestineness only deepened public distrust.
huggermuggery	n.	/ˈhʌɡərˈmʌɡəri/	secrecy and concealment; muddle	■■■, ■■■	The whole affair was conducted in needless hugger-muggery.
sequestered	adj.	/sɪˈkwɛstəd/	hidden away; secluded	■■■, ■■	They hid the documents in a sequestered vault.
veiled	adj.	/veɪld/	concealed; not openly shown	■■■, ■■■	His apology carried a veiled threat.

SAT 2000 — Day 34 · Disclosure & Openness (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
divulge	v.	/dɪvʊld/	to make known; reveal	■■■■	She refused to divulge her source to the court.
promulgate	v.	/prɒmləeɪt/	to make widely known; proclaim	■■■■	The council promulgated the new statute at dawn.
unveil	v.	/nveɪl/	to reveal or disclose publicly	■■■■	The company unveiled its prototype at the expo.
overt	adj.	/oʊvɔrt/	done openly; not concealed	■■■■	There was overt hostility between the rivals.
evince	v.	/vɪns/	to show or reveal clearly	■■■■	The data evinced a clear upward trend.
disclose	v.	/dɪskloʒ/	to make secret information known	■■■	He was required to disclose all his holdings.
reveal	v.	/rɪviəl/	to make known what was hidden	■■■■	The audit revealed years of quiet fraud.
disseminate	v.	/dɪsɪmneɪt/	to spread information widely	■■■■	Pamphlets disseminated the findings across the city.
promulgation	n.	/prɒmləeɪʃn/	the formal act of proclaiming	■■	The promulgation of the decree sparked protests.
disclosure	n.	/dɪskloʊər/	the act of revealing information	■■, ■■	Full disclosure of the risks was legally required.
divulgence	n.	/dɪvʊldʒns/	the act of revealing a secret	■■	The divulgence of the memo embarrassed the board.
revelation	n.	/rɪvəleɪʃn/	a surprising disclosed fact	■■	The revelation stunned everyone at the table.
exposure	n.	/kəspoʊər/	the revealing of something hidden	■■, ■■	The exposure of the cover-up ended his career.
transparency	n.	/trænsˌpærnsi/	openness in conduct or dealings	■■■	Voters demanded greater transparency from the agency.
publicity	n.	/pʌblɪsɪti/	public attention or exposure	■■, ■■	The trial drew unwelcome publicity to the firm.
manifestation	n.	/mænɪfɛsteɪʃn/	a clear sign or display	■■	The rash was a manifestation of the allergy.
promulgator	n.	/prɒmləeɪtər/	one who proclaims publicly	■■■	He became the chief promulgator of the new creed.
expose	v.	/kəspoʒ/	to reveal something concealed	■■■■	The journalist exposed the bribery scheme.
unmask	v.	/nmask/	to reveal the true nature of	■■■ ■■■	The detective unmasked the impostor at dinner.
uncover	v.	/nkʌvər/	to reveal or discover	■■■■	Researchers uncovered a long-buried error.
unearth	v.	/nɔrθ/	to bring to light from hiding	■■■■	The probe unearthed a trove of secret files.
bare	v.	/bər/	to uncover and expose to view	■■■■	He bared his true feelings in the letter.
broadcast	v.	/brɔdkæst/	to make widely known	■■ ■■■	She broadcast the news to the whole office.
proclaim	v.	/prɔkleɪm/	to announce officially and publicly	■■■■	The king proclaimed a day of celebration.
promulge	v.	/prɔmld/	to publish or proclaim openly	■■■■	The edict was promulgated throughout the realm.
publish	v.	/pʌblɪʃ/	to make publicly known	■■■■	The names of the winners were published at noon.
ventilate	v.	/vɪntɪleɪt/	to expose to public discussion	■■■■■	The forum let residents ventilate their grievances.
manifestly	adv.	/mænɪfɛstli/	in a clear, obvious manner	■■■	The claim was manifestly false.
overtly	adv.	/oʊvɔrtli/	in an open, undisguised way	■■■■	He overtly defied the committee's ruling.
avowed	adj.	/vəʊd/	openly declared or admitted	■■■	He was an avowed opponent of the merger.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
barefaced	adj.	/bʰeɪfʰeɪst/	shamelessly open and undisguised	■■■■■	It was a barefaced lie told without blushing.
flagrant	adj.	/fleɪgrənt/	openly and obviously offensive	■■■■	The ruling was a flagrant breach of the treaty.
blatant	adj.	/bleɪtənt/	completely obvious and unconcealed	■■■■	His blatant favoritism angered the staff.
overtness	n.	/oʊvərtnəs/	the quality of being open and plain	■■■■	The overtness of the bribe shocked observers.
profess	v.	/prɒfɛs/	to declare openly	■■■■	He professed his innocence to the crowd.
publicize	v.	/pʌblɪsaɪz/	to bring to public notice	■■■■	Activists publicized the factory's violations.
promulgated	adj.	/prɒmʌleɪtɪd/	made publicly and officially known	■■■	The newly promulgated rules took effect at once.
manifesting	v.	/mænɪfɛstɪŋ/	showing or displaying plainly	■■■■	The system kept manifesting the same fault.
betray	v.	/bɪtreɪ/	to reveal unintentionally	■■■ ■■■■	Her trembling voice betrayed her fear.
vent	v.	/vɛnt/	to give open expression to	■■■	He vented his frustrations to a sympathetic friend.
manifestative	adj.	/mænɪfɛstətɪv/	serving to reveal or make plain	■■■■	Her actions were manifestative of deep loyalty.
apparent	adj.	/pəˈrɛnt/	clearly visible or understood	■■■	It soon became apparent that the plan had failed.
candidness	n.	/kændɪdnəs/	frank openness; willingness to disclose	■■■, ■■■	His candidness about the failure won over the board.
elucidation	n.	/luːsɪdeɪʃən/	the act of making openly clear	■■, ■■■ ■■	Her elucidation of the policy left no clause in shadow.
enunciate	v.	/ɪnʌnsieɪt/	to state or announce openly	■■■■, ■■■ ■■■	The committee enunciated its findings in plain language.
unconcealed	adj.	/ʌnkənseɪld/	openly shown; not hidden	■■■ ■■	She watched the results with unconcealed delight.
patency	n.	/peɪtənsi/	the state of being open and evident	■■■, ■■■	The patency of the corruption shocked even cynics.
unbosom	v.	/ʌnbɒzəm/	to reveal one's thoughts or feelings freely	■■■■ ■■■■	Late at night she finally unbosomed her worries to a friend.
openheartedness	n.	/oʊpənheɪrtɪdnəs/	frank, unreserved openness	■■■, ■■	His openheartedness disarmed even his harshest critics.
outspokenness	n.	/aʊtspoʊkɪnəs/	the quality of speaking frankly and openly	■■■■, ■■■	Her outspokenness at the hearing made headlines.

SAT 2000 — Day 35 · Pride & Arrogance (■■■-■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
hubris	n.	/hjuˈbrɪs/	excessive pride inviting downfall	■■■	His hubris led him to ignore every warning until the company collapsed.
haughty	adj.	/hæʊti/	arrogantly superior and disdainful	■■■■	She gave a haughty toss of her head and swept past the waiting clerks.
imperious	adj.	/ɪmˈpɪəriəs/	domineering and overbearing	■■■■■	With an imperious wave he silenced the entire boardroom.
insolent	adj.	/ɪnsələnt/	rudely disrespectful and arrogant	■■■■	The insolent recruit smirked while the sergeant was speaking.
vainglory	n.	/veɪnˈɡlɔːri/	boastful, excessive vanity	■■■■	The monument was less a tribute than an act of pure vainglory.
hauteur	n.	/ˈtɔːtər/	haughty arrogance of manner	■■■■	The duchess received her guests with chilling hauteur.
arrogate	v.	/ˈærəʒeɪt/	to claim presumptuously without right	■■■■■	The committee arrogated to itself powers never granted by the charter.
presumptuous	adj.	/prɪˈzʌmptʃuəs/	overstepping proper bounds; too forward	■■■■■	It would be presumptuous of me to advise an expert in her own field.
snobbish	adj.	/snɒbɪʃ/	haughtily looking down on inferiors	■■■■■	His snobbish remarks about their accents offended everyone.
disdainful	adj.	/dɪsˈdeɪnfʊl/	showing scornful superiority	■■■■■	He cast a disdainful glance at the cheap upholstery.
conceited	adj.	/kənˈsiːtɪd/	excessively proud of oneself	■■■■■	Too conceited to rehearse, the actor fumbled his opening lines.
egotistical	adj.	/iˈɡɒtɪkəl/	excessively self-centered and conceited	■■■■■■■	His egotistical speeches always circled back to his own triumphs.
pompous	adj.	/ˈpɒmpəs/	self-important and grandiose	■■■■	The pompous official lectured the crowd on his many qualifications.
pretentious	adj.	/prɪˈtenʃəs/	claiming unwarranted importance	■■ ■■■■	The menu's pretentious descriptions could not disguise mediocre food.
bumptious	adj.	/ˈbʌmpɪəs/	offensively self-assertive	■■■■	The bumptious intern kept interrupting the senior partners.
swaggering	adj.	/ˈswæɡərɪŋ/	strutting with arrogant bravado	■■■■■	He entered with a swaggering gait, certain of his welcome.
braggadocio	n.	/ˈbræɡəˈdɒʃiə/	empty boasting; swaggering bravado	■■■	Behind all the braggadocio lay a deeply insecure man.
magisterial	adj.	/ˈmædɪˈstriəl/	domineeringly authoritative	■■■■■	She dismissed the objection with a magisterial wave of the hand.
highfalutin	adj.	/ˈhaɪfəluːtɪn/	pompous; absurdly pretentious	■■■■ ■■■■	Drop the highfalutin jargon and tell us plainly what happened.
self-aggrandizing	adj.	/ˈself ˌæɡrændəˈzɪŋ/	acting to increase one's own importance	■■■■■■■	The memoir was a self-aggrandizing account of borrowed achievements.
narcissistic	adj.	/ˈnɑːsɪsˈtɪk/	excessively self-admiring	■■■■■■■	His narcissistic need for praise exhausted everyone around him.
condescending	adj.	/kənˈdɛnsendɪŋ/	patronizingly superior	■■■■■	She thanked them in a condescending tone, as if to children.
patronizing	adj.	/ˈpætrəˈnaɪzɪŋ/	treating others as inferiors	■■ ■■■■	His patronizing praise only deepened her resentment.
lordly	adj.	/ˈlɔːdli/	haughty; grandly imperious	■■■■	He waved away the petition with lordly indifference.
cavalier	adj.	/ˈkævəlɪər/	arrogantly dismissive of others' concerns	■■■■	Her cavalier attitude toward safety alarmed the inspectors.
swelled-headed	adj.	/ˈsweld ˌhedɪd/	conceited from success	■■■■■	One good review left the young writer hopelessly swelled-headed.
self-important	adj.	/ˈself ɪmˈpɔːtnt/	exaggerating one's own significance	■■■■■	The self-important clerk insisted everyone address him by title.
overbearing	adj.	/ˈoʊvərˈbeərɪŋ/	domineering; arrogantly oppressive	■■■■■	His overbearing manner left no room for anyone else's opinion.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
insufferable	adj.	/ɪnˈsʌfərəbəl/	unbearably arrogant or conceited	■■■ ■■	Success made him insufferable at every dinner party.
swollen	adj.	/ˈswɒləʊn/	inflated with self-importance	■■■	He was swollen with pride after the promotion. chauvinistic	adj.	/ˌʃəʊvɪˈnɪstɪk/	arrogantly partisan about one's group	■■■■	His chauvinistic boasts about his nation grew tiresome.
egocentric	adj.	/ˌiːɡəˈsentrɪk/	viewing everything in relation to oneself	■■■■■■	Her egocentric worldview left little patience for others' troubles.
orotund	adj.	/ˈɒrətʊnd/	pompous and bombastic in expression	■■■	His orotund proclamations impressed no one but himself.
presumption	n.	/prɪˈzʌmpʃən/	arrogant overstepping of bounds	■■■■	It was sheer presumption to lecture the surgeon on her craft.
effrontery	n.	/ˈɛfrɒntəri/	shameless, insolent boldness	■■■	He had the effrontery to demand a refund after breaking the device himself.
chutzpah	n.	/ˈxʌtspə/	brazen nerve; shameless audacity	■■■	It took real chutzpah to ask his rival for a recommendation.
superciliousness	n.	/ˈsuːpəˈsɪliːsnəs/	haughty contempt	■■■	His superciliousness toward newcomers poisoned the office mood.
loftiness	n.	/ˈlɒftɪnəs/	haughty aloofness	■■■	There was a chilly loftiness in the way she answered questions.
imperiousness	n.	/ˈmɪpəˈriːsnəs/	domineering arrogance	■■■ ■■	His imperiousness made collaboration nearly impossible.
arrant	adj.	/ˈærənt/	utter; thoroughgoing (in arrogance)	■■■	His claim of expertise was arrant nonsense.
swaggerer	n.	/ˈswæˌɡər/	one who struts arrogantly	■■■■ ■■	The tavern's resident swaggerer challenged every newcomer.
hubristic	adj.	/hjuˈbrɪstɪk/	marked by excessive pride	■■■	His hubristic refusal to test the design proved disastrous.
high-handed	adj.	/ˈhaɪ ˈhændɪd/	using power arrogantly; overbearing	■■■■	The board's high-handed decision ignored every staff objection.
self-satisfied	adj.	/ˈself ˈsætɪsfaɪd/	smugly pleased with oneself	■■■■■■	He wore a self-satisfied smirk throughout the ceremony.
smug	adj.	/smʌɡ/	complacently and irritatingly self-assured	■■■	Her smug certainty grated on the whole committee.
vainglorious	adj.	/ˈveɪnəˈlɔːrɪəs/	boastfully and excessively vain	■■■ ■■	The general's vainglorious memoirs inflated every minor skirmish.
jumped-up	adj.	/ˈdʌmpt ʊp/	conceited beyond one's true status	■■■	The villagers resented the jumped-up clerk's airs.
fastuous	adj.	/ˈfæstjuəs/	haughty; ostentatiously proud	■■■, ■■■■	His fastuous airs grated on everyone at the reception.
supercilial	adj.	/ˈsuːpəˈrɪsɪliəl/	disdainfully superior in manner	■■■ ■■■	She dismissed the idea with a supercilial wave of the hand.
morgue	n.	/mɔːɡ/	haughty, aloof self-importance	■■■ ■■	The aristocrat received his guests with chilly morgue.

SAT 2000 — Day 36 · Humility & Modesty (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
unassuming	adj.	/■n■sju■m■/	modest; not boastful or pretentious	■■■	Despite his fame, he remained quiet and unassuming.
demure	adj.	/d■m■j■/	reserved, modest, and shy	■■■	She gave a demure smile and lowered her eyes.
self-effacing	adj.	/■self ■fe■s■/	modestly avoiding attention to oneself	■■■ ■■■■ ■■	His self-effacing humor deflected every compliment.
unpretentious	adj.	/■npr■ten■s■/	plain and modest; without affectation	■■■■	The chef's unpretentious cooking won quiet devotion.
abase	v.	/■be■s■/	to humble or degrade oneself	■■■	He refused to abase himself before the tyrant for a favor.
humble	adj.	/■h■mb■l■/	modest about one's importance	■■■	She gave a humble reply, crediting her teachers.
modest	adj.	/■m■d■st■/	unassuming about one's achievements	■■■	He was modest about a discovery that reshaped the field.
submissive	adj.	/s■b■m■s■v■/	yielding meekly to authority	■■■■	Her submissive nod ended the dispute at once.
humility	n.	/hju■m■l■ti■/	a modest view of one's importance	■■	True humility let her accept criticism without defensiveness.
modesty	n.	/■m■d■sti■/	freedom from vanity or boastfulness	■■	His modesty concealed an extraordinary record of service.
meekness	n.	/■mi■kn■s■/	gentle, humble submissiveness	■■■	Her meekness was mistaken, wrongly, for weakness.
lowliness	n.	/l■l■lin■s■/	humble, modest condition or bearing	■■■	He spoke of his origins with disarming lowliness.
abasement	n.	/■be■sm■nt■/	humiliation; self-degradation	■■	He endured public abasement rather than betray his friends.
humble oneself	v.	/■h■mb■l w■n■self■/	to lower one's own pride	■■■ ■■■	She humbled herself and apologized first.
abash	v.	/■bæ■/	to make ashamed or embarrassed	■■■■ ■■	He was abashed to find his mistake corrected in public.
chasten	v.	/t■e■s■n■/	to humble through correction	■■■■	The defeat chastened the once-boastful team.
humbled	adj.	/■h■mb■ld■/	made modest or deflated in pride	■■■■	Humbled by the loss, he stopped boasting altogether.
unobtrusive	adj.	/■n■b■tru■s■v■/	not conspicuous; modestly inconspicuous	■■ ■■ ■■	Her unobtrusive kindness asked for no recognition.
reticent	adj.	/ret■s■nt■/	reserved; reluctant to draw attention	■■■	He was reticent about his many quiet charities.
self-deprecating	adj.	/■self ■depr■ke■t■/	modestly belittling oneself	■■■ ■■■	Her self-deprecating jokes put the nervous guests at ease.
obesant	adj.	/■■be■s■nt■/	showing deferential, humble respect	■■■	The courtiers stood obesant before the visiting envoy.
subservient	adj.	/s■b■s■vi■nt■/	excessively submissive and compliant	■■■■■	His subservient manner irritated colleagues who wanted candor.
deference	n.	/def■r■ns■/	humble respect for another's view	■■	Out of deference to his mentor, she revised the proposal.
humbleness	n.	/■h■mb■ln■s■/	the quality of being humble	■■■	His quiet humbleness endeared him to colleagues.
prostrate	v.	/pr■s■tre■t■/	to lie face down in submission	■■■■	The pilgrims prostrated themselves before the shrine.
abase oneself	v.	/■be■s w■n■self■/	to lower oneself in humble submission	■■■■ ■■	He would not abase himself merely to flatter the panel.
defer	v.	/d■f■f■/	to yield humbly to another	■■■	On technical matters he wisely deferred to the engineers.
unpretending	adj.	/■npr■tend■/	making no pretensions; modest	■■■■	His unpretending manner concealed real brilliance.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
unostentatious	adj.	/ˌʊnˈstɛntɪˈeɪs/	not showy; quietly modest	■■■■	Their unostentatious home reflected their plain tastes.
abnegate	v.	/ˈæbnɪˈeɪt/	to renounce or deny oneself	■■■■■	The monk abnegated all claim to personal property.
self-abnegation	n.	/ˈself ˌæbnɪˈeɪʃən/	selfless denial of one's own interests	■■■■■	Her years of self-abnegation supported the entire household.
unpresuming	adj.	/ˌʊnpriˈzjuːm/	not presumptuous; modest	■■■■	He was unpresuming about authority he could have claimed.
deprecatory	adj.	/ˈdeɪprɪˈkɛtəri/	apologetically self-belittling	■■■■■	With a deprecatory shrug he downplayed his role.
compliant	adj.	/kəmˈplaɪənt/	meekly willing to obey	■■■■■	He remained compliant, never pressing his own claims.
abashed	adj.	/ˈbæʃt/	embarrassed and humbled	■■■■■■■	Abashed by the applause, she hurried offstage.
unaffected	adj.	/ˌʊnəˈfektɪd/	genuine and without pretense	■■■■■	His unaffected courtesy charmed the visiting dignitaries.
humbling	adj.	/ˈhʌmblɪŋ/	causing one to feel modest	■■■■■ ■■	Meeting his heroes was a humbling experience.
low-key	adj.	/ˈloʊ ˈki/	restrained; not showy	■■■■	He kept his retirement celebration deliberately low-key.
abjure	v.	/əˈbɜːdʒ/	to renounce solemnly	■■■■■	He abjured all claim to the title he had inherited.
unflashy	adj.	/ˌʊnˈflæʃi/	not ostentatious; understated	■■■■■ ■■	Her unflashy competence earned steady, quiet respect.
self-effacement	n.	/ˈself ˌɛfəsˈmɛnt/	modest withdrawal from attention	■■ ■■	His habitual self-effacement hid years of real achievement.
discreet	adj.	/dɪˈskriːt/	modestly unobtrusive and tactful	■■■■	She offered discreet help without ever taking credit.
pudency	n.	/ˈpjuːdənsi/	modesty; bashful reserve	■■■■, ■■	Her pudency kept her from claiming the credit she deserved.
verecund	adj.	/ˈvɛrɪˈkʌnd/	bashful; modest	■■■■■■■	The verecund scholar blushed at the standing ovation.
self-abasement	n.	/ˈsɛlf ˌəbeɪsˈmɛnt/	the act of humbling oneself	■■ ■■	His apology bordered on self-abasement.
lowly	adj.	/ˈloʊli/	humble in rank or manner	■■■■, ■■■■	He never forgot his lowly beginnings as a stock clerk.
unboastful	adj.	/ˌʊnbəʊˈstfʊl/	not given to bragging; modest	■■ ■■■■ ■■	Despite his fame he stayed quietly unboastful.
abjectness	n.	/ˈæbdʒɛktnɪs/	utter humility or self-abasement	■■■■, ■■■■	He begged with an abjectness that embarrassed onlookers.
obsequiousness	n.	/əˈbiːsɪkwɪʃnɪs/	excessive, fawning humility	■■■, ■■■■ ■■	The clerk's obsequiousness toward the manager was painful to watch.
self-deprecation	n.	/ˈsɛlf ˌdɛprɪˈkeɪʃən/	the act of belittling oneself modestly	■■ ■■, ■■	Her gentle self-deprecation made the praise easier to bear.

SAT 2000 — Day 37 · Conflict & Strife (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
contention	n.	/kɒnˈtenʃn/	heated dispute or rivalry	■■■	The inheritance became a source of endless contention.
schism	n.	/skɪzəm/	a deep split within a group	■■■	A doctrinal schism divided the congregation.
altercation	n.	/ˈɒltəˈkeɪʃn/	a noisy, angry dispute	■■■	A heated altercation broke out over the disputed call.
dissension	n.	/dɪˈsenʃn/	disagreement that breeds discord	■■ ■■	Dissension over strategy paralyzed the committee.
fray	n.	/freɪ/	a noisy fight or brawl	■■■	He waded into the fray to separate the combatants.
friction	n.	/ˈfrɪkʃn/	conflict arising from clashing views	■■■	Constant friction between departments slowed every project.
squabble	n.	/ˈskwɒl/	a petty, noisy quarrel	■■■■■	The meeting collapsed into a squabble over seating.
skirmish	n.	/ˈskɪʃm/	a brief, minor clash	■■■ ■■	A border skirmish threatened to escalate into war.
strident	adj.	/ˈstraɪdnt/	harshly aggressive in tone	■■ ■■■■	Her strident objections drowned out calmer voices. divisive	adj.	/dɪˈvaɪsɪv/	causing disagreement and division	■■■ ■■■■	The divisive policy split the town in two.
sectarian	adj.	/sekˈteəriən/	of rigid factional division	■■■■■	Sectarian violence engulfed the divided city.
discordant	adj.	/dɪsˈkɔːdnt/	clashing; lacking harmony	■■■■■	Discordant voices rose at every council meeting.
polemical	adj.	/pəˈlemɪkəl/	strongly disputatious and attacking	■■■■■	His polemical essay attacked the orthodoxy head-on.
embattled	adj.	/ɪmˈbætld/	beset by conflict or attack	■■■■	The embattled mayor faced calls to resign.
insurrection	n.	/ɪnsˈrekʃn/	a violent uprising against authority	■■■	The failed insurrection was crushed within days.
strife-torn	adj.	/ˈstraɪf tɔːn/	ravaged by conflict	■■■■ ■■	Aid trickled slowly into the strife-torn province.
discordance	n.	/dɪsˈkɔːdns/	a state of conflict or disagreement	■■■■	Deep discordance over values doomed the alliance.
contretemps	n.	/ˈkɒntrɪtɒn/	an awkward clash or mishap	■■■	A minor contretemps over precedence delayed the banquet.
discomfit	v.	/dɪsˈkɒmfɪt/	to thwart and unsettle in conflict	■■■■■	The ambush discomfited the advancing column.
strive	v.	/straɪv/	to struggle or contend vigorously	■■■■■	They strove against impossible odds to hold the line.
litigious	adj.	/lɪˈtɪdʒəs/	prone to engage in lawsuits	■■■ ■■■■	The litigious tycoon sued at the slightest provocation.
recriminate	v.	/rɪˈkrɪmɪneɪt/	to counter-accuse in a quarrel	■■■■■	Instead of cooperating, the partners began to recriminate.
agonistic	adj.	/əˈɡɒnɪstɪk/	combative; eager to contend	■■■■■	His agonistic temperament thrived on debate.
warring	adj.	/ˈwɒrɪŋ/	engaged in conflict; opposing	■■ ■■	The warring factions refused to share a table.
flashpoint	n.	/ˈflæʃpɒɪnt/	a point where conflict erupts	■■■■	The disputed border became a dangerous flashpoint.
disputation	n.	/dɪˈspjuːteɪʃn/	formal argument or debate	■■■	The scholars met for a heated disputation on the text.
strife-ridden	adj.	/ˈstraɪf rɪdnt/	plagued by ongoing conflict	■■■ ■■■	He inherited a strife-ridden department in open revolt.
contentiousness	n.	/kɒnˈtɛnʃnəs/	a tendency to argue or quarrel	■■■ ■■■	His contentiousness turned every meeting into a battle.
fractiousness	n.	/ˈfrækʃnəs/	a tendency to quarrel	■■■ ■■■	The team's fractiousness sabotaged every joint effort.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
disputatiousness	n.	/ˈdɪspjuːteɪʃnəs/	an inclination to dispute or wrangle	■■■■	Her disputatiousness wore down even patient colleagues.
feuding	n.	/ˈfjuːdɪŋ/	prolonged bitter quarreling between parties	■■, ■■	Decades of feuding left both families exhausted.
scuffle	n.	/ˈskʌfl/	a confused, brief struggle or fight	■■■, ■■■	A scuffle erupted near the entrance as the doors opened.
donnybrook	n.	/ˈdɒnɪbrʊk/	a free-for-all brawl or dispute	■■■ ■■	The town meeting devolved into a shouting donnybrook.
embroilment	n.	/ˈmɛbrɔɪlmɛnt/	involvement in conflict or trouble	■■■ ■■■	His careless remark led to a needless embroilment with the press.
wrangling	n.	/ˈræŋɡlɪŋ/	prolonged angry dispute	■■■■, ■■	Months of wrangling delayed the treaty's signing.
bickering	n.	/ˈbɪkərɪŋ/	petty, persistent quarreling	■■■	Their constant bickering exhausted the mediator.
internecineness	n.	/ˈɪntərniːʃɪnəs/	mutually destructive conflict	■■■ ■■	The party's internecineness handed victory to its rivals.
agon	n.	/ˈæɡən/	conflict or struggle, especially dramatic	■■, ■■	The play's central agon pits brother against brother.
broil	n.	/brɔɪl/	a noisy quarrel or tumult	■■, ■■	He was drawn into a border broil he never wanted.
tussle	n.	/ˈtʌsl/	a vigorous struggle or scuffle	■■■, ■■	A brief tussle over the microphone halted the rally.
affray	n.	/ˈɛfreɪ/	a public fight disturbing the peace	■■, ■■	Several bystanders were injured in the affray.
embattlement	n.	/ˈɛmbætlmɛnt/	the state of being engaged in conflict	■■ ■■	Years of embattlement had worn the negotiators thin.
logomachy	n.	/ləˈɡɒmki/	a dispute over words	■■■, ■■	Their debate dissolved into pointless logomachy.
frondeur	n.	/frɒndɜːr/	a rebel or political agitator	■■■, ■■■	The young frondeur railed against every official decree.
seditious	adj.	/sɪˈdɪʃəs/	inciting rebellion against authority	■■■■	The pamphlet's seditious tone alarmed the governor.
factional	adj.	/ˈfækʃənəl/	marked by infighting between groups	■■■	Factional feuds paralyzed the assembly for years.
scrappy	adj.	/ˈskræpi/	quarrelsome; eager to fight	■■■ ■■■■	The scrappy challenger refused to back down.
altercative	adj.	/ˈɒltərkeɪtɪv/	given to angry disputes	■■■ ■■■■	His altercative streak made committee work a trial.
fisticuffs	n.	/ˈfɪstɪkʌfs/	fighting with the fists; a brawl	■■■■	The argument nearly came to fisticuffs in the lobby.
obstreperousness	n.	/ˈɒbstreːpərəsnəs/	noisy, unruly defiance	■■■■ ■■	The crowd's obstreperousness forced the speaker offstage.

SAT 2000 — Day 38 · Peace & Reconciliation (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
propitiate	v.	/prɒˈpiːtɪt/	to appease and regain favor	■■■■ ■■■■	Offerings were made to propitiate the angry gods.
appeasement	n.	/ˈpiːzmənt/	pacification by concession	■■■	Critics denounced the policy of appeasement as weakness.
detente	n.	/deˈtɑːnt/	easing of strained relations	■■■ ■■	A fragile detente held between the two powers.
armistice	n.	/ˈɑːrmɪstɪs/	an agreed truce in fighting	■■■	The armistice silenced the guns at last.
truce	n.	/truːs/	a temporary halt to conflict	■■■	Both sides honored the fragile truce.
conciliatory	adj.	/kənˈsɪliˈeɪtəri/	intended to placate or reconcile	■■■■■	His conciliatory speech eased months of tension.
irenic	adj.	/aɪˈriːnɪk/	promoting peace; conciliatory	■■■■■	His irenic temperament made him an ideal mediator.
tranquil	adj.	/ˈtrækwɪl/	calm, peaceful, and untroubled	■■■■	A tranquil silence settled over the valley.
serene	adj.	/səˈriːn/	calm, peaceful, and untroubled	■■■■	She faced the verdict with serene composure.
propitiatory	adj.	/prɒˈpiːiˈeɪtəri/	intended to appease or conciliate	■■■■	He sent a propitiatory gift to mend the quarrel.
placability	n.	/ˈplækəbɪlɪti/	readiness to be appeased	■■■■	His placability made grudges impossible to sustain.
mollification	n.	/məˈlɪfɪkeɪʃən/	the act of soothing anger	■■■	The gesture of mollification finally calmed the crowd.
propitiation	n.	/prɒˈpiːiˈeɪʃən/	the act of appeasing or atoning	■■■	The ritual was a propitiation of offended spirits.
conciliation	n.	/kənˈsɪliˈeɪʃən/	the act of reconciling parties	■■■	The dispute went to conciliation rather than court.
rapprocher	v.	/rəˈprɒʃeɪ/	to bring into closer relations	■■■■■ ■■	Quiet diplomacy began to rapprocher the estranged states.
defuse	v.	/diˈfjuːz/	to reduce tension in a situation	■■■■■	A timely joke helped defuse the standoff.
reconcilable	adj.	/ˈrekənˈsaɪləbəl/	capable of being harmonized	■■ ■■■■	Their differences proved reconcilable after all.
placation	n.	/pləˈkeɪʃən/	the act of appeasing anger	■■■	No amount of placation could soothe his wounded pride.
mediate	v.	/ˈmiːdieɪt/	to settle a dispute as go-between	■■■■■	A neutral envoy was asked to mediate the conflict.
arbitrate	v.	/ˈɑːbɪˈtreɪt/	to judge and settle a dispute	■■■■■	A panel was appointed to arbitrate the wage dispute.
pacification	n.	/ˈpæsɪfɪkeɪʃən/	the act of restoring peace	■■■	The general's pacification of the province took a year.
conciliator	n.	/kənˈsɪliˈeɪtər/	one who reconciles opposing sides	■■■■	As a trusted conciliator, she brought enemies to terms.
quiescent	adj.	/kwiˈesənt/	in a state of quiet repose	■■■■	The long-quiescent feud quietly faded away.
tranquillize	v.	/ˈtrækwɪˈlaɪz/	to make calm or peaceful	■■■■■	Soft music seemed to tranquillize the restless ward.
concordat	n.	/kənˈkɔːdət/	a formal peace agreement	■■■	The concordat settled a century-old territorial dispute.
reconciler	n.	/ˈrekənˈsaɪlər/	one who restores harmony	■■■■■ ■■	He was known as a patient reconciler of bitter rivals.
pacificatory	adj.	/pəˈsɪfɪkətɪəri/	tending to make peace; conciliatory	■■■■■	The envoy's pacificatory mission averted open war.
tranquillity	n.	/trækwɪˈlɪti/	a state of calm and peace	■■■, ■■	A deep tranquillity settled over the monastery at dusk.
quietism	n.	/ˈkwaɪtɪzəm/	calm acceptance; passive tranquility	■■■■■, ■■	His quietism in the dispute let tempers cool on their own.
restfulness	n.	/ˈrɛstfʊlnəs/	a quality of calm repose	■■■■, ■■■■	The garden's restfulness drew weary visitors all summer.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
composedness	n.	/kəmˈpoʊzdnəs/	calm self-possession; serenity	■■■■, ■■■	Her composedness during the crisis steadied everyone around her.
propitiable	adj.	/prɒˈpiːiəbəl/	able to be appeased or won over	■■ ■■■	The committee proved propitiable once the data was shared.
irenicist	n.	/aɪrənɪsɪst/	one who promotes peace and reconciliation	■■■■■	A lifelong irenicist, she brokered truces between bitter rivals.
peaceableness	n.	/ˈpiːsəbəlness/	a peaceable, non-quarrelsome disposition	■■■■, ■■■	The village was known for its stubborn peaceableness.
gentleness	n.	/ˈdʒɛntəlness/	mildness; a calm, kindly manner	■■■■, ■■■■	He disarmed the dispute with unexpected gentleness.
lenity	n.	/ˈlɛnɪti/	mildness; merciful gentleness	■■■■, ■■■	The judge showed unusual lenity toward the young offender.
mildness	n.	/ˈmaɪldnəs/	gentleness of temper or manner	■■■■, ■■■	His mildness in the face of insults shamed his accusers.
appeasable	adj.	/ˈpiːzəbəl/	capable of being calmed	■■ ■■■	The crowd proved appeasable once the lights came back on.
amicableness	n.	/ˈæmɪkəbəlness/	friendly peaceableness	■■■■	The settlement's amicableness surprised the lawyers.
reconcilement	n.	/rɪˈkɒnsaɪlmənt/	the restoring of friendly relations	■■■	Their reconcilement ended a feud of twenty years.
pacationism	n.	/pəˈkeɪʃənɪzəm/	a policy of seeking peace	■■ ■■■ ■■	Critics dismissed his pacationism as naive surrender.
mansuetude	n.	/ˈmænsʍɪtjuːd/	gentleness; mildness of temper	■■■■	The teacher's mansuetude calmed even the rowdiest class.
unruffledness	n.	/ˈnʌrɪfəldnəs/	calm composure; serenity	■■■■, ■■■	Her unruffledness in the storm reassured the passengers.
amiableness	n.	/ˈeɪmiəbəlness/	good-natured friendliness	■■■■, ■■■	His amiableness smoothed over the tense negotiation.
irenicism	n.	/aɪrənɪsɪzəm/	a commitment to peace and reconciliation	■■■■■	His irenicism sought common ground between the warring sects.
peaceable	adj.	/ˈpiːsəbəl/	disposed to peace; not quarrelsome	■■■■, ■■■	A peaceable people, they settled disputes by talk, not force.
quiescence	n.	/kwɪˈsɪns/	a state of quiet repose	■■■, ■■	After the storm a deep quiescence settled over the valley.
temperateness	n.	/ˈtɛmpərɪtnəs/	moderation and calm self-restraint	■■■■, ■■	His temperateness in the dispute earned wide respect.
cordiality	n.	/ˈkɔːrdiəlɪti/	warm, friendly goodwill	■■ ■■■ ■■	The rivals greeted each other with unexpected cordiality.
peacemaking	n.	/ˈpiːsmeɪkɪŋ/	the act of reconciling parties in conflict	■■■, ■■■ ■■	Her patient peacemaking finally ended the standoff.

SAT 2000 — Day 39 · Innovation & Novelty (■■■·■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
avant-garde	adj.	/ævɑːˈɡɑːrd/	radically new and experimental in style	■■■■	The gallery devoted a wing to avant-garde sculptors who rejected every convention.
neoteric	adj.	/niˈtɒtɪk/	recent in origin; modern, new	■■■	His neoteric methods unsettled the older engineers wedded to the manual.
newfangled	adj.	/njuˈfæŋɡld/	newly devised and needlessly novel	■■■	Grandfather distrusted every newfangled gadget the salesman pushed on him.
nascent	adj.	/næsnt/	just coming into existence; emerging	■■■■	The nascent industry had no regulations and only a handful of firms.
pioneering	adj.	/paɪˈniəri/	first to develop or apply something new	■■■■	Her pioneering work in gene editing reshaped the entire field.
unprecedented	adj.	/nʌˈprɪsɪdnt/	never done or known before	■■ ■■	The treaty granted unprecedented autonomy to the territory.
innovative	adj.	/ɪˈnveɪtɪv/	introducing new ideas or methods	■■■■	An innovative cooling design let the chip run far cooler.
groundbreakin g	adj.	/ˈɡraʊndbreɪkɪŋ/	pioneering; introducing major new advances	■■■■	The groundbreaking study overturned a century of assumptions.
trailblazing	adj.	/ˈtreɪlbleɪzɪŋ/	pioneering; opening a new path	■■■■	Her trailblazing career inspired a generation of women in physics.
revolutionary	adj.	/rɪˈvɒljʊˈʃənəri/	involving radical, complete change	■■■■	The revolutionary engine made every prior model obsolete overnight.
vanguard	n.	/ˈvænɡɑːrd/	the leading edge of new developments	■■	The lab stayed at the vanguard of quantum research for a decade.
avant-gardist	n.	/ævɑːˈɡɑːrdɪst/	a champion of experimental new art	■■■■■	As an avant-gardist, she scorned anything that audiences found comfortable.
iconoclast	n.	/aɪˈkɒnɪklæst/	one who attacks cherished beliefs or institutions	■■ ■■■	The iconoclast dismantled assumptions his colleagues had never questioned.
iconoclastic	adj.	/aɪˈkɒnɪklæstɪk/	attacking established beliefs or customs	■■ ■■■■	His iconoclastic lectures delighted students and enraged the faculty.
maverick	n.	/ˈmævərɪk/	an independent-minded nonconformist	■■■	A maverick by temperament, she ignored the committee and built it anyway.
novel	adj.	/nɒvəl/	new and unusual; not previously seen	■■■	They proposed a novel approach that no rival had considered.
novelty	n.	/nɒvəlti/	the quality of being new or original	■■■	The novelty of the interface wore off once users hit its limits.
originality	n.	/ˈɒrɪdʒɪnælɪti/	the quality of being inventive and new	■■■	Critics praised the originality of her debut over its technical flaws.
ingenuity	n.	/ˈɪndʒɪnjuˈɪti/	cleverness in inventing or devising	■■■	With remarkable ingenuity, the crew improvised a filter from spare parts.
inventive	adj.	/ɪnˈvɛntɪv/	skilled at devising new things	■■■■	The inventive chef paired ingredients no one had dared combine.
creativity	n.	/kriˈeɪtɪvɪti/	the use of imagination to create new things	■■■	The workshop was designed to unlock the team's dormant creativity.
avantgarde	adj.	/ævɑːˈɡɑːrd/	experimental and ahead of its time	■■■	The avantgarde score abandoned melody for pure texture.
cutting-edge	adj.	/kʌtɪŋ ˈɛdʒ/	at the forefront of new development	■■■■	The startup ran on cutting-edge hardware few labs could afford.
state-of-the- art	adj.	/steɪt ˈv ɔɪ ˈɑːrt/	the most advanced currently available	■■■■	The clinic installed a state-of-the-art imaging suite last spring.
futuristic	adj.	/fjuˈtʃərɪstɪk/	ahead of its time; very modern	■■■■	The pavilion's futuristic curves made nearby buildings look quaint.
unconventiona l	adj.	/ˈʌnkənˈvənʃənəl/	not bound by accepted norms	■■■■	Her unconventional teaching threw out the textbook entirely.
nonconformist	n.	/nɒnkənˈfɔːrmɪst/	one who refuses to follow established norms	■■■■■■	The nonconformist dressed, worked, and thought against the grain.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
heterodox	adj.	/ˈhɛt̪əˈdɒks/	departing from accepted doctrine	헤테로독스	His heterodox economics drew fire from the orthodox establishment.
heresy	n.	/ˈhɛrəsi/	a belief opposed to established doctrine	헤레시	To question the founder's method was treated as outright heresy.
radical	adj.	/ˈrædɪkəl/	favoring fundamental, far-reaching change	라디칼	The proposal was too radical for the cautious board to accept.
insurgent	adj.	/ˈɪnsɜːrdʒənt/	rebellious against established authority or norms	인수르젝	An insurgent faction of designers broke from the studio's house style.
disruptive	adj.	/dɪsˈrʌptɪv/	radically altering an existing market or order	디럽티브	The app's disruptive model gutted the incumbents within two years.
experimental	adj.	/ˌɛksˈpɛrɪm̩ntl̩/	based on untested, new methods	엑스퍼리멘탈	The clinic offered an experimental therapy still under review.
avant	adj.	/ˈæv̩/	experimental; ahead of the mainstream	아방	The avant collective staged performances in abandoned factories.
originative	adj.	/ˌɔrɪˈdɪneɪtɪv/	having the power to originate; creative	오리네이티브	An originative thinker, she founded a school of design from nothing.
protean	adj.	/ˈprəʊtiən/	versatile; readily taking on new forms	프로테안	His protean talent let him reinvent his sound with each album.
germinal	adj.	/ˈdʒɜːrmɪnəl/	in an early stage; seminal and generative	저멀	The germinal idea, scribbled on a napkin, became a whole discipline.
seminal	adj.	/ˈsɪmɪnəl/	highly original and strongly influential	세멀. 씨얼 씨	That seminal paper seeded decades of research that followed.
embryonic	adj.	/ˌɛmbriˈɒnɪk/	in a very early stage of development	엠브리온릭	The technology remained embryonic, years from any market.
fledgling	adj.	/ˈflɛdʒlɪŋ/	new, inexperienced, and just emerging	플레들링	The fledgling firm had three employees and one bold idea.
upstart	n.	/ˈʌpstɜːrt/	a newcomer who challenges the established	업스타	The upstart undercut the giants and stole their loyal customers.
avantist	n.	/ˈæv̩tɪst/	a proponent of forward, experimental ideas	아반티스트	The avantist crowd dismissed tradition as mere nostalgia.
trendsetting	adj.	/ˈtrɛndˌsɛtɪŋ/	establishing new fashions or directions	트렌드세팅	Her trendsetting designs were copied across the industry by fall.
pathbreaking	adj.	/ˈpæθbreɪkɪŋ/	pioneering; opening new directions	패쓰브레이킹	The pathbreaking surgery has since become routine worldwide.
neologism	n.	/ˌniːləˈdʒɪzəm/	a newly coined word or expression	네올러지즘	The article bristled with neologisms the dictionary had yet to record.
avantgardism	n.	/ˈæv̩ˌɡɑːrdɪzəm/	commitment to experimental innovation	아방가르디즘	Her avantgardism alienated patrons but thrilled younger critics.
reinvent	v.	/ˈriːɪnvɛnt/	to remake in a wholly new form	리인벤트	The brand reinvented itself to capture a younger market.
modernize	v.	/ˈmɒd̩rnaɪz/	to update with new methods or features	모던라이즈	They modernized the factory with robots and shed half the staff.
pioneer	v.	/ˈpaɪəniə/	to be first to develop or explore	파이니어	The team pioneered a technique now taught in every program.
originate	v.	/ˌɔrɪˈdɪneɪt/	to create or bring into being	오리네이트	She originated a style that imitators have chased ever since.

SAT 2000 — Day 40 · Tradition & Convention (■■■-■■■)

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
orthodox	adj.	/ˈɔːrθədɒks/	conforming to established doctrine	■■■	His methods were strictly orthodox, by the book in every step.
customary	adj.	/ˈkʌstəmri/	according to long-established practice	■■■■	It is customary here to bow before entering the hall.
hidebound	adj.	/ˈhaɪdbaʊnd/	rigidly bound by tradition; narrow-minded	■■■	The hidebound committee rejected any departure from custom.
time-honored	adj.	/ˈtaɪm ˈnɔːrd/	respected because long established	■■ ■■	They followed the time-honored ritual exactly as their elders had.
conventional	adj.	/kənˈvɛnənəl/	based on accepted norms; ordinary	■■■■	They chose a conventional ceremony over anything unusual.
conformist	adj.	/kənˈfɔːrmɪst/	complying with accepted standards	■■■■	The conformist culture punished anyone who stood out.
traditionalist	n.	/trəˈdɪʃənəlɪst/	one who upholds long-established customs	■■■■■	As a traditionalist, she kept every recipe exactly as inherited.
orthodoxy	n.	/ˈɔːrθədɒksi/	established and accepted doctrine	■■	To challenge the reigning orthodoxy was to risk one's career.
convention	n.	/kənˈvɛnən/	an established, accepted practice	■■	By convention, the host speaks first and the guest replies.
canon	n.	/ˈkænən/	an accepted body of rules or works	■■.■■	For centuries the canon admitted no women to its ranks.
canonical	adj.	/kənənənəl/	conforming to an accepted standard	■■■	The canonical edition is the one scholars always cite.
creed	n.	/kriːd/	a formal statement of held beliefs	■■	Self-reliance was the family creed, recited like scripture.
precept	n.	/ˈpriːsɪpt/	a rule prescribing conduct or thought	■■.■■	He governed his days by precepts handed down from his teacher.
hallowed	adj.	/ˈhæləd/	honored as holy or long-revered	■■■■■	They debated within the hallowed halls of the ancient academy.
august	adj.	/ˈɔːɡst/	venerable and dignified; commanding respect	■■ ■■	The august academy had admitted only a handful of members each year.
ancestral	adj.	/ænˈsɪstrəl/	inherited from one's forebears	■■ ■■■	They returned each spring to tend the ancestral shrine.
hereditary	adj.	/hɪˈrɪdɪtri/	passed down from generation to generation	■■■	The title was hereditary, descending always to the eldest son.
patrimony	n.	/ˈpætrɪmni/	heritage inherited from one's ancestors	■■ ■■	The estate was the family's patrimony, never to be sold.
folkway	n.	/ˈfɒkweɪ/	a customary practice of a community	■■ ■■	The village folkways dictated who sat where at every meal.
mores	n.	/ˈmɔːreɪz/	the accepted customs of a community	■■.■■	Outsiders often violated the mores of the close-knit town.
decorum	n.	/dɪˈkɔːrəm/	proper behavior befitting custom	■■	Strict decorum was expected at the formal dinner.
propriety	n.	/ˈprɒpraɪti/	conformity to accepted standards of conduct	■■■■	A breach of propriety could ruin a young person's prospects.
etiquette	n.	/ˈetɪkɪt/	the customary code of polite behavior	■■■	Court etiquette dictated when one might speak to the king.
observance	n.	/əbˈzɜːrvəns/	the keeping of a custom or rite	■■	The strict observance of the fast lasted a full month.
ritual	n.	/ˈrɪtuəl/	a set, ceremonial series of actions	■■	The tea ritual unfolded in the same precise sequence every time.
rite	n.	/raɪt/	a prescribed ceremonial act	■■	The coming-of-age rite marked a youth's passage to adulthood.
liturgy	n.	/ˈlɪtɜːrdʒi/	a fixed, prescribed form of public worship	■■	The ancient liturgy was chanted in a language few understood.
sacrosanct	adj.	/ˈsækrəsækt/	too revered to be altered or questioned	■■■■■	The founder's rules were treated as sacrosanct by the staff.

Word	POS	IPA	English	Korean	Example
inviolable	adj.	/ɪnˈvaɪəbəl/	never to be broken or violated	■■■■	The custom of hospitality was inviolable in those mountain villages.
immemorial	adj.	/ɪmˈmɪəriəl/	existing beyond the reach of memory	■■■■	From time immemorial the clan had gathered at the old well.
deep-seated	adj.	/diːp ˈsiːtɪd/	firmly established at a deep level	■■ ■■	The custom answered a deep-seated need for belonging.
reactionary	adj.	/riːækʃənəri/	opposing change; favoring a former order	■■■■	The reactionary faction sought to restore the old hierarchy.
conservatism	n.	/kənˈsɜːrvətɪzəm/	commitment to preserving established ways	■■■■	Institutional conservatism slowed every proposed reform.
hieratic	adj.	/ˈhaɪərətɪk/	highly stylized and bound by sacred tradition	■■ ■■■	The hieratic poses in the murals followed a rigid ancient formula.
formalism	n.	/fɔːrməlɪzəm/	strict adherence to prescribed forms	■■■■	The court's formalism reduced every act to fixed procedure.
establishment	n.	/ˈstæblɪʃmənt/	the entrenched power and its conventions	■■■■	The young reformers railed against the cultural establishment.
institutionalized	adj.	/ɪnstɪtjuːʃənəl aɪzd/	established as an accepted norm	■■■■	Over decades the practice became fully institutionalized.
normative	adj.	/nɔːrmətɪv/	establishing or relating to a standard	■■■■	The text laid out the normative customs newcomers must learn.
prescriptive	adj.	/prɪˈskrɪptɪv/	dictating how things ought to be done	■■■■	The guide was prescriptive, leaving no choice to the reader.
stereotyped	adj.	/ˈstɪrɪtaɪpt/	fixed in a conventional, unvarying form	■■ ■■	The play's stereotyped characters never strayed from their roles.
conformity	n.	/kənˈfɔːrmɪti/	compliance with accepted standards	■■	The school prized conformity over any spark of independence.
ossified	adj.	/ˈɒsɪfaɪd/	rigidly fixed; incapable of change	■■■	The ossified bureaucracy could not adapt to the new century.
old-fashioned	adj.	/ˈɔːld ˈfæʃnd/	belonging to an earlier, traditional style	■■■	He kept old-fashioned manners that charmed the older guests.
antiquated	adj.	/ˈæntɪkweɪtɪd/	old-fashioned and out of date	■■■	The antiquated rules still governed the dusty old guild.
consuetude	n.	/kənswɪtjuːd/	established custom or usage	■■, ■■	Long consuetude had hardened the ritual into law.
traditionalism	n.	/trəˈdɪʃənəlɪzəm/	adherence to tradition and custom	■■■■	The academy's traditionalism resisted every reform.
conventionality	n.	/kənˈvɛnənəlɪti/	conformity to accepted custom	■■■, ■■ ■■	The novel's plot never strays from dull conventionality.
praxis	n.	/ˈpræksɪs/	customary practice or established usage	■■, ■■	The guild's praxis had passed unchanged through centuries.
stereotypy	n.	/ˈstɪrɪtaɪpi/	rigid adherence to a fixed pattern	■■■, ■■ ■■	The ceremony's stereotypy left no room for improvisation.
ritualism	n.	/ˈrɪtuəlɪzəm/	strict observance of established rites	■■■■, ■■■■	Empty ritualism had replaced any real devotion.